Queen Victoria A Landmark:

Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects Thomas Houlton, 2021-11-25 Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects explores monuments as political, psychological, social, and mystical objects. Incorporating autoethnography, psychoanalysis, deconstruction, postcolonialism, and queer ecology, Houlton argues for a radical interdisciplinary approach to our monument culture. Tracing historical developments in monuments alongside contemporary movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Black Lives Matter, Houlton provides an in-depth critique of monument sites as well as new critical and conceptual methodologies for thinking across the field. Alongside analysis of monuments to the Holocaust, colonial figures, and LGBTQIA subjects, this book provides new critical engagements with the work of D. W. Winnicott, Marion Milner, Jacques Derrida, Edward Said, Eve Sedgwick, and others. Houlton traces the potential for monuments to exert great influence over our sense of self, nation, community, sexuality, and place in the world. Exploring the psychic and physical spaces these objects occupy, their aesthetics, affects, politics, and powers, this book considers how monuments can challenge our identities, beliefs, and our very notions of remembrance. The interdisciplinary nature of Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects means that it is ideally placed to intervene across several critical fields, particularly museum and heritage studies. It will also prove invaluable to those engaged in the study of monuments, psychoanalytic object relations, decolonization, queer ecology, radical death studies, and affect theory.

Melbourne's Monuments Ronald T. Ridley, 1996 A guide to the public statuary of Melbourne based on two walks around the inner city. Many public monuments are often just accepted as part of the scene, but each statue or memorial has a story to tell, whether about the sculptor or the person or event it commemorates, and all of them represent a small piece of Melbourne history.

Landmarks of the History of England James White, 1858 , Colonial Landmarks in Mysuru Gouri Satya, 2020-07-19 Many British dignitaries visited Mysore during the period of the Maharajas, from Lord Wellesley, who fought against Tipu Sultan, to Lord Mountbatten, the last Viceroy of India, who visited Mysore soon after India became independent. There are landmarks built by the Maharajas to commemorate the visits of some of these dignitaries, and also to mark celebrations related to them. Some landmarks relate to the Europeans who were in Mysore during the period of the Wadiyars. Although we may be familiar with these places or structures, we know little about these men and their visits to Mysore. This book is an attempt to highlight their visits, recall their contributions, and how the Maharajas of Mysore accorded royal receptions to them. This book is also a record of the British personalities: Commissioners, Viceroys, Princes, and Residents, and throws light on the administration of the Mysore State of over a century and a half, from 1799 to 1957. In all 15 landmarks of the British era in Mysore have been covered in this book, beginning from the earliest. As far as we know, no attempt has been made to bring these landmarks in one book.
