Minneapolis Reckoning Michelle S. Phelps, 2024-05-07 Since the beginning of the Black Lives Matter Movement in 2014 police brutality police violence and police reform have emerged as central public policy concerns and throughout that time Minneapolis has been at the center of these conversations both as a leader in progressive police reform and as a demonstration of the failure of those reforms From solidarity protests with Ferguson in 2014 to an occupation of a police precinct following the killing of Jamar Clark in 2015 protests following the death of Justine Damond Ruszczyk in 2017 and the uprising following George Floyd's murder in 2020 activists in Minneapolis have long demanded that the city take measures to make Black Lives Matter In 2020 these demands shifted from police reform and accountability toward police defunding and abolition culminating in a deeply contested ballot initiative to replace the Minneapolis Police Department with a new Department of Public Safety a debate that has come to symbolize the rift in opinion about the role of policing that continues to divide the nation

Taking the Law into their Own Hands Bruce Baker, 2017-03-02 Over much of Africa crime and insurgency are a serious problem and one in which the distinction between the two is being eroded Left without state protection people have sought to preserve their lives and property through vigilante groups and militias that pay scant attention to the law or human rights Likewise the state security forces under pressure to cut crime and rebel activity readily discard lawful procedures Torture provides them with vital information whilst extra judicial executions save the need to go through the prolonged criminal justice system After a general overview of the role of the rule of law in a democratic society Bruce Baker provides five case studies that capture the current complex realities and their impact on the new democracies The citizen responses considered are vigilantes in East African pastoral economies The Bakassi Boys an anti crime group in Nigeria and private policing initiatives in South Africa The state responses are those of the Ugandan Defence Forces towards the Lords Resistance Army the Senegalese army towards the Casamance secessionists and the Mozambique Police response towards criminals
