Health and Healing in the Early Modern Iberian World Sarah E. Owens,Margaret E. Boyle,2021-04-07 Recognizing the variety of health experiences across geographical borders Health and Healing in the Early Modern Iberian World interrogates the concepts of health and healing between 1500 and 1800 Through an interdisciplinary approach to medical history gender history and the literature and culture of the early modern Atlantic World this collection of essays points to the ways in which the practice of medicine the delivery of healthcare and the experiences of disease and health are gendered The contributors explore how the medical profession sought to exert its power over patients determining standards that impacted conceptions of self and body and at the same time how this influence was mediated Using a range of sources the essays reveal the multiple and sometimes contradictory ways that early modern health discourse intersected with gender and sexuality as well as its ties to interconnected ethical racial and class driven concerns Health and Healing in the Early Modern Iberian World breaks new ground through its systematic focus on gender and sexuality as they relate to the delivery of healthcare the practice of medicine and the experiences of health and healing across early modern Spain and colonial Latin America The Nation ,1874 Chicago Schools Journal ,1952

Chimes of Change and Hours Audrey Borenstein,1983 Encompassing a variety of perspectives on the lives of older women in modern America this book is a rich mosaic drawing on demographic social psychological social historical economic and gerontological data and incorporating transcripts of oral histories interviews with women artists fiction and essays by and about women in the second half of their lives autobiographies diaries journals letters and other sources A Companion to Hemingway's Death in the Afternoon Miriam B. Mandel,2009 New carefully focused essays providing a thorough examination of Hemingway s groundbreaking non fictional work Published in 1932 Death in the Afternoon reveals its author at the height of his intellectual and stylistic powers By that time Hemingway had already won critical and popular acclaim for his short stories and novels of the late twenties A mature and self confident artist he now risked his career by switching from fiction to nonfiction from American characters to Spanish bullfighters from exotic and romantic settings to the tough world of the Spanish bullring a world that might seem frightening and even repellant to those who do not understand it Hemingway s nonfiction has been denied the attention that his novels and short stories have enjoyed a state of affairs this Companion seeks to remedy breaking new ground by applying theoretical and critical approaches to a work of nonfiction It does so in original essays that offer a thorough balanced examination of a complex boundary breaking and hitherto neglected text The volume is broken into sections dealing with the composition reception and sources of Death in the Afternoon cultural translation cultural criticism semiotics and paratextual matters and the issues of art authorship audience and the literary legacy of Death in the Afternoon The contributors to the volume four men and seven women lay to rest the stereotype of Hemingway as a macho writer whom women do not read and their nationalities British Spanish American and Israeli indicate that Death in the Afternoon even as it focuses on a particular national art discusses matters of universal concern Contributors Miriam B Mandel Robert W Trogdon Lisa Tyler Linda Wagner Martin Peter Messent Beatriz Penas Ib ez Anthony Brand Nancy Bredendick Hilary Justice Amy Vondrak and Keneth Kinnamon MiriamB Mandel teaches in the English Department of Tel Aviv University The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1996
