Quest For The Liberated Christian:

A quest for the liberated Christian Mary Hall, 1978 The Quest for Liberation and Reconciliation James Deotis Roberts, Michael Battle, 2005-01-01 Leading contemporary theologians and scholars present essays on the themes of liberation and reconciliation in tribute to J Deotis Roberts The essays are divided into the following sections Theological Reflection Faith in Dialogue and Shaping the Practice of Ministry The compilation presents an interesting array of perspectives on the ways in which Christian theology ethics and ministry are involved in the quests for liberation and reconciliation in North America and the rest of the world From Migrants to Missionaries Benjamin Simon, 2010 The denominational plurality in continental Europe keeps growing The churches of African origin are of increasing number Seeking for a new identity in their new home the concept of Diaspora and the question for legal issues get important for their identity To what extent is their identity determined rather by seclusion or openness Are the churches missionizing amongst Germans and are there ecumenical relations What are the characteristics of such a new identity How does it develop By analyzing three different types of churches of African origin in the German context especially by examining their sermons the author demonstrates how those churches develop in a missionary direction and how they can become ecumenical partners

Sino-Christian Theology Pan-Chiu Lai, 2010 Sino Christian theology usually refers to an intellectual movement emerged in Mainland China since the late 1980s The present volume aims to provide a self explaining sketch of the historical development of this theological as well as cultural movement In addition to the analyses on the theoretical issues involved and the articulations of the prospect concrete examples are also offered to illustrate the characteristics of the movement

The Praxis of Suffering Rebecca S. Chopp, 2007-03-16 Liberation and political theologies have emerged powerfully in recent years interrupting the way in which First World Christians both experience and understand their faith Through an analysis of the cultural and ecclesial contexts of these theological movements as well as a critical examination of four of their principal exponents Gustavo Gutierrez Johann Baptist Metz Jose Miguez Bonino and Jurgen Moltmann the author demonstrates that political and liberation theologies represent a new model of theology one that proffers a vision of Christian witness as a praxis of solidarity with suffering persons Beyond Forever's End Allan A. Zarbock, 2013-09-15 Hold fast to your skivvies strap yourself in and sign on with Christian Daring for an adventure beyond forever's end Watch out Many perils steaming piles of dragon droppings yellow snow and the most ruthless stalks of gray blue asparagus this side of Orion's Belt are raring to malice even the most seasoned star travelers Beyond Forever's End Christian Daring and the Ultimate Warrior of the Prophecy is bursting with swashbuckling action adventure the mysticism of a prophecy and gut busting tear inspiring bladder loosening humor Intercultural Perceptions and Prospects of World Christianity Richard Friedli, Jan A. B. Jongeneel, Klaus Koschorke, 2010 Studies in the Intercultural History of Christianity published by Peter Lang since 1975 is nowadays the largest series in the wide field of missiology intercultural theology and comparative religion theology The present editors decided to celebrate the publication of no less than one hundred and fifty volumes by evaluating and rethinking intercultural theology This book is meant to encourage Christian theology to be done more thoroughly adequately and effectively in the contemporary global and local setting On the one hand the volume offers new insights into the nature of doing biblical studies church history and systematic and practical theology as well as comparative theology in an intercultural way On the other hand it argues for accomplishing interdisciplinary studies in the fields of theology and religion

Jesus Imandars and Christ Bhaktas Jonas Adelin Jørgensen, 2008 The massive changes of Christianity during the 20th century raise the perennial question about its identity in a new radical form The author addresses the question of identity and asks how globalisation religious pluralism and the polycentric nature of Christianity affect Christian self identification and theological reflection First religious life and theological reflection among believers in Jesus from Muslim and Hindu background in South Asia is presented in two empirical studies Secondly the findings are analysed and interpreted within a broad theoretical framework drawing on models for syncretistic processes from history of religions cultural anthropology and Christian theology Finally the study concludes with a systematic theological perspective on the interreligious hermeneutics underlying the changes of Christianity and discusses how interreligious hermeneutics might inform missiology as well as Christian theologies of religions and how this might challenge our understanding of the church's nature and mission In conclusion it is argued that a global polycentric Christianity can be interpreted as fellowship created by the Spirit and centred on Christ

