

The background of the book cover is a reproduction of Michelangelo's 'The Creation of Adam' from the Sistine Chapel. It depicts two cherubs (putti) in a dynamic, contorted pose. One cherub is on the left, looking towards the right, holding a long, thin object (possibly a reed or a pipe) in its mouth. The other cherub is on the right, leaning forward, also holding a similar object. The painting is characterized by its soft, fleshy forms and vibrant colors, particularly the blues and greens of the cherubs' drapery and the warm tones of their skin.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
