The Question of Christian Philosophy Today Francis J. Ambrosio, 2018 Based on papers delivered at a conference held at Georgetown University in Fall 1993 The Question of Christian Philosophy Today probes different issues confronting Christian philosophy at the brink of the twenty first century from traditionalism to post modernism Together with excerpts from the question and answer session each paper and the concluding round table discussion are here preserved in five distinct sections The work taken as a whole is an exemplar of the meaning and spirit of where we can locate Christian philosophy today and what we can expect for its future Christian Philosophy J. Aaron Simmons, 2019 One of the marks of being a philosopher is participating in debates about what counts as philosophy Of particular note in such debates is the question of how to distinguish philosophy from theology Although a variety of answers to this question have been offered in the history of philosophy in recent decades the prominence of Christian philosophy has been heralded by many as a genuine triumph over the problematic narrowness of strong foundationalism positivism and scientism For others however it signals that philosophy continues to risk being replaced by confessional theology Wherever one comes down on such issues and however one interprets recent trends in philosophy of religion the idea of Christian philosophy continues to present pressing questions for those working in meta philosophy epistemology metaphysics hermeneutics and value theory In this volume established scholars representing a variety of cultural traditions religious perspectives and philosophical priorities all wrestle with how the idea of Christian philosophy should be understood appropriated and engaged in light of where philosophy is and where it is likely to go The volume includes classical essays that have deeply marked the field and also new essays that explore the relevance of Christian philosophy to issues in disability studies engaged pedagogy lived phenomenology the academic study of religion and the workings of social power Rather than offer a unified view that seeks to settle things the contributors demonstrate that Christian philosophy remains a topic of lively debate Wherever one comes down on the issues considered here this volume shows that Christian philosophy is neither merely of historical interest nor of interest only to Christians but instead remains a thoroughly philosophical topic worthy of serious consideration and substantive critique With a Foreword by Nicholas Wolterstorff Noah Porter Professor Emeritus of Philosophical Theology at Yale University Senior Research Fellow in the Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture at the University of Virginia and Honorary Professor of Australian Catholic University      Corpus Jean-Luc Nancy, 2009-08-25 How have we thought the body How can we think it anew The body of mortal creatures the body politic the body of letters and of laws the mystical body of Christ all these and others are incorporated in the word Corpus the title and topic of Jean Luc Nancy's masterwork Corpus is a work of literary force at once phenomenological sociological theological and philosophical in its multiple orientations and approaches In thirty six brief sections Nancy offers us at once an encyclopedia and a polemical program reviewing classical takes on the corpus from Plato Aristotle and Saint Paul to Descartes Hegel Husserl and Freud while demonstrating that the mutations technological biological and political of our own culture have given rise to the need for a new understanding of the body He not only tells the story of this cultural change but also explores the promise and responsibilities that such a new understanding entails The long awaited English translation is a bold bravura rendering To the title essay are added five closely related recent pieces including a commentary by Antonia Birnbaum dedicated in large part to the legacy of the mind body problem formulated by Descartes and the challenge it poses to rethinking the ancient problems of the corpus The last and most poignant of these essays is The Intruder Nancy's philosophical meditation on his heart transplant The book also serves as the opening move in Nancy's larger project called The deconstruction of Christianity      Dante and Derrida Francis J. Ambrosio, 2012-02-01 Reading Dante's Commedia alongside Jacques Derrida's later religious writings Francis J. Ambrosio explores what these works reveal about religion as a fundamental dynamic of human existence about freedom and responsibility and about the significance of writing itself Ambrosio argues that both the many telling differences between them and the powerful bonds that unite them across centuries show that Dante and Derrida share an identity as religious writers that arises from the human experiences of faith hope and love in response to the divine mystery of being human For both Dante and Derrida Ambrosio contends scriptural religion reveals that the paradoxical tension of freedom and absolute responsibility must lead to the mystery of forgiveness a secret that these two share and faithfully keep by surrendering to its necessity to die so as always to begin again anew      Christian Philosophy Study Guide Andrew Wommack, 2022-02-01 Whether you are teaching a Sunday school class leading a small group discipling an individual or studying on your own this study guide is designed for you Each lesson consists of the Lesson text Outline Teacher's Guide Discipleship Questions Answer Key and Scriptures As a bonus you can download PDFs of the Outlines Discipleship      Luce Irigaray: Key Writings Luce Irigaray, 2004-06-22 Luce Irigaray is one of the world's most influential theorists From her early ground breaking work on linguistics to her later revolutionary work on the ethics of sexual difference Irigaray has positioned herself as one of the essential thinkers of our time This collection of key writings selected by Luce Irigaray herself presents a complete picture of her work to date across the fields of Philosophy Linguistics Spirituality Art and Politics An indispensable work for students of philosophy literary theory feminist theory linguistics and cultural studies      The Visible and the Revealed Jean-Luc Marion, 2009-08-25 In The Visible and the Revealed Jean-Luc Marion brings together his most significant papers dealing with the relationship between philosophy and theology Covering the ground from some of his earliest writings on this topic to very recent reflections they are particularly useful for understanding the progression of Marion's thought on such topics as the saturated phenomenon and the possibility of something like Christian Philosophy The book contains his seminal pieces on the saturated phenomenon and on the gift although the essays also explore more recent developments of his thought on these topics Several chapters explicitly explore the boundary line between philosophy and theology or their mutual enrichment and influence In one of the final pieces The Banality of Saturation Marion considers some of the most recent objections brought against his notion of the saturated phenomenon and responds to them in detail suggesting that saturated phenomena are neither as rare nor as inflexible as often assumed The work contains two chapters not previously available in English and brings together several other pieces previously translated but now difficult to find For readers interested in the relation between the two disciplines this is indispensable reading

