Political Islam Revolution Radicalism Or Reform:

Political Islam John L. Esposito, 1997 A first class team of scholars provides recent information on Muslim politics across the world and highlights key themes that condition those politics Lucidly written and cogent in analysis James Piscatori

Radical Islam Rising Quintan Wiktorowicz, 2005-07-21 This unique book represents one of the first systematic attempts to explain why thousands of Westerners heed international calls to jihad and join radical Islamic groups Drawing on his unprecedented access to a radical Islamic group Quintan Wiktorowicz details the subtle process that can turn seemingly unreligious people into supporters of religious violence The author s extraordinary fieldwork forms the basis of a detailed case study of al Muhajiroun a transnational movement based in London that supports Bin Laden and other Islamic terrorists Through its rich empirical detail the case study explains the larger question of why ordinary people join extremist movements

Global Political Islam Peter Mandaville, 2010-07-02 An accessible and comprehensive account of the global dimensions of political Islam in the twenty first century explaining political Islam nationalism and globalization and providing a detailed account of Al Qaeda

Political Islam in the Age of Democratization K. Bokhari, F. Senzai, 2013-12-18 The continued prominence of Islam in the struggle for democracy in the Muslim world has confounded Western democracy theorists who largely consider secularism a prerequisite for democratic transitions Kamran Bokhari and Farid Senzai offer a comprehensive view of the complex nature of contemporary political Islam and its relationship to democracy

Islam in Indonesian Foreign Policy Rizal Sukma, 2004-03-01 This companion volume to the highly successful Islam in Malaysian Foreign Policy explores the extent to which foreign policy in the world's largest Muslim nation has been influenced by Islamic considerations Islamism and the Quest for Hegemony in Indonesia Luqman Nul Hakim, 2023-02-25 This book examines the failure of Islamic politics in becoming a hegemonic force in Indonesia and the far reaching consequences for current practices of democracy and of Islam itself In contrast to the thesis of compatibility between Islam and democracy following the dominant discourse of the Global War on Terror GWOT and neoliberal democracy this study situates Islamic politics in broader social settings by examining its nature and trajectories throughout Indonesia's modern political history The book thus investigates how the practices of Islamic politics or Islamism have shaped and been transformed through political contestations and the formation of coalitions of multiple forces in constructing Indonesia's socio political landscape Using the concept of hegemony from poststructuralist discourse theory the analytical framework applied in this book goes beyond liberal epistemologies of Islamism that prescribe the separation of religion from politics and treat Islamism as an object of intervention Instead the book is premised on the contention that Indonesia is a political construction in which Islam has become one of the major discourses that have defined and transformed Indonesia's nation state throughout history In this view it is argued that the nature and dynamics of Islamism are not driven primarily by different interpretations of religious doctrines cultural norms or by the imperative of institutions Rather the struggles of different Islamist projects in their quest for hegemony are contingent on the outcomes of socio political changes and contestations that involve multiple political forces both within and beyond the Islamists in specific historical conjunctures

The Contemporary Middle East Karl Yambert, 2012-11-01 The Contemporary Middle East provides an accessible introduction to the region's most pressing concerns and enduring conflicts It includes provocative contributions by an impressive array of leading scholars journalists and policy advisors Contributors include notable academic authors Arthur Goldschmidt Jr the late William L Cleveland Shibley Telhami David W Lesch Bernard Reich and Phebe Marr complemented by selections from recent general interest books by Marwan Bishara Mark Perry and Eugene Rogan among others With twelve new chapters the third edition is a probing examination of the current affairs of the Middle East Its multiple readings on strategic pairings of topics Israel and the Palestinians Iraq and Iran Egypt and Syria illuminate the region's key issues from a variety of perspectives Part and chapter opening summaries help establish background and context and a new concluding chapter by Shibley Telhami written specifically for this volume candidly addresses fundamental questions about the United States and the Middle East today Student resources include an annotated table of contents a select bibliography a glossary brief biographies of notable persons a chronology and a summary of recent events in addition to numerous maps

Why Muslims Rebel Mohammed M. Hafez, 2003 Rejecting theories of economic deprivation and psychological alienation Mohammed Hafez offers a provocative analysis of the factors that contribute to protracted violence in the Muslim world today Hafez combines a sophisticated theoretical approach and detailed case studies to show that the primary source of Islamist insurgencies lies in the repressive political environments within which the vast majority of

Muslims find themselves Highlighting when and how institutional exclusion and indiscriminate repression contribute to large scale rebellion he provides a crucial dimension to our understanding of Islamic politics Radicalization and

De-Radicalization between National and Global Jihadism Sara Brzuszkiewicz,2023-12-11 At the turn of the Twenty first century a number of violent jihadi groups laid down their arms as in the case of Egypt and Libya Many of those former fighters ceased actual violence and some of them took a step forward initiating processes of ideological de radicalization and doctrinal changes that deeply transformed their stance towards the State and active confrontation How was it possible for those groups to disengage and de radicalize Why doesn t this happen again among other contemporary jihadists Sara Brzuszkiewicz argues that the answer is simple yet quite pessimistic those who de radicalized were national jihadists Once jihad goes global it is no longer possible for an organic process of collective and political de radicalization to happen

