O'DONNELLS QUICK "HAT" TRICK GAINED ASTON VILLA CUP

A brilliant "hat" trick by O'Donnell completely won the Aston Villa match, which was one of the great football fixtures of the season, played at Villa Park on Saturday. It was the highlight of a morning football match for the Hospital Cup. The rest of the Villa, apart from providing a fast and accurate game, attempted a crowd of many "hats" and scored 11 goals for the local hospital. Villa played the more organized football, but they were inclined to be casual, and their management generally lacked a final push. Ipswich, on the other hand, showed more spirit, having a defence later attack with lightning rapidity and frequently catching Villa on the counter. It was a situation like this which led to Ipswich going ahead two minutes from half-time in the 11th minute. Villa started a counter-attack which led to a goal in the 15th minute. After a bit of time, for the latter in the 20th minute, Ipswich scored again. Villa, reacting to a shot from outside the penalty area. Then came Villa's dramatic reversal. O'Donnell's approximation gave them the lead eight minutes after the home side's second goal. First he took the ball from the left, then he passed it to the Villa defence, which a few minutes later, after the ball was passed to the Villa defence, he headed it as the goalkeeper got the ball in the net. Ipswich called quickly, but the Villa defence refused to yield again.

Birmingham Daily Gazette 9 May 1939

Frank O'Donnell had signed from Blackpool the previous November for a fee of £15,000. He made his debut two days after signing, remaining in the team for the duration of the season, scoring 14 times in 29 League appearances.
