Polarization In The Church:

Polarization in the Church Hans Küng, Walter Kasper, 1973 Series statement also appears as The New concilium religion in the seventies Includes bibliographical references The Church's Mission in a Polarized World Aaron

Wessman, 2023-07-20 Christians and other people of good will are longing for a response that can lead the way out of the divisiveness and vitriol of our times I wrote this book to provide some assistance to readers to discern a way out of the toxicity in which we live and to stimulate courage and hope so that all people can see the age in which we live more clearly and respond with the grace necessary to follow more fully the call God has spoken a missionary call to deepen Christ's incarnational movement in our world Polarization in the US Catholic Church Mary Ellen Konieczny, Charles C.

Camosy, Tricia C. Bruce, 2016-08-12 It is no secret the body of Christ in the United States is broken While universality and unity amid diversity is a fundamental characteristic of Roman Catholicism all too familiar issues related to gender sexuality race and authority have rent the church Healthy debates characteristic of a living tradition suffer instead from an absence of genuine engagement and dialogue But there is still much that binds American Catholics In naming the wounds and exploring their social and religious underpinnings Polarization in the US Catholic Church underscores how shared beliefs and aspirations can heal deep fissures and the hurts they have caused Cutting across disciplinary and political lines this volume brings essential commentary in the direction of reclaimed universality among American Catholics Forming the Church in the Modern World Thomas A. Baima, 2019 This book examines and comments on various aspects of the theology of Avery

Cardinal Dulles SJ It demonstrates how important his ideas were in forming our current understanding of church and theology T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and Climate Change Hilda P. Koster, Ernst M.

Conradie, 2019-12-12 The T these essays are critically engaged by respondents situated in other geographic regions minority communities non Christian traditions or non theological disciplines Structured in seven main parts the handbook explores 1 the need for collaboration with disciplines outside of Christian theology to address climate change 2 the need to find common moral ground for such collaboration 3 the difficulties posed by collaborating with other Christian traditions from within 4 the questions that emerge from such collaboration for understanding the story of God's work and 5 God's identity and character 6 the implications of such collaboration for ecclesial praxis and 7 concluding reflections examining whether this volume does justice to issues of race gender class other animals religious diversity geographical divides and carbon mitigation This rich ecumenical cross cultural conversation provides a comprehensive and in depth engagement with the theological and moral challenges raised by anthropogenic climate change Pope Francis and the Transformation of Health Care Ethics

Todd A. Salzman, Michael G. Lawler, 2021-06-01 Inspired by the teachings of Pope Francis Salzman and Lawler provide the first extended critical commentary on the 2018 Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services ERD proposing new ways forward for US Catholic health care ethics that prioritize human dignity as their guiding principle

Mission and Context Jione Havea, 2020-06-30 Mission is contrived from and performed over lived contexts but the visions that guide and drive mission are oftentimes blinded by power position protection and plenitude This collection visits those matters with queering attention to the shadows that empires cast over the contexts of mission and to the collusion and complicity of Christians and churches with empires past as in the case of Rome and present as in the case of the United States of America In the interests of those in mission fields who survived but continue to agonize under the burdens of empires the contributors to this work dare to re vision the course and cause of mission Writing from minoritized settings in Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania the authors interweave the principles and practices of mission with the opportunities in decolonial theology and hermeneutics minoritized and migrant Christologies repatriation and the courage to get up and get out indigenous insights and wisdom mission archives stories of resistance and endurance in zones of contact and violence restless souls and returning spirits and life centered spiritual en countering In Mission and Context as with previous volumes in this series empires do not have the final word nor are they the final world     Art and Architecture for Congregational Worship Richard S. Vosko, 2019-09-26 A deep strain of tribal politics is dividing societies around the globe Organized religions are also coping with scandals disappointments and polarizing ideologies The history of Christianity reveals that such frictions deeply wound the church Fr Richard S Vosko recognizes that liturgical buildings are metaphorical expressions of the people of God He proposes in a relational way that when all physical and psychological boundaries in a place of worship are removed people will discover a common ground Building on theological foundations and design principles Vosko envisions what an egalitarian servant church can look like In a bold but thoughtful manner he presents progressive insights into the fields of church art and architecture     The Bible, the Bullet, and the Ballot Fabulous Moyo, 2017-03-31 The Bible the Bullet and the Ballot provides a balanced account of the role of Christians Christian organisations and churches in sociopolitical transformation over the bedrock of colonial and nationalist politics in the past century in Zimbabwe Fabulous Moyo explores the broader social and political impact of prominent African Christian clergy who were sociopolitical activists such as Ndabaningi Sithole Abel Muzorewa and Canaan Banana It also highlights the role of missionaries who contributed to the African struggle for independence such as Ralph Edward Dodge Donal Lamont and Garfield Todd He examines the contributions of African nationalist parties and prominent politicians with Christian roots such as Joshua Nkomo and Robert Mugabe in the struggle for independence and their contribution in the postcolonial era in light of their Christian heritage and the collective pre independence nationalist ideals on nation building and national unity     Church Planting in Post-Christian Soil Christopher B. James, 2018 Defying predictions of the inevitable decline of Christianity in the US Church Planting in Post Christian Soil presents the untold story of new churches springing up in Seattle one of the most post Christian cities in the nation     Global Catholicism Bryan T Froehle, Massimo Faggioli, 2024-10-02 Global Catholicism Between Disruption and Encounter opens the Studies in Global Catholicism series with an examination of a worldwide religious institution that up to now has been more globally extensive than truly globalized It explores the world historical and theological meaning of de Europeanization with church data by world region Readers get an in depth look at the institutional and theological capacity and limits of the cosmopolitan reality of today s Catholic Church Its integrated perspective grounded in cultural and political history together with an ecclesiology of post Vatican II Catholicism offers a new way to approach today s emerging post colonial inter cultural Global Catholicism as centuries old trajectories are disrupted and pressing new realities demand original responses

