An Ordinary Life? Anna Müller, 2023-03-07 One woman's national political ethnic social and personal identities impart an extraordinary perspective on the histories of Europe Polish Jews Communism activism and survival during the twentieth century Tonia Lechtman was a Jew a loving mother and wife a Polish patriot a committed Communist and a Holocaust survivor Throughout her life these identities brought her to multiple countries Poland Palestine Spain France Germany Switzerland and Israel during some of the most pivotal and cataclysmic decades of the twentieth century In most of those places she lived on the margins of society while working to promote Communism and trying to create a safe space for her small children Born in d in 1918 Lechtman became fascinated with Communism in her early youth In 1935 to avoid the consequences of her political activism during an increasingly antisemitic and hostile political environment the family moved to Palestine where Tonia met her future husband Sioma In 1937 the couple traveled to Spain to participate in the Spanish Civil War After discovering she was pregnant Lechtman relocated to France while Sioma joined the International Brigades She spent the Second World War in Europe traveling with two small children between France Germany and Switzerland at times only miraculously avoiding arrest and being transported east to Nazi camps After the war she returned to Poland where she planned to re build Communist Poland However soon after her arrival she was imprisoned for six years In 1971 under pressure from her children Lechtman emigrated from Poland to Israel where she died in 1996 In writing Lechtman's biography Anna M ller has consulted a rich collection of primary source material including archival documentation private documents and photographs interviews from different periods of Lechtman's life and personal correspondence Despite this intimacy M ller also acknowledges key historiographical questions arising from the lacunae of lost materials the selective preservation of others and her own interpretive work translating a life into a life story
