Innovative Measurement and Evaluation of Community Development Practices Norman Walzer, Jane Leonard, Mary Emery, 2017-10-02 Finding innovative and useful measurement practices for community development projects is gaining in importance as policymakers increase the demands for accountability This book examines some of the latest efforts to document the effectiveness of local development efforts The types of documentation differ by types of project jurisdiction and country but they have a common focus of recognizing the importance of the Community Capitals framework Public agencies in the past have often measured development successes by the number of jobs created and or amount of private investment forthcoming However the impacts of community development reach much deeper than those indicators Strengthening local decision making capacity is a common component of development efforts as is engaging populations that in the past have not been active in decision making These and other considerations are explored in more detail by authors in this volume Local policymakers and practitioners will be continually pressured to provide more documentation of outcomes and readers will gain considerable insights into alternative approaches that can be included in projects but can also see the common elements

needed to create a solid measurement system International insights are a special strength of the discussions in this book This book was published as a special issue of Community Development Poverty and Sustainable Development in Asia Asian Development Bank,2010-04-01 On 28 30 September 2009 the Asian Development Bank the governments of the People s Republic of China and Viet Nam and the ASEAN Secretariat jointly organized a high level Asia wide conference in Ha Noi on the social and environmental impact of the global economic crisis on Asia and the Pacific especially on the poor and vulnerable The conference also served as the 3rd China ASEAN Forum on Social Development and Poverty Reduction and as the 4th ASEAN 3 High Level Seminar on Poverty Reduction It was supported by various development partners This book features selected papers from the Ha Noi conference It is designed with the needs of policy makers in mind utilizing field country and thematic background studies to cover a large number of countries and cases It is complemented by a website comprising more information about the conference and all the papers presented there www.adb.org/Documents/Events/2009/Poverty_Social_Development/default.asp Poverty and Sustainable Development in Asia Armin Bauer,Myo Thant,2015-01-01 This joint publication from the Asian Development Bank and the Asian Development Bank Institute features selected papers from the September 2009 conference on the social and environmental impact of the global economic crisis on Asia and the Pacific especially on the poor and vulnerable The publication is designed with the needs of policy makers in mind utilizing field country and thematic background studies to cover a large number of countries and cases This publication suggests that the crisis is an opportunity to rethink the model of development in Asia for growth to become more inclusive and sustainable Issues that need to be more carefully considered include closing the gap of dualistic labor markets building up social protection systems rationalizing social expenditures addressing urban poverty through slum upgrading promoting rural development through food security programs in pro poor growth potential areas and concentrating climate change interventions on generating direct benefits for the environments of the poor The Greying of India Rajagopal D Chakraborti,2004-06-30 This book argues cogently that India s policymakers need to urgently take up the cause of the elderly in order to create an environment that insures them against various risks and allows them to maintain as much economic independence and self sufficiency as possible without disturbing the intergenerational balance The first of its kind to be based on data from the National Sample Survey Organisation and providing a global perspective this book constitutes the most comprehensive analysis of the causes and consequences of ageing in India The major objectives of the book are to Document the rapid growth of older populations in India Address the key issues and topics related to ageing Assess the implications of demographic changes for programmes and policies for the aged Present an Elderly Status Index based on available data Timely stimulating and challenging this book is packed with relevant and hitherto unanalysed data on ageing in India In particular it provides an exhaustive discussion on various conceptual and measurement issues relating to population ageing Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Development in Asia Sara Hsu,2018-05-30 In the present global context some countries still face many challenges to bringing about inclusive efficient and environmentally sustainable development Simultaneously the stakes of survival are rising as climate change exacerbates both environmental and social ills Asia as a region is particularly vulnerable as it is densely populated and includes both developed and developing countries The Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Development in Asia seeks to examine these issues in depth Presenting a comprehensive literature review as well as numerous case studies this book examines sustainable development from economic and social perspectives as well as from an environmental viewpoint Divided into seven parts the topics addressed include Environmental challenges Energy dependence and transition Economic justice Social welfare Sustainable governance Providing comprehensive coverage of a wide variety of countries in the region this handbook will be useful for students and scholars of sustainable development environment and society and Asian Studies in general

