Lughod Said held that it is the intellectual's responsibility to expose lies and deceptions of the holders of power. A passionate advocate for the Palestinian cause, his solidarity did not prevent him from launching a sustained critique of the Palestinian leadership. Hovsepian charts both Said's engagement with the Palestinian national movement and his exchanges with a host of intellectuals over Palestine, arguing that Said's interventions have succeeded in changing the parameters of the discourse in the humanities and among younger Jews searching for political affiliation. Drawing on his diaries in which he recorded his meetings with Said as well as access to some of Said's private letters, Hovsepian illuminates in rich detail the trajectory of Said's political thinking and the depth and breadth of his engagement with peers and critics over issues that continue to resonate to this day. Encyclopedia of the Palestinians Philip Mattar, 2005.
