City in Augustine's City of God Veronica Ogle, 2020-11-19 In this volume Veronica Roberts Ogle offers a new reading of Augustine's political thought as it is presented in City of God Focusing on the relationship between politics and the earthly city she argues that a precise understanding of Augustine's vision can only be reached through a careful consideration of the work's rhetorical strategy and sacramental worldview Ogle draws on Christian theology and political thought moral philosophy and semiotic theory to make her argument Laying out Augustine's understanding of the earthly city she proceeds by tracing out his rhetorical strategy and concludes by articulating his sacramental vision and the place of politics within it Ogle thus suggests a new way of determining the status of politics in Augustine's thought Her study clarifies seemingly contradictory passages in his text highlights the nuance of his position and captures the unity of his vision as presented in City of God Ubi Deus Dixit Duane Larson, 2025-06-16 The Lutheran Doctrine of Two Kingdoms commends a promising political theology The doctrine challenged the extremes of religion government fusion and absolute separation then as it can with the crises of both Christian nationalism and ideological secularism now But major changes in philosophy's understanding of natural law and human sovereignty left the doctrine little in the temporal realm to which the values of the spiritual realm could relate a relationship necessary for the doctrine's viability This severance was punctuated by the Nazi fusion of church and state Another though unrecognized crisis was that Christian theology itself lost its eschatological mind which had framed the doctrine Now philosophy and theology have rediscovered eschatology and apocalyptic When so read the Doctrine of Two Kingdoms holds great promise for faith and politics freed from the flatly chronological eschatology that holds popular culture in thrall today In this early volume of a new series of postmodern reclamations of doctrine in the Lutheran tradition Duane Larson offers a theological vision for our politics informed by philosophy and law that enlarges our understanding of St Paul s counsel to obey the governing authorities
