Political Dreams and Musical Themes in the 1848-1922 Formation of Czechoslovakia James W. Peterson, William J. Peterson, 2023-10-24

Political Dreams and Musical Themes in the 1848-1922 Formation of Czechoslovakia Interaction of National and Global Forces characterizes the 1918-22 formation of Czechoslovakia as a consequence of political and musical expressions Nationalist expressions and formations were striking after the 1848 Revolution The authors explore how the music of Smetana Jan cek and Dvor k inspired people with reminders about the important achievements of past Bohemian leaders Under the control of the Vienna based Habsburg Empire Czech leaders also achieved more political representation in both Habsburg and Bohemian legislatures and Slovaks made some national progress in at least asserting their demands to Budapest and its controlling Magyar Empire During the early twentieth century there was additional pressure to link up these nationalist movements in both music and politics with regional modernist approaches that were increasingly popular in other parts of Europe The outbreak of World War I in 1914 opened up opportunities such as joint participation in the Czechoslovak Legion for the two key ethnic groups to forge a Czechoslovak state Independence took place with considerable western support on October 28 1918 and the commemorative concert two days later of compositions by Josef Suk put the final stamp on a considerable achievement that bore the hallmarks of globalism as well as nationalism

Global Geopolitical Power and African Political and Economic Institutions John James Quinn, 2015-12-30

Global Geopolitical Power and African Political and Economic Institutions When Elephants Fight describes the emergence and nature of the prevailing African political and economic institutions in two periods In the first most countries adopted political and economic institutions that funneled significant levels of political and economic power to the political elites usually through one or no party military political systems inward oriented development policies and or state led and often state owned industrialization In the second period most countries adopted institutions that diluted the overarching political and economic power of ruling elites through the adoption of de jure multiparty electoral systems more outward oriented trade policies and the privatization of many state owned or controlled sectors though significant political and economic power remains in their hands The choices made in each period were consistent with prevailing ideas on governance and development the self interests of political elites and the perceived availability of support or autonomy vis vis domestic regional and international sources of power at the time This book illustrates how these two region wide shifts in prevailing political and economic institutions and practices of Africa can be linked to two prior global geopolitical realignments the end of WWII with the ensuing American and Soviet led bipolar system and the end of the Cold War with American primacy Each period featured changed or newly empowered international and regional leaders with competing national priorities within new intellectual and geopolitical climates altering the opportunities and constraints for African leaders in instituting or maintaining particular political and economic institutions or practices The economic and political institutions of Africa that emerged did so as a result of a complex mix of contending domestic regional and international forces material and intellectual all which were themselves greatly transformed in the wake of these two global geopolitical realignments
