Questions From The Asylum:

Questions of Power Susan J. Hubert, 2002 Questions of Power The Politics of Women's Madness Narratives explores the ways in which women have used autobiographical writing in response to psychiatric symptoms and treatment. By addressing health and healing from the patient's perspective, the study raises questions about psychiatric practice and mental health policy. The ultimate thesis is that autobiographies by women psychiatric patients can expose many of the problems in psychiatric treatment and indicate directions for change. Subcommittee on Homeland Security, 2004 Constitutional Questions in Latin America and Peru César Landa, 2024-06-26 The book delves into constitutional essays focused on Latin America with a particular emphasis on Peru. It explores legal theories surrounding the development of human rights rooted in constitutional pluralism. Drawing from the insights gathered by organizations within the Inter American Human Rights System, notably the Court and the Commission, this examination extends to its impact on local judicial bodies, including the Judiciary and notably the Constitutional Court. These efforts aim to protect traditional civil and political rights alongside social rights. However, the work also addresses the ongoing challenge of safeguarding emerging rights, such as fundamental digital and environmental rights, while bolstering protections for vulnerable populations like migrants and the LGBTQ.

Transnational LGBT Activism and UK-Based NGOs Matthew Farmer,2020-07-19 This book contributes an analysis of UK based non governmental organisations engaged in transnational lesbian gay bisexual and trans LGBT activism within a broader recognition of the complexities that British colonial legacies perpetuate in contemporary international relations From this analysis the book suggests that greater engagement with intersectional and decolonial approaches to transnational activism would allow for a more transformative solidarity that challenges the broader impacts of coloniality on LGBT people s lives globally Case studies are used to explore UK actors participation in the complexities of contemporary transnational LGBT activism including activist responses to developments in Brunei between 2014 and 2019 and the use of LGBT aid conditionality by Western governments Activist engagements with legacies of British colonialism are also explored including a focus on sodomy laws and the Commonwealth as well as the challenges faced by LGBT people seeking asylum in the UK