In Search of Foundations for African Catholicism Mika Vähäkangas, 2016-05-18 This study deals with the interaction between neo Thomism and African traditional thinking in Charles Nyamiti's theological methodology The approach of the study is groundbreaking as it is the first monograph published on the theological method of any African theologian The question about the position and relevance of

Western philosophical theological systems in a non Western context also has a wider relevance concerning contextual theologies in general Nyamiti's theology is a germane and a fruitful choice for the study of this issue because of his programmatic attempt to build a coherent African Roman Catholic theological system His theology is also well known for its strong African flavor in elaborating theological questions within the framework of orthodox Roman Catholic doctrine

Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity John H. McClendon III, 2019-05-03 Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal constitutes a philosophical inquiry on Black Theology and its attendant Black Christology Explicitly the philosophical examination of Black Theology conceptually maps its quest for establishing Black Christology as an authentic form within Christian theology This text critically expounds on the methodologies and arguments which guide how Black Theology specifically affirms Black Christology as the definitive paradigm for authentic Christianity Significantly the racialized character of Black Theology immediately sets this discourse within the context of philosophy of race Clearly the philosophy of race in terms of its substance and scope is continually expanding Notably the philosophy of religion in its conceptual association with the African American experience considerably enriches the content of the philosophy of race Therefore Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal stands as a unique contribution to philosophy of race Summarily while this book tackles the formidable problem of Christian theological subject matter nonetheless the reader must be aware that this is not a work executed methodologically in any theological manner inclusive of Christian theology Subsequently while the object of our investigation substantively remains theological in character the method of investigation is guided by philosophical inquiry which is based on secular principles Furthermore although most mainstream works in philosophy of religion along with theology neglect to examine African American theologians and philosophers the subject matter of Black Christology substantially facilitates in filling this intellectual void

Psychology for Christian Ministry Fraser N. Watts, Rebecca Nye, Sara B. Savage, 2002 This work is a comprehensive introduction to psychology as it is relevant to those training for and working in the clergy Proceeding from the understanding that psychology is the discipline that illuminates those processes of personal change and growth central to religion the volume ranges over many aspects of the subject covering social developmental educational occupational and counselling psychology as well as the psychology of religion This professional handbook is tailored to meet the specific needs of the Christian ministry as they encounter psychology in their training and their everyday work Profiles in Liberation Deane W. Ferm, 2004-02-05 Liberation theology has emerged in recent years as one of the most controversial and significant developments in the global church In this concise but comprehensive volume readers will meet 36 of the most prominent liberation theologians from Asia Africa and Latin America Building on his vast research extensive correspondence and in depth interviews Deane William Ferm creates vibrant biographical portraits of these colorful and committed voices who address a theology for today's world Latin America Hugo Assmann Clodovis Boff Jose Miguez Bonino Ernesto Cardenal Jose

Christian Theology Alister E. McGrath, 2016-09-26

CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY The genius of Alister E McGrath is his remarkable ability to write in a clear concise and lucid manner that draws both teachers and students to participate with the great thinkers of the Christian tradition past and present Education and illumination are the abundant fruits of this massive well organized text which is sure to appeal to a wide range of Protestant Catholic and Orthodox audiences For this we are indebted to the author Dennis Ngien Professor of Systematic Theology Tyndale University College and Seminary Toronto Canada For sheer comprehensiveness clarity and coherence Alister McGrath has produced the definitive textbook Always accurate and engaging students are gently introduced to the gift of Theology in a memorable way Ian S Markham Dean and President of Virginia Theological Seminary Praise for the fifth edition Alister McGrath has proven himself a master at engagingly and simply introducing Christian theology in all of its contested complexity All who work at the critical appropriation of the theological tradition stand in debt to McGrath M Douglas Meeks Cal Turner Chancellor Professor of Theology and Wesleyan Studies Vanderbilt University Divinity School Now celebrating its 25th year of publication Christian Theology is one of the most internationally acclaimed textbooks in this area today Completely rewritten for the sixth edition it remains the ideal introduction to the beliefs and interpretation of Christianity It is specifically designed for students with no prior knowledge presenting the primary themes and debates of Christian theology with clarity and historical context This new edition retains all the elements that have made it so successful while also including significant additions and developments There is an increased discussion of contemporary theology to complement the excellent coverage of historical material Important new information has also been added in areas such as the Holy Spirit contemporary non Western theologies and feminist voices in Christian theology The text is rich in pedagogy to encourage student learning featuring a two colour design glossary end of chapter discussion questions and much more Written by renowned theologian Alister E McGrath this classic text is a clear lively and concise introduction that provides instructors with the tools they need to engage with their students on Christian theology

