Queer Ing The Screen Sexuality And Australian Film And Television:

Queer-ing the Screen Samantha Searle, 1997 An analysis of the points of intersection between queer sexuality and screen practices in Australia in the 1990s

The Queer Film Festival Stuart James Richards, 2017-01-05 This book examines the queer film festival and opens the discussion on social enterprises and sustainable lesbian gay bisexual transgender and intersex LGBTI organisations With over 220 events worldwide and some of the bigger budgets exceeding 1 million the queer film festival has grown to become a staple event in all cosmopolitan cities arts calendars While activism was instrumental in establishing these festivals the pink dollar has been a deciding factor in its financial sustainability Pretty gay boys with chiselled abs are a staple feature rather than underground experimental faire Community arts events such as these are now a creative industry While clearly having a social purpose they must also concern themselves with the bottom line For all the contradictory elements of its organisational growth this conflict makes the queer film festival an integral site for analysis This book takes a multidisciplinary approach in examining the queer film festival as a representative snapshot of the current state of queer cinema and community based film festivals The book looks at queer film festivals in San Francisco Hong Kong and Melbourne to argue for the importance of these institutions remaining as community events

The Queer Encyclopedia of Film and Television Claude Summers, 2012-04-24 From Hollywood films to TV soap operas from Vegas extravaganzas to Broadway theater to haute couture this comprehensive encyclopedia contains over 200 entries and 200 photos that document the irrepressible impact of queer creative artists on popular culture How did Liberace s costumes almost kill him Which lesbian comedian spent her high school years as the best white cheerleader in Detroit For these answers and more fans can dip into The Queer Encyclopedia of Film Theater and Popular Culture Drawn from the fascinating online encyclopedia of queer arts and culture www.glbtc.com which the Advocate dubbed the Encyclopedia Britanniqueer this may be the only reference book in which RuPaul and Jean Cocteau jostle for space From the porn industry to the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence from bodybuilding to Dorothy Arzner it s a queer queer world and The Queer Encyclopedia is the indispensable guide readable authoritative and concise And perfect to read by candlelight The answers to the two questions above from the dry cleaning fumes Lily Tomlin

New Queer Cinema Michele Aaron, 2019-06-01 This is an introduction to New Queer Cinema NQC covering themes such as genre gender and race politics media and the relationship between NQC and the mainstream

The Future of Postcolonial Studies Chantal Zabus, 2014-11-20 The Future of Postcolonial Studies celebrates the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of The Empire Writes Back by the now famous troika Bill Ashcroft Gareth Griffiths and Helen Tiffin When The Empire Writes Back first appeared in 1989 it put postcolonial cultures and their post invasion narratives on the map This vibrant collection of fifteen chapters by both established and emerging scholars taps into this early mapping while merging these concerns with present trends which have been grouped as comparing converting greening post queering and utopia The postcolonial is a centrifugal force that continues to energize globalization transnational diaspora area and queer studies Spanning the colonial period from the 1860s to the present The Future of Postcolonial Studies ventures into other postcolonies outside of the Anglophone purview In reassessing the nation state language race religion sexuality the environment and the very idea of the future this volume reasserts the notion that postcolonial is an anticipatory discourse and bears testimony to the driving energy and thus the future of postcolonial studies

Queer Studies and Education Nelson M. Rodriguez, Robert C. Mizzi, Louisa Allen, Rob Cover, 2023 Queer Studies and Education An International Reader explores how the category queer as a critical stance or set of perspectives contributes to opportunities individually and collectively for advancing queer social justice within the context and concerns of schooling and education The collection takes up this general goal by presenting a cross section of international perspectives on queer studies in education Collectively the chapters critically engage with heteronormativity and normativity more generally as a political spectrum over a broad range of formal and informal sites of education and against a backdrop of critiques of liberalism and neoliberalism as the frameworks through which achievable social change and belonging are fostered particularly within educational settings

Shakespeare After Mass Media R. Burt, 2016-04-30 Shakespeare in mass media particularly film video and television is arguably the hottest fastest growing research agenda in Shakespeare studies Shakespeare after Mass Media provides students and scholars with the most comprehensive resource available on the market for studying the pop cultural afterlife of The Bard From marketing to electronic Shakespeare comics to romance novels Star Trek to Branagh radio and popular music to Bartlett's Quotations the volume explores the contemporary cultural significance of Shakespeare in an unprecedentedly broad array of mass media contexts With theoretical sophistication and accessible writing it will be the ideal text for courses on Shakespeare and mass media

Affective Sexual Pedagogies in Film and Television Kyra Clarke, 2017-02-17 Popular film and television hold valuable potential for learning about sex and sexuality beyond the information based model of sex education currently in schools This book argues that the representation of complicated or messy relationships in these popular cultural forms makes them potent as affective pedagogical moments It endeavours to develop new sexual literacies by contemplating how pedagogical moments that is fleeting moments which disrupt expectations or create discomfort might enrich the available discourses of sexuality and gender especially those available to adolescents In Part One Clarke critiques the heteronormative discourses of sex education that produce youth in particularly gendered ways noting that rationality is often expected to govern experiences that are embodied and arguably inherently incoherent Part Two explores public intimacy contemplating the often overlapping and confused boundaries between public and private