Loewen, 2025-05-01 How can philosophy of religion become more diverse in content and method How can we take a multiplicity of stories into account and teach a truly inclusive philosophy of religion It is now openly acknowledged that if we do not change the underlying framework of the way we do philosophy of religion we will always create subalterns Here is an invitation to rethink Philosophy of Religion Engaging with texts and thinkers from multiple traditions this book offers 18 distinct approaches to doing Philosophy of Religion and presents an opportunity to change Philosophy of Religion at a fundamental level Drawing on religions and philosophies from across history and around the world each chapter outlines a framework for approaching religion from a different standpoint monotheism in Christianity Qi in Daoism embodiment in neuroscience naturalism in the atheism debates and non territorialism in 19th century debates on cartography Contributors identify the many philosophical systems that guide metaphysical and moral truths and adhere to the principle that traditions are not monolithic but diverse

They recognise that categories such as indigenous religions are political rather than descriptive in nature Innovative and forward looking this collection constructs a new method and terminology that promotes active interaction It is essential reading for students and teachers looking for a new way of doing Philosophy of Religion      Fundamental Theology

Heinrich Fries,1996 Renowned theologian Heinrich Fries offers what is both a traditionally structured treatment of the basic issues of fundamental theology as they have been modified by Vatican II and a study of the major ethical religious and cultural issues of the late twentieth century      Science and Christianity J. B. Stump,2016-09-08 Science and Christianity is an accessible engaging introduction to topics at the intersection of science and Christian theology A philosophically orientated treatment that introduces the relationship of science to Christianity and explores to what extent the findings of science affect traditional Christian theology Addresses important theological topics in light of contemporary science including divine action the problem of natural evil and eschatology Historically oriented chapters and chapters covering methodological principles for both science and theology provide the reader with a strong foundational understanding of the issues Includes feature boxes highlighting quotations biographies of major scientists and theologians key terms and other helpful information Issues are presented as fairly and objectively as possible with strengths and weaknesses of particular interpretations fully discussed      Foundations of Systematic Theology Thomas G. Guarino,2005-05-01 Guarino argues in this book that the doctrinal form of the Christian faith in its essential characteristics calls for certain theoretical exigencies This is to say that the proportion and beauty of the form is not served or illuminated by simply any presuppositions Rather a determinate understanding of first philosophy of the nature of truth of hermeneutical theory of the predication of language and mutual correlation is required if Christian faith and doctrine are to maintain a recognizable and suitably mediative form Failing to adduce specific principles will lead either to a simple assertion of Christian truth in which case the form of Christianity becomes less intelligible and attractive or one will substitute a radically changed form which is itself inappropriate for displaying the fundamental revelatory narrative of faith The house of Christian faith possesses a certain proportion of structure the form will sag badly if one removes an undergirding item or if one beam is replaced with another of variable shape or size The form s beauty will either be obscured no longer clearly visible or the form will become something quite different no longer architectonically related to what was originally the case The intention of this book is to discuss those doctrinal characteristics considered fundamental to the Christian faith as protective of its revelatory form and concomitantly to examine the theoretical principles required if such form is to remain both intelligible and beautiful

