Political Change in a West African State Martin Kilson, 1966 No detailed description available for Political Change in a West African State Political Change in a West African State Martin Kilson, 1969 Political Change in a West African State Enoch Cobb Wines, Martin Kilson, 1867 A Dirty War in West Africa Lansana Gberie, 2005-12 Since 1991 this West African nation has been brought to its knees by a series of coups violent conflicts and finally outright war The war has ended today but it is clear that things are hardly settled Focusing on the group spearheading the violence the Revolutionary United Front RUF journalist Lansana Gberie exposes the corruption and appalling use of rape and mutilation as tactics to overthrow the former government Gberie looks closely at the rise of the RUF and its ruthless leader Foday Sankoh as he seeks to understand the personalities and parties involved in the war The Paradoxes of History and Memory in Post-Colonial Sierra Leone Sylvia Ojukutu-Macauley, Ismail Rashid, 2013-10-10 This anthology reflects the complex processes in the production of historical knowledge and memory about Sierra Leone and its diaspora since the 1960s The processes while emblematic of experiences in other parts of Africa contain their own distinctive features The fragments of these memories are etched in the psyche bodies and practices of Africans in Africa and other global landscapes and on the other hand are embedded in the various discourses and historical narratives about the continent and its peoples Even though Africans have reframed these discourses and narratives to reclaim and re center their own worldviews agency and experiences since independence they remained until recently heavily sedimented with Western colonialist and racist ideas and frameworks This anthology engages and interrogates the differing frameworks that have informed the different practices professional as well as popular of retelling the Sierra Leonean past In a sense therefore it is concerned with the familiar outline of the story of the making and unmaking of an African nation and its constituent race ethnic class and cultural fragments from colonialism to the present Yet Sierra Leone the oldest and quintessential British colony and most Pan African country in the continent provides interesting twists to this familiar outline The contributors to this volume who consist of different generations of very accomplished and prominent scholars of Sierra Leone in Africa the United States and Europe provide their own distinctive reflections on these twists based on their research interests which cover ethnicity class gender identity formation nation building resistance and social conflict Their contributions engage various paradoxes and transformative moments in Sierra Leone and West African history They also reflect the changing modes of historical practice and perspectives over the last fifty years of independence Political Change in a West African State Martin L. Kilson, 1969

Political Change and Constitutionalism in Africa Okon Akiba, 2020-12-30 Political Change and Constitutionalism in Africa examines the complexities of government and obstacles facing constitutional democracy in transitional African societies The chapters provide a critical conceptual framework to probe interpret and understand the dimensions of current and impending challenges to constitutional government in the African continent The contributors explain why deep inequalities and harsh repression persist in most transitional African countries despite constitutionally guaranteed rights and the ongoing practical efforts to expand participation through political liberalization The book demonstrates the importance of sustaining in public confidence in democracy and provides provocative ideas about how to deal with new prodigious configurations of power that are stubbornly resisting real institutional change Political Change and Constitutionalism in Africa will be of interest to scholars of African politics and constitutional politics Readings in African Politics Tom Young,2003 Table of contents Politics and Change in Developing Countries Colin Leys,2011-02-03 This 1969 work gathers together essays on Third World development by nine social scientists with diverse academic interests These contributions are united by a relative uncertainty in relation to development derived from the contemporary critical reappraisal of the area together with a need to create fresh methodologies for the advancement of their respective fields

THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE ATHENS OF WEST AFRICA Akibo Robinson,2023-07-17 The country owed its name to the Portuguese explorer Petro da Cintra who was the first European to sight and map the Freetown Harbour The original Portuguese name Sierra Lyoa Lion Mountains describes the range of hills that surrounds the harbour The capital Freetown commands one of the world s largest natural harbours The country is located on the coast of West Africa bounded on the North and East by Guinea on the East by Liberia and on the West by the Atlantic Ocean It has many miles of beautiful sandy beaches The backbone of the economy is agriculture but it is rich in minerals diamonds gold bauxite and rutile The book traces the rich pre colonial history of a people whose main occupations then were agriculture and trade Communal life was highly regulated by chiefs who presided over their subjects These societies were governed by what is now called customary laws The book also debunks the thinking that Pedro da Cintra discovered Sierra Leone he was not even the first European to set foot in Sierra Leone It traces exhaustively the exploitative rule of the British Colonial Administration until its independence on 27th April 1961 Sierra Leone is credited as being the Athens of West Africa How this came about is explained at length How can a small country so far removed from Athens be credited as such The primary reason was for its learning The first University in sub Saharan Africa was established in Sierra Leone and it attracted students from all over the continent Woven into this academic fabric is the politico socio economic development from the founding of the state up to the present It traces the turbulent times the country has been through coups and countercoups declaration of a one party state a brutal 11 year civil war and the bastardisation of the constitution by various regimes since independence up to the present

