Pornography in a Free Society Gordon Hawkins,Franklin E. Zimring,1988 Pornography in a Free Society deals with what has been called the civil war over smut It addresses an issue about which citizens of Western nations are sharply divided Gordon Hawkins and Franklin Zimring attempt to look at the problem of pornography in a wider perspective than that of partisan political debate To that end they compare two American reports on pornography commissioned by Presidents Johnson and Reagan the first published in 1970 and the latter in 1986 with the report of the British Committee on Obscenity and Film Censorship which appeared during the years between the American reports They discuss the radical feminist challenge to pornography and the question of pornography and children Going on to consider likely future developments the authors argue that the furore over pornography and the appointment of commissions are part of a ceremony of adjustment to widespread availability of sexually explicit material and they predict less social concern about pornography as time passes

Television George Comstock, Erica Scharrer, 1999-04-15 Television What's On Who's Watching and What It Means presents a comprehensive examination of the role of television in one's life The emphasis is on data collected over the past two decades pointing to an increasing and in some instances a surprising influence of the medium Television is not only watched but its messages are attended to and well understood There is no shame in spending hours in front of the set in fact people over estimate the time they spend viewing Television advertising no longer persuades it sells by creating a burst of emotional liking for the commercial The emphases of television news determine not only what voters think about but also the presidential candidate they expect to support on election day Children and teenagers who watch a great deal of television perform poorly on standardized achievement tests and among the reasons are the usurpation of time spent learning to read and the discouragement of book reading Television violence frightens some children and excites others but its foremost effect is to increase aggressive behavior that sometimes spills over into seriously harmful antisocial behavior Incorporates social psychology political science sociology child development and the growing field of communications Presents tables and graphs clarifying theories and linking sets of data Paints concise portraits of the role of television in entertainment politics and child rearing Contains background for dozens of lectures and articles Contains a comprehensive bibliography of more than 1000 citations many recent

Explicit Utopias Amalia Ziv, 2015-07-06 Provides an incisive account of women's porn and queer porn of the 1980s and 1990s Explicit Utopias explores a problem that has long haunted feminist lesbian and queer critics the obstacles to imagining women's desire and sexual agency Pornography is one arena in which women have actively sought to imaginatively overcome this problem yet pornography has also been an object of passionate feminist contention Revisiting the feminist sex wars of the 1980s Amalia Ziv offers a comprehensive and thoughtful reassessment of the arguments and concerns of both camps tying these early debates to the contemporary surge of concern over the pornification of culture She also sets out to rectify the lack of critical attention to marginal sexual representations by examining the feminist queer and psychoanalytic literature on several key issues including fantasy the phallus identification and gender performativity

Classify and Label Matt L. Drabek, 2014-10-15 Classify and Label The Unintended Marginalization of Social Groups is a philosophical treatment of classification in the social sciences and everyday life focusing on moral social and political implications The use of labels is essential to how people navigate and understand the world Classifications and labels also have a dark side as they may unintentionally misrepresent groups and individuals These misrepresentations disrupt how people think about themselves and how they treat others sometimes leading to marginalization Matt L. Drabek analyzes classification by considering rich case studies across a variety of domains including the classification of gender and sexual orientation the psychiatric classification of sadomasochism and gender disorders and the classification of people in everyday life through the production of pornography and use of gender identities This broad sample reveals deep connections between the classifications proposed by social scientists and the classifications used by society at large Drabek explores how classifications evolve from and eventually affect such seemingly disconnected issues as the situation of under represented groups in academia new models of parenting and the family the nature of sexual orientation and the nature of scientific bias

Feminist Review The Feminist Review Collective, 2005-06-29 This issue includes articles on the current differences and debates between feminists on the questions around pornography and censorship

Judging Obscenity Christopher Jon Nowlin, 2003 This work examines evidence in North American obscenity trials revealing how little consensus there is among those who purport to know best about the nature of artistic representation human sexuality and the psychological and behavioural effects of digesting explicit sexual narratives and imagery

Truthiness Fever Rick Hayes-Roth, 2011-05 This book should crystallize your cynicism You your friends your children already discount most of the information you hear or read that is presented as fact You have come to believe that nearly everyone is lying governments and businesses use giant megaphones for propaganda and that only a fool would expect the media to be constrained to truth telling Are your perceptions correct and has it always been this bad

Feminist Thought Rosemarie Putnam Tong, 2013-07-09 A classic resource on feminist theory Feminist Thought offers a clear comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory from liberal feminism radical feminism and Marxist and socialist feminism to care focused feminism psychoanalytic feminism and ecofeminism The fifth edition has been thoroughly revised and now includes a new chapter on Third Wave and Third Space Feminism Also added to this edition are significantly expanded discussions on women of color feminisms psychoanalytic and care feminisms as well as new examinations of queer theory LGBTQ and trans feminism Learning tools like end of chapter discussion questions and the bibliography make Feminist Thought an essential resource for students and thinkers who want to understand the theoretical origins and complexities of contemporary feminist debates

Toleration Catriona McKinnon, 2007-05-07 Why should we be tolerant What does it mean to live and let live What ought to be tolerated and what not Catriona McKinnon presents a comprehensive yet accessible introduction to toleration in her new book Divided into two parts the first clearly introduces and assesses the major theoretical accounts of toleration examining it in light of challenges from scepticism value pluralism and reasonableness The second part applies the theories of toleration to contemporary debates such as female circumcision French Headscarves artistic freedom pornography and censorship and holocaust denial Drawing on the work of philosophers such as Locke Mill and Rawls whose theories are central to toleration the book provides a solid theoretical base to those who value toleration whilst considering the challenges toleration faces in practice It is the ideal starting point for those coming to the topic for the first time as well as anyone interested in the challenges facing toleration today     The Gender of Desire

Michael S. Kimmel, 2012-02-01 Here one of the world's pioneers in the field of masculinity studies explores the construction of male sexuality pornography and sexual violence Michael S Kimmel analyzes what male sexuality is where it comes from how it works what affects it pornography's impact on it what fantasies men have about sex what people think about sex and how male ideas about sex affect what men actually do Provocative and wide ranging these essays make important contributions to sociology queer theory American studies history and studies of gender sexuality and gay and lesbian issues

The Psychology of Entertainment Media L. J. Shrum, 2003-10-03 The Psychology of Entertainment Media provides a cutting edge look at how entertainment media affects its viewers both in intended and unintended ways and the psychological processes that underlie these effects The collection represents an international multidisciplinary investigation of an age old process persuasion in a relatively new guise which includes product placements brand films television programs and sponsorships The collection covers three broad areas the potential effects of embedding promotions within entertainment media content the persuasive power of the entertainment media content itself and individual differences in the interplay between media usage and media effects Contributions focus on a variety of topics including product placement subliminal perception narrative impact cultivation effects on consumers and individual differences in media use Virtually all the chapters speak to the issue of how entertainment media are processed with the conclusion that media consumers do tend to process entertainment and promotional information differently Providing a broad perspective on how entertainment media may have an effect that goes largely unnoticed or unattended by consumers this volume makes a substantial contribution toward creating a more knowledgeable field as well as a more knowledgeable consumer With its origins in the 21st Annual Advertising and Consumer Psychology Conference the volume represents scholarship from prominent and emerging scholars in psychology marketing and communications It is appropriate for advanced students and scholars in marketing advertising psychology and mass communication for research focused practitioners working in marketing advertising and public policy and for individuals interested in entertainment studies consumer behavior attitudes persuasion media studies and consumer psychology     Censorship Derek Jones, 2001-12-01 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
