Rose Of Los Angeles An Historical Novel:

Crime Fiction John Scaggs, 2005 Provides a lively introduction to what is both a wide ranging and hugely popular literary genre Accessible and clear this comprehensive overview is the essential guide for all those studying crime fiction

Latin America's New Historical Novel Seymour Menton, 2010-07-22 Beginning with the 1979 publication of Alejo Carpentier's El arpa y la sombra the New Historical Novel has become the dominant genre within Latin American fiction In this at times tongue in cheek postmodern study Seymour Menton explores why the New Historical Novel has achieved such popularity and offers discerning readings of numerous works Menton argues persuasively that the proximity of the Columbus Quincentennial triggered the rise of the New Historical Novel After defining the historical novel in general he identifies the distinguishing features of the New Historical Novel Individual chapters delve deeply into such major works as Mario Vargas Llosa's La guerra del fin del mundo Abel Posse's Los perros del paraíso Gabriel García Márquez's El general en su laberinto and Carlos Fuentes' La campaña A chapter on the Jewish Latin American novel focuses on several works that deserve greater recognition such as Pedro Orgambide's Aventuras de Edmund Ziller en tierras del Nuevo Mundo Moacyr Scliar's A estranha nação de Rafael Mendes and Angelina Muñoz's Tierra adentro

The Historical Novel Jerome De Groot, 2009-09-10 The historical novel is not only an immensely popular genre but also one that raises fascinating questions about the nature of key foundational concepts such as fact and fiction history reading and writing This wide ranging guide offers an accessible introduction to both the genre and the critical debates around it

A Brief History of the Book Steven K. Galbraith, 2020-08-11 This book leads readers through an intriguing examination of how books began and have evolved through history and explores where future technologies may lead them From ancient clay tablet and scrolls to medieval manuscripts and printed books to personal computers and iPads this guide examines the fascinating history of books from 4000 BCE to the present At each step of this evolution technologies are examined and evaluated to show how these ideas are present from the very beginning of written communication Moving chronologically from the ancient world to the present the book shows how written communication media evolved from cuneiform to the Kindle Focusing on key technologies and vital periods of historical transition it traces an evolution that elucidates the history of the written word at each step examining and evaluating such aspects of technologies as memory capacity readability and writability durability recyclability information security ease and mode of access and cost Additional attention is paid to how these technologies were made how they were circulated and who was reading them

Bestseller Robert McParland, 2018-12-15 Whether curled up on a sofa with a good mystery lounging by the pool with a steamy romance or brooding over a classic novel Americans love to read Despite the distractions of modern living nothing quite satisfies many individuals more than a really good book And regardless of how one accesses that book through a tablet a smart phone or a good old fashioned hardcover those choices have been tallied for decades In Bestseller A Century of America's Favorite Books Robert McParland looks at the reading

tastes of a nation from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day Through extensive research McParland provides context for the literature that appealed to the masses from low brow potboilers like Forever Amber to Pulitzer Prize winners such as To Kill a Mockingbird Decade by decade McParland discusses the books that resonated with the American public and shows how current events and popular culture shaped the reading habits of millions Profiles of authors with frequent appearances from Ernest Hemingway to Danielle Steel are included along with standout titles that readers return to year after year A snapshot of America and its love of reading through the decades this volume informs and entertains while also providing a handy reference of the country s most popular books For those wanting to learn more about the history of American culture through its reading habits Bestseller A Century of America s Favorite Books is a must read The Monthly Cumulative Book Index ,1907 Herringshaw's American Statesman and Public Official Year-book ,1914

