Quest For The Human An Exploration Of Saul Bellow's Fiction:

A Room of His Own Gloria L. Cronin, 2001-01-01 The world of Saul Bellow is peopled largely by men often intellectuals who manifest Bellow's unique conception of American masculinity In this timely analysis of the Bellow oeuvre from a feminist perspective Gloria Cronin offers a stunning and insightful critique of the Nobel Prizewinning novelist Drawing on her comprehensive knowledge of Western thought and Western philosophical tradition Cronin also incorporates the brilliant insights of French feminist theory on Western male philosophers into her critique Cronin's mastery of these intellectual traditions informs her fruitful examination of Bellow's explicit dialogue rich consideration of his misogyny and the many masculinities he presents Cronin demonstrates how Bellow's almost exclusively male protagonists simultaneously search for and destroy a lost feminine essence that they yearn for and in so doing create their own prisons She also looks at the self irony pervading Bellow the comic dimension of his character's gender struggles and the spiritual sensibility that attempts to reach beyond gendered and other paradigms of selfhood A Room of His Own makes an extraordinary contribution to gender studies of masculinity and its formations

Quest for the Human Eusebio L. Rodrigues, 1981 This critical study explores a central thesis that Bellow's dominant theme is an onward and upward quest for the human Eight extended essays provide a detailed and chronologically progressive analysis of Bellow's fiction

The Critical Response to Saul Bellow Gerhard Bach, 1995-10-30 Though one of the most significant American writers of the 20th century Saul Bellow has continually elicited conflicting responses from critics Some critics have seen him as America's greatest contemporary writer while others have discounted him as discouragingly redundant Not even his novel Herzog generally considered his worthiest achievement has gone unchallenged The expansion of critical theory in the last decade has added to the controversy over Bellow's works The reviews and essays gathered in this volume illustrate the many disparate critical responses and approaches to Saul Bellow over the last 50 years from the late

1940s into the 1990s Representative samples of criticism from the earliest reviews to the most recent assessments trace the different critical phases and approaches to Bellow's work over time The selections included also reflect larger trends in literary criticism over the last half century and chart the history of the critical community's response to Bellow The selections are arranged chronologically in clusters devoted to particular works Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress, 1982 Whitaker's Cumulative Book List , 1983 British Books in Print , 1985

Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1997 Handbook of American-Jewish Literature Lewis F. Fried, Gene Brown, Jules Chametzky, Louis Harap, 1988-01-26 The title is perhaps a bit deceptive for this is assuredly more than handbook might indicate Fried's anthology is a truly complex work bringing together eighteen essays of mostly uniform high quality and masses of bibliographic resources to present a comprehensive overview Fried's book does not present the original works themselves but rather culls mostly outstanding essays on the prose poetry drama and literary criticism produced by Jewish writers in America from the final decades of the last century to the present Studies in American Jewish Literature Focusing on the Jewish contribution to American writing this guide offers a comprehensive view of Jewish identity and experience in American society together with important bibliographic information for the scholar or researcher In eighteen essays written by a distinguished group of specialists it provides a wealth of fact interpretation and commentary relating to American Jewish literature criticism and other writing published since the 1880s In his introduction Fried reviews the history of American Jewish writing and the major social moral and political concerns that have affected it The essays that follow focus primarily on the literary culture created by Eastern European Jewish immigrants and their children as they shaped and were shaped by their experiences in America The first several chapters look at American Jewish fiction from 1880 to the present Drama and autobiographical works also are discussed as are American Yiddish poetry criticism and other writing Other chapters assess the influence of theology Zionism and the Holocaust on American Jewish writers as well as the relationship of their works to other literatures and international critical perspectives Themes that are explored from several perspectives include the relevance of the diaspora to the American Jewish literary imagination the forging of multiple loyalties and reconciliation into an American Jewish culture and the making of an American Jewish identity The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W.
