Eleanor Roosevelt on Screen

Angela S. Beauchamp,2023-11-16 Eleanor Roosevelt recognized the power of film and television especially as educational tools to reach young people She hosted three political talk shows in the 1950s and early 1960s often appearing in guest spots to promote the United Nations Democratic candidates and progressive issues with Ed Sullivan Bob Hope Frank Sinatra Mike Wallace and Edward R Murrow In the 1930s and 40s fan magazines such as Photoplay and Modern Screen published her opinions on the movies and she boldly appeared in an interventionist prologue to the 1940 anti Nazi film Pastor

Hall During World War II she contributed to civil defense films and became a staple joke in Hollywood comedies She also negotiated postwar representations of FDR on the big screen culminating in 1960's Sunrise at Campobello which portrayed her as the perfect wife This book is the first to address Eleanor Roosevelt's moving image record and her relationship to film and television in the three decades from the 1932 presidential campaign to her death in 1962 November 1942 Peter Englund, 2025-08-26 The New York Times Book Review Editors Choice An intimate history of the most important month of World War II completely based on the diaries letters and memoirs of the people who lived through it At the beginning of November 1942 it looked as if the Axis powers could still win the Second World War at the end of that month it was obviously just a matter of time before they would lose In between were El Alamein Guadalcanal the French North Africa landings the Japanese retreat in New Guinea and the Soviet encirclement of the German 6th Army at Stalingrad It may have been the most important thirty days of the twentieth century In this hugely innovative and riveting history Peter Englund has reduced an epoch making event to its basic component the individual experience Englund's narrative is based solely on what he learned from the writings of soldiers and ordinary citizens alike They comprise a remarkable deeply personal resource In thirty memorable days among those we meet are a Soviet infantryman at Stalingrad an American pilot on Guadalcanal an Italian truck driver in the North African desert a partisan in the Belarussian forests a machine gunner in a British bomber a twelve year old girl in Shanghai a university student in Paris a housewife on Long Island a shipwrecked Chinese sailor a prisoner in Treblinka a Korean comfort woman in Mandalay Albert Camus Vasily Grossman and Vera Brittain forty characters in all In addition we experience the construction and launching of SS James Oglethorpe a Liberty ship built in Savannah the fate of U 604 a German submarine the building of the first nuclear reactor in Chicago and the making of Casablanca Not since the publication of the author's last book The Beauty and the Sorrow which similarly looked at the First World War have we had such a mesmerizing work of history The Eyes Have It Murray Pomerance, 2013-03-19 The Eyes Have It explores those rarified screen moments when viewers are confronted by sights that seem at once impossible and present artificial and stimulating illusory and definitive Beginning with a penetrating study of five cornfield sequences including The Wizard of Oz Arizona Dream and Signs Murray Pomerance journeys through a vast array of cinematic moments technical methods and laborious collaborations from the 1930s to the 2000s to show how the viewer's experience of reality is put in context challenged and willfully engaged Four meditations deal with reality effects from different philosophical and technical angles Vivid Rivals assesses active participation and critical judgment in seeing effects with such works as Defiance Cloverfield Knowing Thelma Louise and more The Two of Us considers double placement and doubled experience with such films as The Prestige Niagara and A Stolen Life Being There discusses cinematic performance and the problems of believability highlighting such films as Gran Torino The Manchurian Candidate In Harm's Way and other films Fairy Land explores the art of scenic backing focusing on the fictional world of Brigadoon which borrows from both hard edged realism and evocative