Christian Philosophy Craig G. Bartholomew,Michael W. Goheen,2013-10-15 This third book in a series of successful introductory textbooks by Craig Bartholomew and Michael Goheen builds on their previous projects The Drama of Scripture and Living at the Crossroads to offer a comprehensive narrative of philosophical thought from a distinctly Christian perspective After exploring the interaction among Scripture worldview theology and philosophy the authors tell the story of philosophy from ancient Greece through postmodern times positioning the philosophers in their historical contexts and providing Christian critique along the way The authors emphasize the Reformed philosophical tradition without neglecting other historical trajectories and show how philosophical thought relates to contemporary life     Adoration: The Deconstruction of Christianity II Jean-Luc Nancy, 2013 Adoration is the second volume of the Deconstruction of Christianity following Dis Enclosure The first volume attempted to demonstrate why it is necessary to open reason up not to a religious dimension but to one transcending reason as we have been accustomed to understanding it the term adoration attempts to name the gesture of this dis enclosed reason Adoration causes us to receive ignorance as truth not a feigned ignorance perhaps not even a nonknowledge nothing that would attempt to justify the negative again but the simple naked truth that there is nothing in the place of God because there is no place for God The outside of the world opens us in the midst of the world and there is no first or final place Each one of us is at once the first and the last Each one each name And our ignorance is made worse by the fact that we do not know whether we ought to name this common and singular property of all names We must remain in this suspense hesitating between and stammering in various possible languages ultimately learning to speak anew In this book Jean Luc Nancy goes beyond his earlier historical and philosophical thought and tries to think or at least crack open a little to thinking a stance or bearing that might be suitable to the retreat of God that results from the self deconstruction of Christianity Adoration may be a manner a style of spirit for our time a time when the spiritual seems to have become so absent so dry so adulterated The book is a major contribution to the important strand of attempts to think a post secular situation of religion     Jews, Judaism, and Success Robert Eisen, 2023-06-23 In Jews Judaism and Success Robert Eisen attempts to solve a long standing mystery that has fascinated many How did Jews become such a remarkably successful minority in the modern Western world Eisen argues that Jews achieved such success because they were unusually well prepared for it by their religion in particular Rabbinic Judaism or the Judaism of the rabbis Rooted in the Talmud this form of Judaism instilled in Jews key values that paved the way for success in modern Western society autonomy freedom of thought worldliness and education The book carefully analyses the evolution of these four values over the past two thousand years in order to demonstrate that they had a longer and richer history in Jewish culture than in Western culture The book thus disputes the common assumption that Rabbinic Judaism was always an obstacle to Jews becoming modernized It demonstrates that while modern Jews rejected aspects of Rabbinic Judaism they also retained some of its values and these values in particular led to Jewish success Written for a broad range of readers Jews Judaism and Success provides unique insights on the meaning of success and how it is achieved in the modern world     The Oxford Handbook of Early Christian Studies Susan Ashbrook Harvey, David G. Hunter, 2008-09-04 Provides an introduction to the academic study of early Christianity c 100 600 AD and examines the vast geographical area impacted by the early church in Western and Eastern late antiquity from publisher description     Religious Experience and Contemporary Theological

Epistemology Lieven Boeve, Yves De Maeseneer, Stijn Van den Bossche, 2005 In this volume we present the proceedings from the fourth international Leuven Encounters in Systematic Theology LEST IV November 5-8 2003 which focussed on a critical investigation of the place and role of religious experience in the legitimization structures of contemporary theological thinking patterns In the first part the keynote lectures including the responses are gathered among others from L Boeve F Fiorenza L Hemming G Jantzen S Painadath S Robert R Schaeffler and S Van den Bossche In the second part a selection of the contributions offered in the thematic seminars is presented     Hard Questions, Real Answers William Lane Craig, 2003-10-17 Why doesn't God answer my prayers If God is so powerful why does evil exist And if He is so good why do we suffer Nonbelievers and even Christians are often troubled by questions about suffering doubt failure and unanswered prayer Yet careful compassionate answers are hard to find in part because evangelicals have not taken the life of the mind seriously enough The intellectual currents of our day are just too strong for simplistic responses In Hard Questions Real Answers William Lane Craig doesn't offer trite phrases or pat answers he offers honest insights gained from a life of study and ministry Readers in the midst of doubt and confusion will find real answers to these perplexing questions and learn to stand on the only sure foundation for hope God Himself This expanded new edition includes chapters on abortion and homosexuality to help readers know how to think about these volatile social issues
