Roses Of Eyam:

The Roses of Eyam Don Taylor, Ray Speakman, 1996 This series of plays for the 11-16 age range offers contemporary drama and new editions of classic plays The series has been developed to support classroom teaching and to meet the requirements of the National Curriculum Key Stages 3 and 4

Roses Of Eyam Don Taylor, 1976 A sense of place Lez Cooke, 2018-02-28 This pioneering study examines regional British television drama from its beginnings on the BBC and ITV in the 1950s to the arrival of Channel Four in 1982 It discusses the ways in which regionalism regional culture and regional identity have been defined outlines the history of regional broadcasting in the UK and includes two detailed case studies of Granada Television and BBC English Regions Drama representing contrasting examples of regional television drama during what is often described as the golden age of British television The conclusion brings the study up to date by discussing recent developments in regional drama production and by considering future possibilities Written in a scholarly but accessible style the book uncovers a forgotten history of British television drama that will be of interest to lecturers and students of media and cultural studies as well as the general reader with an interest in the history of British television

Science By Simulation - Volume 1: A Mezze Of Mathematical Models Andrew French, 2022-05-30 A Mezze of Mathematical Methods is Volume 1 of Science by Simulation It is a recipe book of mathematical models that can be enlivened by the transmutation of equations into computer code In this volume the examples chosen are an eclectic mix of systems and stories rooted in common experience rather than those normally associated with constrained courses on Physics Chemistry or Biology which are taught in isolation and susceptible to going out of date in a few years Rather than a what of Science this book is aimed at the how readily applied to projects by students and professionals Written in a friendly style based upon the author's expertise in teaching and pedagogy this mathematically rigorous book is designed for readers to follow arguments step by step with stand alone chapters which can be read independently This approach will provide a tangible and readily accessible context for the development of a wide range of interconnected mathematical ideas and computing methods that underpin the practice of Science

Lies, Damned Lies and History Graeme Donald, 2010-12-26 From cats spats and catacombs to the Wall Street shuffle this book looks at how historical events didn't always unfold as we think they did It takes the readers on a journey century by century showing how the truth we take for granted is a far cry from the facts It is suitable for those who want to see the past as it was

A Plague Year Edward Bloor, 2011-09-13 It's 2001 and zombies have taken over Tom's town Meth zombies The drug rips through Blackwater PA with a ferocity and a velocity that overwhelms everyone It starts small with petty thefts of cleaning supplies and Sudafed from the supermarket where Tom works But by year's end there will be ruined hollow people on every street corner Meth will unmake the lives of friends and teachers and parents It will fill the prisons and the morgues Tom's always been focused on getting out of his depressing coal mining town on planning his escape to a college somewhere sunny and far away But as bits of his childhood erode around him he finds it's not so easy to let go With the selfless heroism of the passengers on United Flight 93 that crashed nearby fresh in his mind and in his heart Tom begins to see some reasons to stay to see that even lost causes can be worth fighting for Edward Bloor has created a searing portrait of a place and a family and a boy who survive a harrowing plague year and become stronger than before

Thanatourism Tony Johnston,Pascal Mandelartz,2015-10-30 Thanatourism is an important new overview of the growing field It introduces more rigorous scholarship new philosophical perspectives and a wealth of empirical material on the contemporary and historical consumption of death with case studies designed to stretch and challenge current discourse

Upstairs and Downstairs James Leggott,Julie Anne Taddeo,2014-12-11 The international success of Downton Abbey has led to a revived interest in period dramas with older programs like The Forsyte Saga being rediscovered by a new generation of fans whose tastes also include grittier fare like Ripper Street Though often criticized as a form of escapist conservative nostalgia these shows can also provide a lens to examine the class and gender politics of both the past and present In Upstairs and Downstairs British Costume Drama Television from The Forsyte Saga to Downton Abbey James Leggott and Julie Anne Taddeo provide a collection of essays that analyze key developments in the history of period dramas from the late 1960s to the present day Contributors explore such issues as how the genre fulfills and disrupts notions of quality television the process of adaptation the relationship between UK and U S television and the connection between the period drama and wider developments in TV and popular culture Additional essays examine how fans shape the content and reception of these dramas and how the genre has articulated or generated debates about gender sexuality and class In addition to Downton Abbey and Upstairs Downstairs other programs discussed in this collection include Call the Midwife Danger UXB Mr Selfridge Parade s End Piece of Cake and Poldark Tracing the lineage of costume drama from landmark productions of the late 1960s and 1970s to some of the most talked about productions of recent years Upstairs and Downstairs will be of value to students teachers and researchers in the areas of film television Victorian studies literature gender studies and British history and culture

