developed to measure different variables of organizational behavior Organizational Behaviour and the Physical Environment Oluremi B. Ayoko, Neal M Ashkanasy, 2019-06-27 This book looks at how the physical environment of work shapes organizational behaviour demonstrating that our physical surroundings at work can have a big influence on employee productivity performance and wellbeing Drawing upon the latest research Organizational Behaviour and the Physical Environment provides comprehensive coverage of the different aspects of the physical environment at work the buildings furnishings equipment lighting air quality and their configurations From theories of psychological ownership and work design to cultural issues and technology in the workplace its international range of contributors provide voices from Australasia North America Europe and the Middle East This book will be invaluable supplementary reading for advanced students researchers and practitioners across the fields of organizational behaviour HRM organizational and environmental psychology and workspace design Women in Public Administration of the American States Sharada Rath, 1998 The book analysis the administrative value of women state administrators in America On the basis of this analysis the author has drawn the conclusion that although upward career mobility of women in administration is less due to the glass ceiling bar gender variation does not exist so far as political acuity efficiency and managerial competency of women administrators are concerned Intercultural Relations In Asia: Migration And Work Effectiveness Chan-hoong Leong, John W Berry, 2009-08-14 This book showcases some of the key thematic issues reported by Asian migrants and sojourners residing abroad as well as non Asians living in the Far East The diverse range and scope of the papers demonstrate the interdisciplinary convoluted and intertwined perspectives in human transnational movement The book comprises four thematic sections in Intercultural Relations and Social Integration cross national interactions and the notion of rootedness and nation state among individuals and their families form the nexus of discussion On Cultural Competency in Workplace and Social Environment the individuals and their performance in the social and corporate spheres take center stage On one hand both Asians and non Asians share similar challenges across cultures but on the other they each reported different social and workplace dynamics as a consequence of their ethnic cultural background In Sociocultural Effectiveness and Emotional Adaptation the focus gravitates toward socio emotional adjustment of Asian and Western sojourners in cultures opposite their own In order to appreciate the cultural and emotive dimensions discursive examination and comparative analysis across geographic locations are needed The last thematic category in Understanding Asian Migration in Asia a ubiquitous challenge in Asian societies will be presented the rural urban labor migration movement in China Why We Fight Christopher Blattman, 2023-04-18 Why We Fight reflects Blattman s expertise in economics political science and history Blattman is a great storyteller with important insights for us all Richard H Thaler winner of the Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Sciences and coauthor of Nudge Engaging and profound this deeply searching book explains the true origins of warfare and it illustrates the ways that despite some contrary appearances human beings are capable of great goodness Nicholas A

Christakis author of Blueprint The Evolutionary Origins of a Good Society Why did Russia attack Ukraine Will China invade Taiwan and launch WWII Why has the number of civil wars reached their highest level in decades Why are so many cities in the Americas plagued with violence And finally what can any of us do about it It feels like we re surrounded by violence Each conflict seems unique and insoluble With a reason for every war and a war for every reason what hope is there for peace Fortunately it s simpler than that Why We Fight boils down decades of economics political science psychology and real world interventions giving us some counterintuitive answers to the question of war The first is that most of the time we don t fight Around the world there are millions of hostile rivalries yet only a fraction erupt into violence Most enemies loathe one another in peace The reason is simple war is too costly to fight It s the worst way to settle our differences In those rare instances when fighting ensues that means we have to ask ourselves What kept rivals from the normal grudging compromise The answer is always the same It s because a society or its leaders ignored those costs of war or were willing to pay them Why We Fight shows that there are just five ways this happens From warring states to street gangs ethnic groups and religious sects to political factions Christopher Blattman shows that there are five reasons why violent conflict occasionally wins over compromise Through Blattman s time studying Medell n Chicago Liberia Northern Ireland and more we learn the common logics driving vainglorious monarchs dictators mobs pilots football hooligans ancient peoples and fanatics Why We Fight shows that war isn t a series of errors accidents and emotions gone awry There are underlying strategic ideological and institutional forces that are too often overlooked So how to get to peace Blattman shows that societies are surprisingly good at interrupting and ending violence when they want to even gangs do it The best peacemakers tackle the five reasons shifting incentives away from violence and getting rivals back to dealmaking And they do so through tinkering not transformation

Realistic and optimistic this is a book that lends new meaning to the adage Give peace a chance Handbook of Research on Gender and Leadership Susan R. Madsen, 2024-01-18 Although some progress has been made in recent decades in getting women into top positions in government business and education there are persisting challenges with efforts to improve opportunities for women in leadership This essential second edition of the Handbook of Research on Gender and Leadership comprises the latest research from the world s foremost scholars on women and leadership exposing problems and offering both theoretical and practical solutions on strengthening the impact of women worldwide Human Rights

Education for Psychologists Polli Hagenaars, Marlena Plavšić, Nora Sveaass, Ulrich Wagner, Tony Wainwright, 2020-03-12

This ground breaking book is designed to raise awareness of human rights implications in psychology and provide knowledge and tools enabling psychologists to put a human rights perspective into practice Psychologists have always been deeply engaged in alleviating the harmful consequences human rights violations have on individuals However despite the fundamental role that human rights play for professional psychology and psychologists human rights education is underdeveloped in psychologists academic and vocational training This book the first of its kind looks to change this by raising awareness among professional psychologists university teachers and psychology students about their role as human rights promoters and protectors providing knowledge and tools enabling them to put a human rights perspective into practice providing texts and methods for teaching human rights Featuring chapters from leading scholars in the field spanning 18 countries and six continents the book identifies how psychologists can ensure they are practising in a responsible way as well as contributing to wider society with a clear knowledge of human rights issues in relation to culture gender organisations and more Including hands on recommendations case studies and discussion points this is essential reading for professional psychologists as part of continuing professional development and those in training and taking psychology courses For additional electronic resources for students and teachers see the support material tab on the Routledge book page <https://www.routledge.com/Human+Rights+Education+for+Psychologists/Hagenaars+Plavsic+Sveaass+Wagner+Wainwright/p/book/9780367222963>

Childhoods Gaile Sloan Cannella, Lourdes Diaz Soto, 2010 For the past 20 years a range of scholars educators and cultural workers have examined dominant discourses of childhood using critical feminist and other postmodern perspectives Located in a variety of disciplines these poststructural deconstructive and even postcolonial critiques have challenged everything from notions of the universal child to adult child dualisms to deterministic developmental theory The purpose of this volume is to acknowledge the profound contributions of that large body of literature while demonstrating the ways that critical analyses can be used to generate avenues actions that increase possibilities for social justice for those who are younger while at the same time avoiding determinism In this time of globalization hyper capitalism and discourses that would control and disqualify through constructions like accountability we believe that projects such as this are of utmost importance The volume is divided into four major sections to reflect the multiplicity of human voices and perspectives section I contemporary circumstances and dominant discourses within which we all attempt to function sections II and III and the generation of new possibilities for constructing relationships together section IV Finally a voice from the heart within a reconceptualist social science agenda for early childhood studies is presented
