War in the Age of the Enlightenment, 1700-1789 Armstrong Starkey,2003-10-30 War in the 18th century war was a complex operation including popular as well as conventional conflict between Europeans and with non Europeans These conflicts influenced European intellectuals and contributed to the complexity of Enlightenment thought While Enlightenment writers regarded war as the greatest evil confronting mankind they had little hope that it could be eliminated thus peace proposals of the day were joined by more realistic discussion of the means by which war might be limited or rendered more humane In this book the author considers the influence of ideas and values on the actions of Enlightenment military personnel and how the rational spirit of the time influenced military thought producing a military enlightenment that applied rational analysis to military tactics and to the composition of armies In the late Enlightenment military writers explored the psychological foundations of war as a means of stimulating a new military spirit among the troops The Enlightenment was however not the only cultural influence upon war during this century Religion the traditional values of the ancien regime and local values all contributed to the culture of force When Europeans engaged in military encounters with peoples in other parts of the globe cultural interchange inevitably occurred as well Further there is a revolutionary element that one must consider when defining the military culture The result of all these factors was a creative tension in 18th century warfare and an extraordinarily complex military culture Literature Connections to World History 712 Lynda G.

A History of Central Europe Robert C. Austin, 2021-09-30 This textbook offers a survey of the history of Central Europe since 1848 from the Springtime of Nations through the world wars and communist period to NATO and EU membership With an emphasis on nation building it gives the reader a better understanding of not just political history but also of the region's economic development and of everyday life The book brings the reader right up to the present considering contemporary issues such as the impact of the 2015 refugee crisis migration out of Central Europe the weakening of democratic institutions and the re emergence of nationalism Throughout it offers fresh perspectives gives agency to Central Europe and pays attention to the ethnic linguistic and religious diversity of the region This is essential reading for students taking courses on Central East Central Europe It is also suitable for courses on 19th and 20th Century Europe or for anyone with an interest in the region

Public Knowledge in Cold War Poland Alexej Lochmatow, 2023-09-22 This book explores the public debates among scholars that took place in Early Cold War Poland The author challenges the traditional narrative on the Sovietisation of Central and Eastern European countries and proposes to see this process not as a spread of Marxist ideology or a Soviet institutional model but as an attempt to force scholars to rapidly adopt new academic and civic virtues This book argues that this project failed to succeed in Poland and shows how the struggle against these new virtues united both Marxist and non Marxist scholars While covering the arc of Polish scholarly debates the author invites the reader to go beyond Poland and to use virtues as a framework for reflections on both the foundations of scholarly practice and the nature of authoritarian regimes with their ambition to teach scholars how to be virtuous

Art and Labour Dave Beech,2020-06-22 This book provides a new history of the changing relationship between art craft and industry focusing on the transition from workshop to studio apprentice to pupil guild to gallery and artisan to artist Responding to the question whether the artist is a relic of the feudal mode of production or is a commodity producer corresponding to the capitalist mode of cultural production this inquiry reveals instead that the history of the formation of art as distinct from handicraft commerce and industry can be traced back to the dissolution of the dual system of guild and court This history needs to be revisited in order to rethink the categories of aesthetic labour attractive labour alienated labour nonalienated labour and unwaged labour that shape the modern and contemporary politics of work in art
