Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, 1948 Hearings United States. Congress Senate, 1948 Decolonising Intellectual Property Law Jade Kouletakis, Nkem Itanyi, 2025-09-30

This book advocates for an Afrocentric approach to intellectual property IP law using lessons from Nigeria's past to encourage reform for the future of Africa's legal IP landscape. Highlighting the Eurocentric influence on the history of intellectual property law in Africa, the book demonstrates how this contradicts traditional African community culture. This book makes the case for legitimising cultural expressions of traditional communities despite the western legal framework within which they exist, reimagining a decolonised IP framework whereby African histories are centred. Questioning the fundamentals of the current IP landscape such as the concept of eligibility in copyright which developed alongside European technological advances, the book also details the role of the courts in resolving IP disputes. It highlights Africa as a powerhouse of original autonomous innovation values and traditions which predate the West's concept of intellectual property. It illustrates the African experience of intellectual property from a pro-African perspective as shared by African authors. This book will be of interest to researchers in the field of intellectual property, copyright and patent law as well as African law.

Tired of trying to be enough. The truth is you were never meant to be no matter what culture might tell you. Christian women today are bombarded with confusing messaging: they are supposed to do and be it all but also die to themselves. They are supposed to believe that women can do anything and also surrender everything to God. Adding to that pressure, many women feel stuck in their current reality, spinning on the hamster wheel of life. They scroll past images that tell them everyone else has it together and is experiencing a purpose-filled, adventurous fun-loving and God-honoring life. Overwhelmed and at a loss, most women go one of two places: defeat or self-help empowerment, even Christian self-help. In But God Can, women realize this truth on their own: she was never meant to be enough. That is the gospel message that is why Jesus came. But God Can gets her unstuck and finds a purpose she has never known. She will identify the lies she's internalized, replace those with new truths, and find freedom through realistic, practical, and life-changing strategies. Becky Kiser will use her foundation as a Bible teacher and unique skills as a life coach to take women on a journey to find freedom from lies as she changes how she thinks, identifies what God says is actually true, remembers that God is more than capable of doing anything, discovers how He has uniquely created her, and propels her into the abundant life of deep purpose. But God Can will show you that you don't have to be enough because God is more than enough. On your own, you can't; but God totally can.