Australian Queer Screens Rob Cover, Whitney Monaghan, Stuart Richards, Scott McKinnon, Tinonee Pym, 2025-11-27 This is the first book length study of Australia's rich history of LGBTQ film and television covering histories production screen representation and audience identities Despite a long standing international field of queer media studies Australian scholarship has only recently emerged Screen diversity in Australia is important to cultural policy education and social harmony This book presents new scholarship on the role and significance of gender and sexually diverse characters themes and narratives on Australian screens as Australian film and television has a very rich history of representing LGBTQ gender and sexually diverse characters stories and themes The chapters in this book cover a broad range of areas to provide a comprehensive overview of LGBTQ film and television in Australia including the history and formation of LGBTQ screen representation in such film and TV series as Dad and Dave Come To Town Lovers and Luggers Cop Shop Division 4 and Homicide production perspectives and challenges including insights from screen writers and actors the significance of LGBTQ film festivals as part of Australian cultural heritage analyses of key Australian queer film and TV series to draw out themes that foreground their Australianness including The Set Victims and Boys in the Band among others and perspectives on audience and culture including the utility and value of LGBTQ screen representation to identity belonging and social change

Australian Television Alan McKee, 2001 This is the first book to present a history of Australian television in which the programs themselves are the main focus of attention In addition to providing an invaluable and comprehensive archive of information for anybody interested in the history of the medium the book raises important questions about the ways in which we think about television

Australian Screen in the 2000s Mark David Ryan, Ben Goldsmith, 2017-11-23 This book provides coverage of the diversity of Australian film and television production between 2000 and 2015 In this period Australian film and television have been transformed by new international engagements the emergence of major new talents and a movement away with earlier films preoccupation with what it means to be Australian With original contributions from leading scholars in the field the collection contains chapters on particular genres horror blockbusters and comedy Indigenous Australian film and television women s filmmaking queer cinema representations of history Australian characters in non Australian films and films about Australians in Asia as well as chapters on sound in Australian cinema and the distribution of screen content The book is both scholarly and accessible to the general reader It will be of particular relevance to students and scholars of Anglophone film and television as well as to anyone with an interest in Australian culture and creativity

Queering the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema James S. Williams, 2020-08-27 This exciting and original volume offers the first comprehensive critical study of the recent profusion of European films and television addressing sexual migration and seeking to capture the lives and experiences of LGBTIQ migrants and refugees Queering the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema argues that embodied cinematic representations of the queer migrant even if at times highly ambivalent and contentious constitute an urgent new repertoire of queer subjectivities and socialities that serve to undermine the patrolled borders of gender and sexuality nationhood and citizenship and refigure or queer fixed notions and universals of identity like Europe and national belonging based on the model of the family At stake ethically and politically is the elaboration of a transborder consciousness and aesthetics that counters the homonationalist xenophobic and homo trans phobic representation of the migrant to Europe figure rooted in the toxic binaries of othering the good vs bad migrant host vs guest indigenous vs foreigner Bringing together 16 contributors working in different national film traditions and embracing multiple theoretical perspectives this powerful and timely collection will be of major interest to both specialists and students in Film and Media Studies Gender and Queer Studies Migration Mobility Studies Cultural Studies and Aesthetics Queer Objects Guy Davidson, Monique Rooney, 2020-06-29 Pursuing the discursive or material effects of relational queerness this book reflects on how objects can illuminate affect and animate queer modes of being In the early 1990s the queer theorist Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick defined queer as multiply transitive relational and strange rather than a fixed identity In spite of this much of the queer theoretical scholarship of the last three decades has used queer as a synonym for anti normative sexual identities The contributions to this volume return to the idea of transitivity exploring what happens when queer is thought of as a turning toward or turning away from a diverse range of objects including bodily waste frozen cats archival ephemera the writing of Virginia Woolf the Pop art of Ray Johnson the podcast S Town and Maggie Nelson's memoir The Argonauts Relevant to those studying queer theory this book will also be of wider interest to those researching identity and the way in which it is represented in a variety of artistic disciplines This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki The Routledge Companion to Girls' Studies Sharon Mazzarella, 2024-04-30 The Routledge Companion to Girls Studies is the definitive guide to the international interdisciplinary and intersectional field of Girls Studies bringing together leading and emerging scholars across a range of academic disciplines to address timely topics on global girls and girlhoods Spread across four thematic sections the essays in this collection offer a glimpse into the evolution of the field directly challenge and move beyond the field's early shortcomings provide compelling examples of current research and suggest new directions for future Girls Studies scholars Chapters explore the connections between girlhoods and such topics as sexuality race ethnicity religion education activism social class ability gender identity media representation and more The Routledge Companion to Girls Studies is of value to scholars and students of gender studies media studies sociology education health literature sexuality studies communication child and youth studies and more Social Marketing and Advertising in the Age of Social Media Lukas Parker, Linda Brennan, 2020-11-27 This book provides much needed insight into current social marketing and advertising practices The authors offer a framework for social marketing before exploring the mechanics of social media and present marketing strategy Chapters cover the use of both positive and negative emotions in social marketing and advertising and explore the ethical challenges associated with the practice in the age of social media Living Legacies of Social Injustice Chris Beasley, Pam Papadelos, 2023-08-14 Through a wide range of international and interdisciplinary case studies this book develops the notion of legacy and in particular living legacy that is it explores power relations in the context of time as a means to considering and challenging social injustice Legacies of social injustice are very frequently erased denied or declared redundant Framed by the concept of legacy this book does not conceive legacy as simply referring to relics of the past or to cultural heritage practices and artifacts Instead the book focuses upon living legacies understood as ongoing actively engaged in the re constitution of power relations and influential in the development of alternative political imaginaries Through a variety of studies from many different contexts including Indigenous trauma in Australia displacement in Beirut women travellers in Scotland and heteronormativity in Hollywood the book draws not only upon historiographic sociological legal political cultural and other disciplinary approaches but also specifically makes use of feminist and postcolonial perspectives Foregrounding the legacies of inequality and marginalisation it contributes to a re thinking of power and social change in ways that together suggest potential means for unsettling and reimagining such legacies This book will appeal to an interdisciplinary range of readers with interests and concerns in the broad area of social justice but especially to those working in sociolegal studies sociology gender studies indigenous studies and politics

