Policy Analysis And Deductive Reasoning:

Policy Analysis and Deductive Reasoning Gordon Tullock, Richard E. Wagner, 1985-01-01 Contributors to this volume present methodological foundations for deductive modeling in policy analysis applications to particular areas of public policy and applications to the institutional framework within which particular policies are chosen Originally published in 1978 by D C Heath and Company Co published with the Policy Studies Organization Policy Analysis and Deductive Reasoning Gordon Tullock, Richard E. Wagner, 1978-01-01 Elinor Ostrom and the Bloomington School of Political Economy Daniel H. Cole, Michael D. McGinnis, 2015-09-04 In addition to winning the 2009 Nobel Prize in Economic Sciences for her path breaking research on economic governance especially the commons Elinor Lin Ostrom also made important contributions to other fields of political economy and public policy This four volume compendium of papers written by Lin often with coauthors most notably her husband Vincent along with papers by others expanding on her work brings together the strands of her entire empirical analytical theoretical and methodological research program Together with Vincent's important theoretical contributions they defined a distinctive Bloomington School of political economic thought Volume 2 examines Lin's work on the commons in which she demonstrated that in many cases local resource users can solve collective action problems through common property management regimes It comprises papers including some that are not well known related to and building on the findings of Governing the Commons 1990 Part I focuses on key attributes of biophysical resources and the institutions human communities have designed to govern them Part II shows how in various social and ecological circumstances different sets of institutions facilitate or impede the long run sustainability of resources Part III highlights Ostrom's first major research project on water resources in Southern California It was a topic she and her students returned to with the specific intention of gathering data more than 50 years worth for longitudinal analyses of combined institutional and ecological change In sum this volume contextualizes what is at present thought to be Lin's greatest legacy to social science the conditions under which resources can be sustainably managed over very long periods of time by the collective action of ordinary people beyond markets and states Choice, Rules and Collective Action Elinor Ostrom, Vincent Ostrom, 2014-05-01 This volume brings a set of key works by Elinor Ostrom co recipient of the Nobel Prize in Economic Sciences together with those of Vincent Ostrom one of the originators of Public Choice political economy The two scholars introduce and expound their approaches and analytical perspectives on the study of institutions and governance The book puts together works representing the main analytical and conceptual vehicles articulated by the Ostroms to create the Bloomington School of public choice and institutional theory Their endeavours sought to re-establish the priority of theory over data collection and analysis and to better integrate theory and practice These efforts are illustrated via selected texts organised around three themes the political economy and public choice roots of their work in creating a distinct branch of political economy the evolutionary nature of their work that led them to go beyond mainstream public choice thereby enriching the public choice tradition itself and finally the foundational and epistemological dimensions and implications of their work

Synthesis Margaret Elizabeth McCallum, Christina L. Kunz, Deborah A.
