Söderbaum,2004-10-29 The Political Economy of Regionalism The Case of Southern Africa challenges prevailing wisdom showing how ruling political elites and big business join forces with certain external actors in order to promote market integration and economic globalization boost regimes and to satisfy group specific and even personal interests Only rarely do these forms of regionalism contribute to the poor and disadvantaged who instead opt out and survive through informal economic regionalisms or seek to create regionalisms rooted in civil society The Political Economy Of U.s. Policy Toward South Africa Kevin Danaher,2019-07-11 By tracing U S involvement in South African political and economic development since the late 1800s this book analyzes U S corporate and government motives for maintaining the political status quo in South Africa In recent decades according to the author U S policy toward South Africa has grown more contradictory Endeavoring to protect the United States s reputation on the question of race government officials denounce apartheid yet Washington remains the main force blocking an international response to South African policies As the situation in South Africa continues to polarize the U S is increasingly isolated in its position of verbally condemning yet materially supporting South Africa s white minority regime a regime confronting the distinct possibility of civil war The Political Economy of Ethnic Discrimination and Affirmative Action Michael Louis Wyzan,1990-10-19 The nine essays collected here examine ethnic relations discrimination and affirmative action in different regions of the world The contributors focus throughout on the political economy of ethnic relations an area that has until now been largely neglected in the literature Written by economists the papers both offer theoretical and empirical insights into standard neoclassical models of discrimination and explore in depth the historical and institutional features of the specific cases under study Six of the papers address discrimination and affirmative action in developing countries the remaining essays examine the problem as it has been manifested in socialist states The aim throughout is to offer the reader an enhanced understanding of the economic and political genesis of the often catastrophic problems associated with ethnic discrimination Following a general introduction by the editor the contributors examine relations between Arabs and Jews in the Israeli labor force the complex interactions between human rights affirmative action and land reform in Latin America and ethnic relations and the new economic policy in Malaysia The three additional studies of ethnic problems in developing countries look at apartheid in South Africa political and economic discrimination in Sri Lanka and ethnic conflict in the Sudan Turning to an examination of ethnic discrimination under communism the contributors analyze the problems faced by gypsies in Eastern Europe the politics of ethnicity and affirmative action in the Soviet Union and labor market discrimination and ethnic tension in Yugoslavia A bibliography is included for those wishing to pursue further research on the subject By focusing attention on discrimination in regions of the world little studied in past works on ethnic conflict these essays represent a unique and important contribution to the literature of international economics and political economy Nonviolent Action Ronald M. McCarthy, Gene Sharp, Brad Bennett, 2013-07-04 This comprehensive guide to research sources and theories about nonviolent action as a technique of struggle in social and political conflicts discusses the methods and techniques used by groups in various encounters Although violence and its causes have received a great deal of attention nonviolent action has not received its due as an international phenomenon with a long history An introduction that explains the theories and research used in the study provides a practical guide to this essential bibliography of English language sources The first part of the book covers case study materials divided by region and subdivided by country Within each country materials are arranged chronologically and topically The second major part examines the methods and theory of nonviolent action principled nonviolence and several closely related areas in social science such as conflict analysis and social movements The book is indexed by author and subject Routledge Encyclopedia of International Political Economy R. Responding to Human Rights Violations, 1946-1999 Katarina Tomaševski,2021-10-05 This volume maps out the response of states to human rights violations It covers the period 1946 1999 and offers a complete and unmatched record for this period Its starting point is that such responses are not established and accepted state practice Traditional if unwritten norms of states behaviour developed through centuries of silence and inaction the prevalent reaction to human rights violations by another state remains the absence of any response Furthermore this book probes into evidence of active and passive complicity by reviewing aid to countries in which violations have been taking place and diplomatic initiatives undertaken to shield violators from public opprobrium Since international law is generated through state practice the book highlights the ongoing tussle between the pre 1946 heritage of silence and inaction and the 1946 1999 haphazard pattern of responses to violations Haitians Anthony V. Catanese,2019-04-03 In 1981 I was asked by some DePauw University students to serve as faculty adviser for a group planning to work in rural Haiti during the nearly month long interim term I accepted the offer for several reasons I had enjoyed being the faculty adviser for two previous work projects in Guatemala and Jamaica I had found the experience was educationally valuable for undergraduates and I could use it to enhance classroom learning during the semester In addition the experience of living and working in a radically different environment was intellectually stimulating for me as a social scientist interested in welfare economics Finally because such volunteer projects were rare in the early 1980s I realized the opportunity should not be passed up It was a chance to see a part of the world I had heard of but knew little or nothing about except from accounts found in newspaper and magazine articles Sanctions as War ,2021-12-20 Sanctions as War Anti imperialist Perspectives on American Geo Economic Strategy offers the first comprehensive account of economic sanctions as a tool for exercising American power on the global stage Since the 1980s the US has steadily increased its reliance on economic sanctions or the imposition of extensive financial penalties for violation of given rules to fight its foreign policy battles Perceived as a less costly and damaging alternative to kinetic military engagement economic sanctions have been levied against over 25 other countries In the process sanctions have destroyed thousands of innocent lives and wreaked inestimable damages to civil society To understand how sanctions function as a war making strategy this collection offers chapters that address the theory and history of economic sanctions as well as chapter length case studies of sanctions exercised against the civilian populations of Iraq Venezuela and other nations Contributors are Shireen Al Adeimi Tim Beal Renate Bridenthal Jesse Bucher Stuart Davis Gregory Elich Manu Karuka Jeremy Kuzmarov Fangfei Lin Washington Mazorodze Tanner Mirrlees Corinna Mullin Junki Nakahara Nima Nakhaei Immanuel Ness Sarah Raymundo Muhammad Sahimi Saif Shahin Greg Shupak Gregory Wilpert Zhun Xu Helen Yaffe Routledge Encyclopedia of International Political Economy: Entries P-Z R.