A Textbook of Christian Ethics Robin Gill, 2014-01-16 Robin Gill's A Textbook of Christian Ethics continues to be popular with students and lecturers it is difficult to find another textbook in the field that combines primary texts with extensive analysis and commentary This 4th edition has been extensively revised and it incorporates up to date developments in the field of Christian ethics Gill retains all the popular features of the previous editions including its layout and structure and in this new edition he also focuses on current debates including such topics as global Christianity global economics euthanasia and global justice and the environment The Quest Lyman C.D. Kulathungam,2012-04-25 The human spirit seems incapable of being stagnant ever pushing the boundaries of knowledge and experience We try to understand life through questions regarding our own existence the nature of the universe and the nature of God The question of our collective heart is the external manifestation of an internal longing a quest if you will This thirst to understand reality can be seen in superstructures that are scientific social political and especially religious When considering the doctrines institutions and rituals of religions we observe certain core aspirations expressed by the people of these communities These aspirations generate from an underlying quest which seeks a way out of our perceived predicament a salvific quest Regardless of whether we view ourselves as religious pre religious post religious or non religious we find ourselves involved in such a quest it seems to be an integral part of our human personhood Using a unique framework of analysis this book explores Christ s relevance to the quest expressed by the communities of eight major living religions a relevance that neither degrades Christ nor demeans other saviors Christ is not part of the human quest but is well equipped to satisfy that quest Liberation and Reconciliation James Deotis Roberts,2005-01-01 First released in 1971 Liberation and Reconciliation presents a constructive statement that argues for a balance between the quest for liberation and the need for reconciliation in black white relations Examining biblical and theological themes from the perspectives of black experience the book focuses on enlisting all humans of goodwill black or white in the cause of racial justice Roberts concludes that nonviolent reconciliation is the best response to racial oppression This groundbreaking work now a classic in the field is recognized as one of the first texts to move conversations within black theology beyond what black theologians were against toward what the movement sought to affirm Radical Christianity Christopher Rowland,2004-12-09 At different times and places Christian ideas have had a radical critical role and have served as a basis for programs of social change This concise and clearly written book documents the history of radical Christianity by discussing some of the most important developments and figures from the millenarian movements of early Christianity to the liberation theology of today Christopher Rowland begins by discussing the character and transformation of early Christian ideas and the ongoing patterns of protest against the status quo Subsequent chapters deal with the legacy of the Apocalypse and with the work of Thomas Muenzer and Gerrard Winstanley A final chapter on liberation theology examines the role of religion in Latin America today where basic Christian communities have emerged as power houses of social and political reform Radical Christianity is a reading of recovery which shows that social criticism and hope for a better world are integral features of the Christian tradition The book will be of great interest to students of religion and to anyone concerned with the role of religious ideas in past and present day societies Jesus Christ in World History Jan A. B. Jongeneel,2009 Based on the author s thesis Th D Leiden University 1971 Being a Christian in Igbo Land Eze Ikechukwu,2013 It is not always a comfortable position to question the position of a good majority However it is known that the majority can sometimes be wrong or see things differently It takes courage and a particularly critical mind to question the depth of the Christian Faith in a land seen as the future of Christianity in Africa As a Priest with some pastoral experience both in Africa and in Europe the Author is at home with the subject matter in this book He accepts the fact of the growing numbers in the churches but questions the depth of conviction in the face of the problems arising from the clash of values between Christian Faith and Igbo Traditional Religion He maintains that if God saw enough reasons to create men differently and revealed himself differently to them he God accepts that men have different understandings of his relationship with them and that they may relate with him using what is available to them their Culture and Tradition