Herringshaw's American Blue-book of Biography ,1914 Designing Hollywood Christian Esquevin,2023-08-29 Since the 1920s fashion has played a central role in Hollywood As the movie going population consisted largely of women studios made a concerted effort to attract a female audience by foregrounding fashion Magazines featured actresses like Jean Harlow and Joan Crawford bedecked in luxurious gowns selling their glamour as enthusiastically as the film itself Whereas actors and actresses previously wore their own clothing major studios hired costume designers and wardrobe staff to fabricate bespoke costumes for their film stars Designers from a variety of backgrounds including haute couture and art design were offered long term contracts to work on multiple movies Though their work typically went uncredited they were charged with creating an image for each star that would help define an actor both on and off screen The practice of working long term with a single studio disappeared when the studio system began unraveling in the 1950s By the 1970s studios had disbanded their wardrobe departments and auctioned off their costumes and props In Designing Hollywood Studio Wardrobe in the Golden Age Christian Esquevin showcases the designers who dressed Hollywood s stars from the late 1910s through the 1960s and the unique symbiosis they developed with their studios in creating iconic looks Studio by studio Esquevin details the careers of designers like Vera West who worked on Universal productions such as Phantom of the Opera 1925 Dracula 1931 and Bride of Frankenstein 1931 William Travilla the talent behind Marilyn Monroe s dresses in Gentleman Prefer Blondes 1953 and The Seven Year Itch 1955 and Walter Plunkett the Oscar winning designer for film classics like Gone with the Wind 1939 and An American in Paris 1951 Featuring black and white photographs of leading ladies in their iconic looks as well as captivating original color sketches Designing Hollywood takes the reader on a journey from drawing board to silver screen Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater Richard Young,Odile Cisneros,2010-12-18 The Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater provides users with an accessible single volume reference tool covering Portuguese speaking Brazil and the 16 Spanish speaking countries of continental Latin America Argentina Bolivia Chile Colombia Costa Rica Ecuador El Salvador Guatemala Honduras Mexico Nicaragua Panama

Paraguay Peru Uruguay and Venezuela Entries for authors ranging from the early colonial period to the present give succinct biographical data and an account of the author's literary production with particular attention to their most prominent works and where they belong in literary history The introduction provides a review of Latin American literature and theater as a whole while separate dictionary entries for each country offer insight into the history of national literatures Entries for literary terms movements and genres serve to complement these commentaries and an extensive bibliography points the way for further reading The comprehensive view and detailed information obtained from all these elements will make this book of use to the general interest reader Latin American studies students and the academic specialist

Origins of Futuristic Fiction Paul K. Alkon, 2010-08-01 For nearly two thousand years the future was a realm reserved for prophets poets astrologers and practitioners of deliberative rhetoric Then in 1659 the French writer Jacques Guttin published his romance Epigone which carried the subtitle the history of the future century Unlike the stories of space travel that were popular at the time or the tales of travel to distant earthly lands which had long been a familiar literary genre Guttin's romance described human societies displaced by time as well as by space and heroes not of his own day but of a future age Paul Alkon's Origins of Futuristic Fiction examines the earliest works of prose fiction set in future time the forgotten writings of the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries that are the precursors of such well known masterpieces of the form as H G Wells's The Time Machine Aldous Huxley's Brave New World and George Orwell's 1984 The first secular story to break the imaginative barrier against tales of the future Epigone marked the emergence of a form unknown to classical medieval or renaissance literature Guttin's courageous displacement of narrative into future time was followed by writers such as Samuel Madden Louis Sebastien Mercier Cousin de Granville Mary Shelley and Emile Souvestre who wrote books with such titles as Memoirs of the Twentieth Century The Year 2440 The Last Man and The World As It Will Be Most extraordinary though may be Felix Bodin's great metafictional Le roman de l'avenir the novel of the future Both a narrative of the future and a poetics of the new genre this book identified in the previous isolated works set in future time a situation rarely encountered in literary history in which the possibility for a new form clearly existed without yet being altogether achieved In the introduction to his uncompleted novel Bodin presented his vision of the futuristic novel as a literature of realism morality and fantasy His remarkably astute attempt to define the aesthetics of a major transformation in the relation between literature and time still stands as the basis for the poetics of futuristic fiction Tracing the early literary history of what became a major form of modern fiction Origins of Futuristic Fiction examines the key works of the earliest writers of the genre not for what they betray of past expectations but for what they reveal about the formal problems that needed to be resolved before tales of the future could achieve their full power in the works of later novelists

Chinese Translation Studies in the 21st Century

Roberto Valdeon, 2018-11-09 Chinese Translation Studies in the 21st Century which presents a selection of some of the best articles published in the journal Perspectives in a five year period 2012-2017 highlights the vitality of Translation Studies as a profession and as a field of enquiry in China As the country has gradually opened up to the West translation academic programmes have burgeoned to cater for the needs of Chinese corporations and political institutions The book is divided into four sections in which authors explore theoretical and conceptual issues such as the connection between translation and adaptation multimodality and the nature of norms audiovisual translation including studies on news translation and the translation of children s movies bibliographies and bibliometrics to assess for example the international visibility of Chinese scholars and interpreting analyzing pauses in simultaneous interpreting and sign language among other aspects The book brings together well established authors and younger scholars from universities in mainland China Hong Kong Macao and Taiwan The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Perspectives Studies in Translatology The Cumulative Book Index, 1907 A world list of books in the English language Dictionary of the Old Testament: Historical Books Bill T.
