Rosie Carpe European Women Writers Series:

Rosie Carpe Marie NDiaye, 2021-02-16 When pregnant Rosie Carpe her fatherless five year old son in tow arrives in Guadeloupe looking for her elusive brother Lazare the world already seems a plenty confusing place Could the man who comes to meet her an elegant black man calling himself Lagrand actually be her disheveled white brother Are her parents who abandoned her in Paris rediscovering themselves in an outrageous second youth of outlandish affairs or have they simply lost their minds And does Rosie have a hope of slipping the sticky grasp of her former employer and seducer who moonlights as a video pornographer If it seems unlikely that the feckless Lazare missing for five years as he followed his own twisted path might help or that carnivalesque Guadeloupe where murder and mayhem are the natural outcomes of business ventures might be the place for Rosie to find peace then Marie NDiaye may have a few surprises in store for her reader Amid the blurring boundaries and shifting values the indistinct realities and confusing certainties of Rosie Carpe a love story unfolds and all that is ambiguous and tenuous in short all of Rosie's world is underpinned with a measure of tenderness

Decolonizing Translation Kathryn Batchelor, 2014-04-08 The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub-Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation

Redefining the Real Margaret-Anne Hutton,2009 What is the literary fantastic and how does it manifest itself in the texts of French and francophone women writers publishing at the close of the twentieth and start of the twenty first century What do we mean today when we talk of the real and realism These are just some of the questions addressed by the papers in this volume which derive from a conference entitled The Fantastic in Contemporary Women s Writing in French held in London in September 2007 This book sets out to refocus through a non realist lens on the works of high profile authors Darrieussecq Nothomb Germain Cixous and NDiaye and some of their less highly publicised contemporaries It analyses and mobilises a wide range of both gendered and non gendered practices and theories of the contemporary fantastic whilst critically interrogating both of the latter terms and their inter relation

Feminist Periodicals ,2005 Women's Writing in Western Europe Adalgisa Giorgio, Julia Waters, 2007 Women TM s writing has in recent decades been one of the most exciting and productive areas of literary creativity and critical analysis Thirty years on from the initial spectacular blossoming of women TM s writing and from pioneering critical projects to re construct a female literary tradition Women TM s Writing in Western Europe Gender Generation and Legacy is the first study to investigate the legacy of this earlier generation of writers texts and theories for contemporary women writers from across western Europe This important and timely book brings together original analyses by different generations of critics from around the globe from internationally renowned feminist scholars to promising doctoral students Their sophisticated studies uncover a complex web of explicit and implicit intertextual links between contemporary writers and such iconic figures as Aleramo Beauvoir Colette Cixous Duras Irigaray Kristeva Morante Morgner Wolf and Woolf so attesting to the existence of a truly international women TM s culture across ever more fluid national borders Women TM s Writing in Western Europe is a major intervention in the field of feminist literary criticism which offers new comparative understandings of such key theoretical concepts as intertextuality intergenerational relations gender identity and legacy oeCovering an enormous range of writers and national traditions Women TM s Writing in Western Europe Gender Generation and Legacy attests to the vibrancy and the currency of feminist criticism and theory in the new Europe These essays give us new paradigms to think and read with in the future Professor Marianne Hirsch Columbia University New York oeThirty years after the creative outburst of women TM s writing and feminist theory of the early 1970s can we still speak of a women TM s tradition of writing of gender and generation of the iconic role of the mother figure This dense and wide ranging collection of essays engages with the dynamics of legacy and conflict of recognition and denial to map out some of the many complex strands and relationships marking the textual relations of women TM s writing across time and geographic boundaries No simple tradition of women TM s writing emerges but the powerful hold exerted by some of the most canonical writers Beauvoir Woolf Cixous Irigaray Kristeva Rich and the evidence of the construction of new relationships between and across texts by women points to a continuing network of transmission in which women TM s texts are enmeshed This is an important collection and a large readership will be grateful for this probing of issues which are at the heart of the reading of women TM s writing Professor Elizabeth Fallaize St John TM s College Oxford Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,2005 Poets & Writers ,2004 From Menstruation to the Menopause Maria Kathryn Tomlinson,2021-05-15 This book examines the representation of the female fertility cycle in contemporary Algerian Mauritian and French women s writing It focuses on menstruation childbirth and the menopause whilst also incorporating experiences such as miscarriage and abortion This study frames its analysis of contemporary women s writing by looking back to the pioneering work of the second wave feminists Second wave feminist texts were the first to break the silence on key aspects of female experience which had thus far been largely overlooked or considered taboo Second wave feminist works have been criticised for applying their universal theories to all women regardless of their ethnicity socio economic status or sexuality This book argues that contemporary women s writing has continued the challenge against normative perceptions of the body that was originally launched by the second wave feminists whilst also taking a more nuanced contextual and intersectional approach to corporeal experience The cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach of this book is informed not only by critics of the second wave feminist movement but also by sociological studies which consider how women s bodily experiences are shaped by socio cultural context
