aspects of police stress management Additional chapters are dedicated to establishing psychological service functions that currently are less familiar to police agencies than they are to other government and private sector service recipients These chapters are devoted to police psychologists as human resource professionals as human factors experts in accommodating to new technology and to new legal requirements as organizational behavioral experts and as strategic planners This text is recommended reading for two groups police and public safety administrators whose work takes them or should take them into contact with police psychologists practicing and would be police psychologists concerned with the emerging trends in the application of psychology to police and other public safety programs

Personality Assessment in Police Psychology Peter A. Weiss, 2010 In recent years personality assessment by professional psychologists has taken on an increasingly important role in the field of police work Most importantly personality assessment instruments have been utilized in the pre employment psychological screening of police officer candidates This psychological screening takes place at the end of the hiring process to ensure that candidates do not have personality characteristics or existing psychopathology that would interfere with their job performance Personality assessment is also used for other applications in police psychology These applications include fitness for duty evaluations FFDEs and second opinion evaluations of officers who challenge hiring decisions Moreover police psychologists are involved in a considerable amount of research in order to determine which tests and scales are most appropriate for evaluations The present volume is divided into four parts to cover the relevant issues in personality assessment for police work Part I provides an introduction and the basic principles of personality assessment in police psychology Part II focuses on the major assessment instruments used in police psychology These include the MMPI 2 the Personality Assessment Inventory PAI the Inwald Personality Inventory IPI and Hilson Tests the M PULSE Inventory pre offer integrity instruments and the Rorschach Comprehensive System Part III examines multiple issues in personality assessment research in the field of police psychology Part IV covers applications of personality assessment in police psychology These applications include pre employment evaluations fitness for duty evaluations conditional second opinion psychological evaluations of candidates using multiple sources of information when conducting mandatory or required evaluations and the politics of personality assessment in police agencies This unique and comprehensive text is designed for psychologists who are actively working in the field of law enforcement including psychologists in both applied and research academic settings
