institutions Through courthouses cemeteries belfries and their own chapels and neoclassical estates they created encompassing cultural landscapes Later generations used museums archives historian collaborators photography and modern print to elevate family achievement to the status of heroic national narratives Sagas of the monied and entrepreneurial nationalist imperatives to protect a vulnerable people and skepticism about the lasting power of great families and historical institutions have relegated the influence of the Taschereaus and McCords to obscurity Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec resuscitates the central role these elite families played in English and French Quebec
