Quartet ,2005 Quartet offers a sampling of the work of Rob Amberg Elizabeth Matheson John Rosenthal and Caroline Vaughan Their images for the most part made in North Carolina are quiet and passionate in time and outside of time revealing both surface and depth Mr Amberg documents life in rural mountain communities Ms Vaughan s landscapes and portraits detail the increments and textures of time Ms Matheson s pictures present the architecture of formality that expresses the character of those who built and lived in such spaces as well as what is past and passing Mr Rosenthal s photographs freeze ordinary moments thereby allowing us to see in them what is extraordinary and permanent As Georgann Eubanks notes in her introduction Quartet presents images that hum with subtle harmonies each photographer adding another dimension to the resonant chord all reminding us that against the din of digital media there is yet a place for still images and deeper reflection Tommy Thompson Lewis M. fairy tale Quintieri puts in contrast the new function of the double and its plays of simulations on the background of the capitalist injunction to enjoy Engaging with new theories on post Oedipal forms of subjectivity developed within the Lacanian orientation of psychoanalysis Quintieri offers exciting analyses of still and moving photographic work giving body to an original aesthetic model that promises to revitalise our understanding of contemporary photography and visual culture It will appeal to psychoanalysts and researchers from Lacanian psychoanalysis visual studies and cultural theory as well as readers with an academic interest in the cultural history of dolls and the theory of the uncanny Blind Spot Photography ,2005