Competing for Caesar Chammah J. Kaunda,Marja Hinfelaar,2020-11-03 Competing for Caesar brings together for the first time key scholars working on various issues related to religion and public life in Zambia They explore the interplay between religion and politics in Zambian society and how these religions manage and negotiate their identities in public life This book analyzes recent religious dynamics in the nation s political life and considers what constructive role religion could play to promote an alternative political vision to subvert neo colonialism Competing for Caesar carries forward a unique commitment on the part of Fortress Press to engage with the challenges and opportunities of Christianity in the Global South The book will be of interest to scholars professors and students in a wide range of fields

Polarization and the Healthier Church Ronald Wayne Richardson,Ronald W Richardson, Dr,2012-04 Polarization is endemic in North American society We see its effects in nearly every political cultural theological and social issue The polarized issues that exist today are not new they have existed for all time and some may never be resolved What is different today though is the intensity of anger and hatred we experience Society seems unable to deal with the problems and move forward The approach Ronald Richardson describes here promotes neither a left nor right political agenda Building on many of the strategies offered in his earlier book Creating a Healthier Church the practical strategies presented here are based on his own successful approach to guiding church leaders congregations and community groups from conflict to understanding and cooperation Once again the application of Bowen family systems theory to the work of church leadership provides them with effective approaches to resolving divisive issues before they do irreparable damage to the church community

Francis and Mercy Gill K. Goulding, CJ,2023-09-15 This theological study examines how Pope Francis lives out mercy in his own Petrine ministry and calls for it to be lived out by the people of God The centerpiece of Pope Francis s pontificate from the very first days has been his proclamation of the importance of the mercy of God While facing global problems of climate change terror political destabilization refugees and dire poverty the Holy Father has articulated the mission of the Church through mercy love and forgiveness to reveal the compassion of God for all and particularly for those most vulnerable existing on the margins of society In this compelling study Gill Goulding CJ examines for the first time the critical and determinative role of mercy in Francis s papacy using his homilies allocutions encyclicals and addresses as primary sources Goulding traces the theme of mercy in Francis s thought attending to its Ignatian foundations and its Christological Trinitarian and ecclesiological significance for the Church today particularly the impact of his reappropriation and elevation of the discourse of mercy on the work of the Curia in Rome Goulding enters into dialogue with other theologians including Romano Guardini Walter Kasper and Hans Urs von Balthasar to demonstrate a continuity between Francis and his predecessors especially Benedict XVI in this area of mercy In addition Goulding argues that the influence of St Ignatius Loyola in particular his Spiritual Exercises needs to be taken into account paying special attention to Francis s call for the practice of discernment Throughout Pope Francis and Mercy Goulding lays the groundwork for future research and suggests a wider appreciation of the necessary tools to enable an engagement with mercy in our contemporary world The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Catholicism Frederick C.