Youth, Sexuality and Sexual Citizenship Peter Aggleton, Rob Cover, Deana Leahy, Daniel Marshall, Mary Lou Rasmussen, 2018-10-10 Sexual citizenship is a powerful concept associated with debates about recognition and exclusion agency respect and accountability For young people in general and for gender and sexually diverse youth in particular these debates are entangled with broader imaginings of social transitions from child to adult and from unreasonable subject to one who can consent This international and interdisciplinary collection identifies and locates struggles for recognition and inclusion in particular contexts and at particular moments in time recognising that sexual and gender diverse young people are neither entirely vulnerable nor self reliant Focusing on the numerous domains in which debates about youth sexuality and citizenship are enacted and contested Youth Sexuality and Sexual Citizenship explores young people s experiences in diverse but linked settings in the family at school and in college in employment in social media and through engagement with health services Bookended by reflections from Jeffrey Weeks and Susan Talburt the book s empirically grounded chapters also engage with the key debates outlined in its scholarly introduction This innovative book is of interest to students and scholars of gender and sexuality health and sex education and youth studies from a range of disciplinary and professional backgrounds including sociology education nursing social work and youth work

Flirting in the Era of #MeToo Alison Bartlett, Kyra Clarke, Rob Cover, 2019-04-30 This book provides a contemporary review of the social practices and representations of flirting In the wake of MeToo flirting has become entangled with stories of harassment and abuse that have generated both outrage and confusion Nevertheless this book argues that negotiating intimacy has always been an ambiguous social practice that can be risky and fraught and examines how the presiding perception of flirting is constructed in contemporary cultural media The book interrogates the relation between flirting and scandal the kinds of scripts available in popular culture and relations to feminism and other current social theories around gender and sexuality It asks the questions how can desire be declared How can playfulness be understood And what kind of language is available to speak about these complexities Drawing from a range of media forms such as public scandal reality television and teen film Flirting in the Era of MeToo argues that contemporary flirting is both provocative and conservative in its negotiation of an assemblage of shifting values and considers possibilities for social innovation and change in light of these competing tensions A Companion to Australian Cinema Felicity Collins, Jane Landman, Susan Bye, 2019-04-15 The first comprehensive volume of original essays on Australian screen culture in the twenty first century A Companion to Australian Cinema is an anthology of original essays by new and established authors on the contemporary state and future directions of a well established national cinema A timely intervention that challenges and expands the idea of cinema this book brings into sharp focus those facets of Australian cinema that have endured evolved and emerged in the twenty first century The essays address six thematically organized propositions that Australian cinema is an Indigenous screen culture an international cinema a minor transnational imaginary an enduring auteur genre landscape tradition a televisual industry and a multiplatform ecology Offering fresh critical perspectives and extending previous scholarship case studies range from The Lego Movie Mad Max and Australian stars in Hollywood to transnational co productions YouTube channels transmedia and nature cam documentaries New research on trends such as the convergence of television and film digital transformations of screen production and the shifting roles of women on and off screen highlight how established precedents have been influenced by new realities beyond both cinema and the national Written in an accessible style that does not require knowledge of cinema studies or Australian studies Presents original research on Australian actors such as Cate Blanchett and Chris Hemsworth their training branding and path from Australia to Hollywood Explores the films and filmmakers of the Blak Wave and their challenge to Australian settler colonial history and white identity Expands the critical definition of cinema to include YouTube channels transmedia documentaries multiplatform changescapes and cinematic remix Introduces readers to founding texts in Australian screen studies A Companion to Australian Cinema is an ideal introductory text for teachers and students in areas including film and media studies cultural and gender studies and Australian history and politics as well as a valuable resource for educators and other professionals in the humanities and creative arts APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service ,
