reimagines Sharp's appropriation of Darwinian evolutionary concepts asking what it would mean today to say that traditional music evolves in light of recent advances in evolutionary theory The book ultimately advances a concept of traditional music that eschews the term's long standing ontological and axiological foundations in the principle of identity For scholars and graduate students in musicology cultural studies and ethnomusicology the book is an ambitious and provocative challenge to entrenched habits of thought in the study of traditional music and the historiography of England's folk revival The Ridpath Library of Universal Literature ... John Clark Ridpath, 1898 After Identity Robert Zacharias, 2015-11-11 For decades the field of Mennonite literature has been dominated by the question of Mennonite identity After Identity interrogates this prolonged preoccupation and explores the potential to move beyond it to a truly post identity Mennonite literature The twelve essays collected here view Mennonite writing as transitioning beyond a tradition concerned primarily with defining itself and its cultural milieu What this means for the future of Mennonite literature and its attendant criticism is the question at the heart of this volume Contributors explore the histories and contexts as well as the gaps that have informed and diverted the perennial focus on identity in Mennonite literature even as that identity is reread reframed and expanded After Identity is a timely reappraisal of the Mennonite literature of Canada and the United States at the very moment when that literature seems ready to progress into a new era In addition to the editor the contributors are Ervin Beck Di Brandt Daniel Shank Cruz Jeff Gundy Ann Hostetler Julia Spicher Kasdorf Royden Loewen Jesse Nathan Magdalene Redekop Hildi Froese Tiessen and Paul Tiessen Thomas Gray: poetry and poetic identity Luisa Camaiora, 2014-05-07

Schustereder, 2015-09-16 Based on an analysis of a variety of early medieval writings from Britain

including De Excidio et Conquestu Britanniae by the Briton Gildas the early Welsh collection of stanzas commonly referred to as Y Gododdin and the Venerable Bede's Historia Ecclesiastica Gentis Anglorum his Historia Abbatum and Chronica Maior Strategies of Identity Construction provides evidence of an active and productive medieval discourse of ethnic and political identity construction in Britain The book demonstrates that different gentes even competing peoples use the same strategies to construct and communicate their identities This phenomenon is not only visible when comparing the different writings which were subject to analysis in this research but can also be seen when analyzing changes the writings underwent during the transmission processes of their manuscripts throughout the Middle Ages Elements of a discourse of identity construction here not only appear to be productive but can also be seen in close connection with historical political and social developments at the same time rendering the study of the discourse of identity construction an important tool for providing a modern understanding of medieval politics and societies in periods of change and transition