Negotiating Governance on Non-Traditional Security in Southeast Asia and Beyond Mely Caballero-Anthony, 2018-12-18 The threats the world currently faces extend beyond traditional problems such as major power competition interstate conflict and nuclear proliferation Non traditional security challenges such as climate change migration and natural disasters surpass states capacity to address them These limitations have led to the proliferation of other actors regional and international organizations transnational networks local and international nongovernmental organizations that fill the gaps when states responses are lacking and provide security in places where there is none In this book Mely Caballero Anthony examines how non traditional security challenges have changed state behavior and security practices in Southeast Asia and the wider East Asia region Referencing the wide range of transborder security threats confronting Asia today she analyzes how non state actors are taking on the roles of security governors engaging with states regional organizations and institutional frameworks to address multifaceted problems From controlling the spread of pandemics and transboundary pollution to managing irregular migration and providing relief and assistance during humanitarian crises Caballero Anthony explains how and why non state actors have become crucial across multiple levels local national and regional and how they are challenging regional norms and reshaping security governance Combining theoretical discussions on securitization and governance with a detailed and policy oriented analysis of important recent developments Negotiating Governance on Non Traditional Security in Southeast Asia and Beyond points us toward state plus governance where a multiplicity of actors form the building blocks for multilateral cooperative security processes to meet future global challenges that have been identified in Asian markets have been in the fields of technology application innovations change in the patterns of demands towards sustainable choices value chain re engineering and a growing consciousness about ethical choices The volume empowers readers to take actionable steps towards creating sustainable business solutions while also providing the opportunity to explore evolving perspectives on Asian market during the current period of disruption and how it has impacted businesses This book will enhance the competency of young start up ventures budding entrepreneurs from Asian and non Asian markets SMEs and mid level practitioners to manage and drive their organizations towards future sustainability in ensuring the value driven eco system This book will also be a guiding principle for the academics to undertake research on Asian market towards development of new solutions and actional strategies in addition to existing solutions

Migration, Development and Poverty Reduction in Asia Iom International Organization For Migration,2008 South Asia Development Update, April 2025 Weltbank,2025 Growth prospects for South Asia have dimmed The global economic environment has become more challenging and is a source of heightened downside risks After a decade of repeated disruptions South Asia s buffers to cushion new shocks are slim Tackling some of its greatest inefficiencies and vulnerabilities could help South Asia navigate this unusually uncertain outlook unproductive agricultural sectors dependence on energy imports pressures from rising global temperatures and fragile fiscal positions For most South Asian countries increased revenue mobilization is a prerequisite for strengthening fiscal positions Even taking into account the particular challenges of collecting taxes in South Asian economies such as widespread informal economic activity and large agriculture sectors South Asian economies face larger tax gaps than the average emerging market and developing economy EMDE This suggests the need for improved tax policy and administration Until fiscal positions have strengthened the burden of climate adaptation will disproportionately fall on the private sector If allowed sufficient flexibility private sector adaptation could offset about one third of the likely climate damage by 2050 This may however require governments to remove obstacles that prevent workers and firms from moving across locations and activities As growth prospects dim the challenge grows to create jobs for South Asia s rapidly expanding working age population South Asia s large diasporas could become a source of strength if their knowledge networks and other resources can be better tapped for investment and trade

Ageing in East Asia Tsung-hsi Fu,Rhidian Hughes,2009-02-13 This book explores the causes and trends of population ageing in East Asia and discusses the challenges and impacts of population ageing on public policies Assessing the Social Impact of Development Projects Hari Mohan Mathur,2015-12-16 This book shows how social impact assessment SIA which emerged barely five decades ago as a way to anticipate and manage potentially negative social impacts of building dams power stations urban infrastructure highways industries mining and other development projects is now widely in use as a planning tool especially in developed countries Although SIA has still not gained much acceptance among development planners in Asia the situation is gradually changing In India SIA initially mandated as a policy guideline in 2007 is now a legal requirement SIA in China has also recently become obligatory for certain types of development projects Bangladesh Laos Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka are other Asian countries that provide examples from a variety of externally funded projects illustrating the use of social impact analysis in project planning to improve development outcomes With contributions from an array of leading experts this book is a valuable resource on SIA indispensable for policymakers planners and practitioners in government international development agencies private sector industry private banks consultants teachers researchers and students of social sciences and development studies also NGOs everywhere not in Asia alone

Vietnamese Health Care System in Change Kerstin Priwitzer, 2003-08-01 Within the last twenty years a large scale bottom up privatization has taken place in Vietnam changing and dismantling the public health care system This process has led to severe tensions inherent in the transitional society of Vietnam between equity and access to health care support especially for the poor elderly migrants and ethnic minorities on the one hand and its efficiency on the other hand The book traces the reform efforts to modernize the health care system by the Communist Party of Vietnam and the Vietnamese government The author bases her findings on little known primary literature and interviews with key stakeholders of the policy network involved in the reform of the health care system thereby painting an authentic atmospheric picture of the profound changes in the health care system in Vietnam