Multinational Cooperation for Development in West Africa John P. Renninger,2013-09-03 Multinational Cooperation for Development in West Africa discusses the obstacles and prospects of organizations that were formed to facilitate considerable cooperation in the developing countries of West Africa The book describes and analyzes the cooperation movement and the United Nations system and role in fostering the process of cooperation in West Africa A brief overview of West African characteristics trends and analysis of development history of the cooperation movement issues regarding cooperation in West Africa potentialities of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and the impact of the United Nations on the growth of cooperation in the subregion are elucidated in the text Students of international studies researchers economists sociologists political leaders of the West African region and the staff of United Nations agencies will find this book invaluable

Colonialism and Change Maxwell Owusu, 2011-07-22 No detailed description available for Colonialism and Change

Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 5, A Bibliographic Guide to Colonialism in Sub-Saharan Africa L. H. Gann, Peter Duignan, 1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism

African Democracy and Development Cassandra Rachel Veney, Dick Simpson, 2013 Various African nations have undergone conflict situations since they gained their independence This book focuses on particular countries that have faced conflict civil wars and genocide and are now in the process of rebuilding their political economic social and educational institutions The countries that are addressed in the book include Rwanda Mozambique Sierra Leone Liberia and the Democratic Republic of the Congo In addition there is a chapter that addresses the role of the African Diaspora in conflict and post conflict countries that include Eritrea Liberia and Somalia The book includes an examination of the various actors who are involved in post conflict rebuilding and reconstruction that involves internal and external participants For example it is clear that the internal actors involve Africans themselves as ordinary citizens members of local and national governments and members of non governmental organizations This allows the reader to understand the agency and empowerment of Africans in post conflict reconstruction Various institutions are addressed within the context of the roles they play in establishing governance organizations such as the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in Sierra Leone the African Union chiefs in Liberia and non governmental organizations Furthermore the external actors who are involved in post conflict reconstruction are examined such as international non governmental organizations and the African Diaspora They both have their own constituents and agendas and can and do play a positive and negative role in post conflict reconstruction It is obvious that countries that are addressed in the book are in dire need of financial assistance to rebuild much needed infrastructure that was destroyed during the conflict All of the countries covered in the book need schools medical facilities roads bridges airports ports and the government does not have the money to provide these This is where the international non governmental organizations and the African Diaspora play an important role The chapters that address these issues are cognizant of their importance and at the same time the authors realize that sovereignty can be undermined if Africans are not in the forefront of policy and decision making that will determine their future There are chapters that provide a gendered analysis of post conflict when it is appropriate For example it is clear that women men boys and girls experienced conflict in different ways because of their gender They all participated in the conflict in various ways Consequently the efforts at peace building are given a gendered analysis in terms of what has happened to women and girls in the demobilization and rehabilitation period including an excellent analysis of land reform in Rwanda and how that affects women and members of a certain ethnic group that are often overlooked in the examination of the 1994 genocide This book provides a very good contribution to the literature on conflict and post conflict African countries because of its depth and the vast topics it embraces It provides an analysis of the internal and external actors the role of gender in post conflict decision making and it provides the voices of ordinary Africans who were affected by the conflict and who are determined to live productive lives

African Series United States. Department of State, 1970 Colonialism, Class Formation, and Underdevelopment in Sierra Leone Eliphaz G. Mukonoweshuro, 1993 This study examines from a materialist perspective the socio economic historical and political factors contributing to the political instability and underdevelopment of Sierra Leone Tools of analysis from different methodological perspectives such as class and ethnicity are critically reviewed and utilized in the analysis and identification of colonial class formation the behavior of political groups and their economic bases The emphasis is on the dominant colonial social forces that shaped the evolution and development of the decolonization process including the formation of colonial social classes colonial state and the political relation that developed

The United States and Decolonization in West Africa, 1950-1960 Ebere Nwaubani, 2001 He also gives a nuanced appraisal of the Cold War demonstrating that it was not as important as popularly believed in determining U S behavior in Africa The primary focus of the book is on West Africa with case studies focusing on the Ewe Ghana including the Volta dam project and Guinea The broad issues discussed are framed in the larger context of sub Saharan Africa and against the backdrop of the larger debates about the nature of post 1945 United States diplomacy

BOOK JACKET Political Domination in Africa Patrick Chabal, 1986-10-09 This collection of essays brings together historians and political scientists from Britain France and the United States who from widely differing perspectives and traditions have been involved in the process of rethinking African politics They present here the outline of a new approach grounded in universal political theory rather than on theories of Third World political development This seeks to integrate the history of Africa from pre to post colonial with concepts of political theory as they have been applied historically to the analysis of Europe and America The book addresses a wide audience students of African history and politics of Third World development and of political theory
