The 50 Fantastic Ideas series is packed full of fun original skills based activities for Early Years practitioners to use with children aged 0-5. Each activity features step by step guidance, a list of resources and a detailed explanation of the skills children will learn. Creative, simple and highly effective, this series is a must have for every Early Years setting. There's no better way to get children moving, laughing and learning than with songs and dance, but sometimes it can feel like you've exhausted your rhyme repertoire or simply run out of musical steam. 50 Fantastic Ideas for Songs and Rhymes offers a mixture of traditional favourites, fresh alternatives to well known rhymes, action songs, original rhythms and funny verse that will have everyone giggling. All activities include suggestions for actions and dances and tips for incorporating songs and rhymes into other areas of children's learning. Adults will feel confident singing and moving to music with children, whether one to one or in groups, and children will love the repetition, rhymes and rhythmic movements of these activities. Drawing on developmental research to compile the very best musical activities, this book will boost practitioners' confidence and improve children's cognitive abilities and movement skills.

The Monk in the Garden Robin Marantz Henig, 2000. A study of the groundbreaking work in genetics conducted by Gregor Mendel, acclaimed as the father of modern genetics, argues that the Moravian monk was far ahead of his time. Round and Round the Garden Moira Kemp, 1987-01-01 Early Years

Assessment: Communication and Language Trudi Fitzhenry, Karen Murphy, 2017-11-02. With the revision of the EYFS Communication and Language became one of the three Prime Areas of learning. This book seeks to provide valuable guidance for practitioners across the entire Early Years provision. This is a practical tool that will enable practitioners to be innovative and exciting whilst meeting their targets. It includes suggestions for parents to try out at home and a variety of ideas to inspire adult led learning.

Games, Rhymes, and Wordplay of London Children N. G. N. Kelsey, 2019-02-26. This book presents a unique annotated collection of some 2000 playground games, rhymes and wordplay of London children. It charts continuity and development in childlore at a time of major social and cultural change and offers a detailed snapshot of changes in the traditions and language of young people. Topics include starting a game, counting out, rhymes, games without songs, singing and chanting, games clapping, skipping and ball bouncing, games, school rhymes and parodies, teasing and taunting, traditional belief and practice, traditional wordplay and a concluding miscellany. Recorded mainly in the 1980s by primary schoolteacher Nigel Kelsey, transcribed verbatim from the children's own words and accompanied by extensive commentaries and annotation, the book sets a wealth of new information in the wider historical and contemporary context of existing studies in Britain, Ireland and other parts of the English speaking world. This valuable new resource will open new avenues for research and be of particular interest to folklorists and linguists as well as to those working across the full