Home/Land Rebecca Mead,2023-07-11 A moving reflection on the complicated nature of home and homeland and the heartache and adventure of leaving an adopted country in order to return to your native land this is a winsome memoir of departure and reversal about the way a series of unknowns accrue into a life Jia Tolentino author of Trick Mirror When the New Yorker writer Rebecca Mead relocated to her birth city London with her family in the summer of 2018 she was both fleeing the political situation in America and seeking to expose her son to a wider world With a keen sense of what she d given up as she left New York her home of thirty years she tried to knit herself into the fabric of a changed London The move raised poignant questions about place What does it mean to leave the place you have adopted as home and country And what is the value and cost of uprooting yourself In a deft mix of memoir and reportage drawing on literature and art recent and ancient history and the experience of encounters with individuals environments and landscapes in New York City and in England Mead artfully explores themes of identity nationality and inheritance She recounts her time in the coastal town of Weymouth where she grew up her dizzying first years in New York where she broke into journalism the rich process of establishing a new home for her dual national son in London Along the way she gradually reckons with the complex legacy of her parents Home Land is a stirring inquiry into how to be present where we are while never forgetting where we have been Frighten the Horses Oliver Radclyffe, 2024-09-17 An Oprah Daily Best Book of Fall A CLMP Firecracker Awards Finalist A textured sharply written memoir about coming of age in the fourth decade of one's life and embracing one's truest self in a world that demands gender fit in neat boxes From the outside Oliver Radclyffe spent four decades living an immensely privileged beautifully composed life As the daughter of two well to do British parents and the wife of a handsome successful man from an equally privileged family Oliver played the parts expected of him He checked off every box marriage children four a white picket fence surrounding a stately home in Connecticut and a golden retriever named Biscuit But beneath the shiny veneer Oliver was desperately trying to stay afloat as he struggled to maintain a facade of normalcy his hair was falling out in clumps he couldn't eat and his mood swings often brought him to tears And then on an otherwise unremarkable afternoon in September Oliver Radclyffe woke up and realized the life of a trapped housewife was not one he was ever meant to live In fact Oliver had spent his entire life denying the deepest truest parts of himself In the wake of this realization he began the challenging messy journey toward self acceptance and living a truer life knowing he risked the life he'd built to do so That journey was fraught as Oliver navigated leaving a marriage and reintroducing himself to his children And despite the challenges he faced Oliver realized there was no way for him to go back to the beautiful lie of his previous life Not if he wanted to survive Frighten the Horses is a trans man's coming of age story about a housewife who comes out as a lesbian and tentatively at first steps into the world of queerness With growing courage and the support of his newfound community Oliver is finally able to face the question of his gender identity and become the man he is supposed to be The story of a flawed fascinating gorgeously queer man Frighten the Horses introduces Oliver Radclyffe as a witty arresting unforgettable voice The Art of Decision Making Helga

Drummond, 2002-02-15 Science reassures art disturbs Proverb This intriguing exploration of underlying forces in decision making takes as its starting point a wealth of high profile decision disasters In brilliantly readable analyses Helga Drummond shows how better awareness of the inherent uncertainties of the decision making process could have made the outcomes very different Examples showcased include The Hatfield rail crash The Kursk submarine disaster The Challenger disaster The year 2000 fuel crisis The WWII Dardanelles expedition The Barings Bank collapse The Taurus Stock Exchange Project The Hillsborough tragedy The King's Cross underground fire The Millennium Dome This entertaining yet instructive book offers new insight into the realities of decision making and shows how you can confront them to improve your prospects of success
