Quest For Quality In The Church A New Paradigm:

Quest for Quality in the Church Ezra Earl Jones,1993 Women, Church, and Leadership: New Paradigms Eunjoo Mary Kim,Deborah Beth Creamer,2012-04-06 This book is about leadership a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women s perspectives The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings provide new paradigms of church leadership theologically profound practically relevant and historically timely This volume a product of a collaborative process between academia and church promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society A Covenantal Imagination William Johnson Everett,2021-12-15 This harvest of articles drawn from William Johnson Everett s career of teaching and research on four continents and in a variety of institutions shows the breadth depth and diversity of his interests Like spotlights in the wider field of Christian social ethics they illuminate the key threads that have held together an emerging tapestry of thought woven around the powerful concept of covenant Whether lifting up concepts of covenant federalism and corporation the oikos of work family and faith the public nature and mission of the church or the ethical meaning of journey metaphors his rich and artful style leads us into thinking more deeply about the way our lives are joined in a covenantal imagination about a more just and sustainable world Selling Out the Church Philip D. Kenneson,Jim Street,2003-07-24 Marketing the church is hot For many church leaders marketing might even be the first article of their creed which goes something like this We believe that our church determines its identity and mission through the tactics of marketing strategies Theologians Kenneson and Street offer a thoughtful and provocative protest with a foreword from Stanley Hauerwas The authors expose the theological presuppositions that inform the marketing project and help us to see that the marketer s presumption that form can be separated from content of the gospel betrays an understanding of the gospel that cannot help betraying the gift that is Christ The authors propose an alternative constructive account of the church s mission and purpose that is not based on exchange of value but on reminding us that the gospel is always a gift a gift that makes impossible any presumptions that there can be an exchange between human beings and God that is rooted in the satisfaction of our untrained needs The cross and resurrection challenge the world s understanding of what our needs should be The Dynamics of Changing Higher Education in the Global South Busani Mpofu,Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2020-06-29 Today there are generally universities in Africa rather than African universities The legitimacy of the university in Africa is under serious questions now because of its complicity in racism patriarchy sexism colonialism capitalism genocide epistemicide linguicide culturecide and alienation In other words the university in Africa as we know it today is elitist and exclusionary Therefore rethinking the idea of the university is fundamental to overcoming its current deficiencies in the Global South This volume bringing together a number of national case studies and macro analyses on the dynamics of changing higher education in the Global South gestures towards the desired imagined decolonial African university which should be a site of multilingualism where African indigenous languages cosmologies and ontologies become a central part of its identity and soul intolerant of epistemicides linguicides and cultural imperialism but a site of cognitive and social justice that fully embraces the idea that all human beings are born into valid useful relevant and legitimate knowledge systems

Joy After Failure Second Edition Linda A Bankoski,2025-01-14 Quality matters Joy matters And quality and joy are the result of good decisions We don t have control over how people treat us or how events impact us We do have control over the access they have to our spirits Write and follow a constitution for yourself and make decisions based on your constitution not your intuition Write your constitution to help you remember you how to care for yourself Intuition is a gut reaction Intuition is often a result of habits that we have developed over time If you have a failure use the Choice Cycle to improve your Next Time It has taken me a lifetime of failures to learn that I have resources and can control who has access to me We can learn to trust our sources of love I know and I want you to know how to make decisions to be experience a life of joy

Rekindling the Mainline Stephen C. Compton,2003-06-01 Not only do new church starts in significant numbers bring systemic change and renewal to mainline denominations but new church development brings similar change to individual aging congregations in their vicinity Author Stephen Compton argues that a decline in new church starts in the last half of the 20th century was the major contributor to the decline of mainline church groups not liberalism or lack of faith as is often cited He shows in this book how introducing considerable numbers of new congregations into these old denominations can cause these venerable institutions to revisit the meaning of church and congregation develop a clearer vision of their collective mission and grow in their ability to bring about positive change in the world In effect he contends new churches in an aging organization do not merely make it grow They make it change in ways that make it more effective in its mission and ministries This book will appeal to leaders across denominational lines including those not ordinarily called mainline and especially to pastors and leaders of older congregations Joy After Failure Linda A Bankoski,2019-02-07 Our resources are the result of how we make decisions This book is about how to make better decisions using The Choice Cycle and what to do next when we experience failure It demonstrates how to take an inventory of our resources how to clarify our intentions and how to develop our own constitution so that we live richer lives True leadership is making decisions intentionally The Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving Larry VandeCreek,Arthur M.