Radicalization and de radicalization between national and global jihadism From the first Egyptian national jihadists to Al Qaeda retraces the trajectory of the jihadists who de radicalized and of those who went global and measures the role of national jihadism and its characteristics in making de radicalization a viable option Redefining security in the Middle East Tami Jacoby,Brent Sasley,2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license For over five decades the Cold War security agenda was distinguished by the principal strategic balance that of a structure of bipolarity between the United States US and the Soviet Union USSR This book seeks to draw from current developments in critical security studies in order to establish a new framework of inquiry for security in the Middle East It addresses the need to redefine security in the Middle East The focus is squarely on the Arab Israeli context in general and the Palestinian Israeli context in particular The character of Arab Israeli relations are measured by the Israeli foreign policy debate from the 1950s to the 1990s A dialogue between Islam and Islamism as a means to broaden the terrain on which conflict resolution and post bipolar security in the Middle East is to be understood is presented The Middle East peace process MEPP was an additional factor in problematizing the military strategic concept of security in the Middle East The shift in analysis from national security to human security reflects the transformations of the post Cold War era by combining military with non military concerns such as environmental damage social unrest economic mismanagement cultural conflict gender inequity and radical fundamentalism By way of contrast to realist international relations IR theory developing world theorists have proposed a different set of variables to explain the unique challenges facing developing states Finally the book examines the significance of ecopolitics in security agendas in the Middle East Religion and

State Leon Carl Brown,2000 The image of Islam as an aggressive and xenophobic religion has long prevailed and can at times appear to be substantiated by current affairs This work challenges this conventional view with a historical overview ranging from Islam s early centuries to the present day Asian Islam in the 21st Century John L. Esposito,John

Voll,Osman Bakar,2008 Asian Islam in the 21st century is divided into two sections religion politics and society in major

Muslim majority countries and ethnic and religious politics in Muslim minority communities Muslims in Asia are affected by what is happening in the Arab Middle East and the Western part of the Islamic world Resurgent Islam Philip W.

Sutton, Stephen Vertigans, 2005-11-11 With a glossary and a bibliography Terrorism in Asymmetrical Conflict

Ekaterina A. Stepanova, 2008 This volume combines qualitative research with the analysis of available data on trends in modern terrorism and the use of primary sources and writings It puts forward an original typology of terrorism based on the overall level of a militant group's goals and the extent to which its terrorist activities are linked to a broader armed conflict

The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion , Hizbu'llah Amal Saad-Ghorayeb, 2001-01-12 Hizbu'llah is the largest and most prominent political party in Lebanon and one of the most renowned Islamist movements in the world In this book Amal Saad Ghorayeb examines the organisation's understanding of jihad and how this together with its belief in martyrdom brought about the withdrawal of Israeli occupation forces from Lebanon in May 2000 Saad Ghorayeb explores the nature of the party's struggle against the West by studying its views on the use of violence against Westerners Crucially she also addresses the question of whether Hizbu'llah depicts this struggle in purely political or civilisational terms The existential nature of the movement's conflict with Israel is analysed and the Islamic roots of its anti Judaism is unearthed The author explores the mechanics and rationale behind the party's integration into the Lebanese political system and sheds light on how it has reconciled its national identity with its solidarity with the Muslim umma Guide to Islamist Movements

Barry M. Rubin, Islam and the Orientalist World-system Khaldoun Samman, Mazhar Al-Zo'by, 2015-11-17 Featuring Immanuel Wallerstein Joseph Massad Marnia Lazreg and other well known and emerging new authors this book seeks a more accurate understanding of Islam and Islamic societies role and relations to global cultural and economic realities The book confronts a trend today of analyzing Islam as a cultural system that stands outside of and even predates modernity The authors see this trend as part of a racist discourse unaware of the realities of contemporary Islam Islamic societies today are products of the world capitalist system and cannot be understood as being separate from its forces The authors offer a more carefully constructed and richer portrait of Islamic societies today and forcefully challenge the belief that Islam is not part of nor much affected by the modern world system

The Politics of State Intervention Shireen Burki, 2013-08-22 The Politics of State Intervention Gender Politics in Pakistan Afghanistan and Iran examines how three culturally and religiously interconnected neighboring states have sought to regulate the lives of their female populace in order to gauge how successful or unsuccessful these efforts have been at the grassroots level Utilizing a historical framework it explores the gender specific policies of these states to assess whether or not shared cultural religious and social characteristics translate into similar gender policies and outcomes across borders and if not why Through comparison it conclusively identifies social and political roadblocks that threaten both the long term prospects and security for all females as well as factors that tend to somewhat ameliorate detrimental tendencies
