Routes To Roots Settling In Hong Kong Paperback:

Routes to Roots Icy Kwok, 2003 Chinese Adolescents in Britain and Hong Kong Gajendra Verma, Yu-Man Chan, Christopher Bagley, Sylvia Sham, Douglas Darby, Derek Woodrow, George Skinner, 2018-08-16 First published in 1999 this book is based on several years work in Hong Kong and Britain both before and after the absorption of the Special Administrative Region of Hong Kong into the People's Republic of China in 1997 The initial chapters review the history of Chinese people in Britain specific aspects of Chinese culture and personality Chinese educational systems and the recent history of migration from Hong Kong to Britain The central part of the book compares three samples of adolescents about 350 in each of the three cultures Chinese adolescents in Hong Kong Chinese adolescents in Britain with sub divisions of those who have grown up in Britain and those recently arrived and Chinese adolescents in Hong Kong All of the 1 050 respondents completed measures of self concept identity educational aspirations and views about the family society and the future The final part of the book contains extended qualitative accounts from personal interview with a sub sample of Chinese adolescents in Britain and concludes with proposals for educational and policy changes which can accommodate the aspirations of Chinese adolescents in the British educational system The Chinese Face in Australia Lucille Lok-Sun Ngan, Chan Kwok-bun, 2012-06-07 The book explains how multi generational Australian born Chinese ABC negotiate the balance of two cultures It explores both the philosophical and theoretical levels focusing on deconstructing and re evaluating the concept of Chineseness At a social and experiential level it concentrates on how successive generations of early migrants experience negotiate and express their Chinese identity The diasporic literature has taken up the idea of hybrid identity construction largely in relation to first and second generation migrants and to the sojourner's sense of roots in a diasporic setting somewhat lost in the debate over Chinese diasporas and identities are the experiences of long term migrant communities Their experiences are usually discussed in terms of the melting pot concepts of assimilation and integration that assume ethnic identification decreases and eventually disappears over successive generations Based on ethnography fieldwork and participant observation on multi generational Australian born Chinese whose families have resided in Australia from three to six generations this study reveals a contrasting picture of ethnic identification The Zoroastrian Diaspora John R. Hinnells, 2005-04-28 What is the distinctive Zoroastrian experience and what is the common diasporic experience The Zoroastrian Diaspora is the outcome of twenty years of research and of archival and fieldwork in eleven countries involving approximately 250 000 miles of travel It has also involved a survey questionnaire in eight countries yielding over 1 840 responses This is the first book to attempt a global comparison of Diaspora groups in six continents Little has been written about Zoroastrian communities as far apart as China East Africa Europe America and Australia or on Parsis in Mumbai post Independence Each chapter is based on unused original sources ranging from nineteenth century archives to contemporary newsletters The book also includes studies of Zoroastrians on the Internet audio visual resources and the modern development of Parsinovels in English As well as studying the Zoroastrians for their own inherent importance this book contextualizes the Zoroastrian migrations within contemporary debates on Diaspora studies John R Hinnells examines what it is like to be a religious Asian in Los Angeles or London Sydney or Hong Kong Moreover he explores not only how experience differs from one country to another but also the differences between cities in the same country for example Chicago and Houston The survey data is used firstly to consider the distinguishing demographic features of the Zoroastrian communities in various countries and secondly to analyse different patterns of assimilation between different groups men and women and according to the level and type of education Comparisons are also drawn between people from rural and urban backgrounds and between generations in religious beliefs and practices including the preservation of secular culture Elihu Root Collection of United States Documents Relating to the Philippine Islands, 1907 The Jews of Africa and Asia: Contemporary Anti-Semitism and other pressures Tudor Parfitt, 1987-11-01 The archetypal oppressed minority For centuries Jews have lived in Africa and Asia including the Middle East Over recent decades however their numbers have declined dramatically and in countries like Syria Iraq Iran Egypt and Morocco have been reduced sometimes to only a few hundred people Within a few generations these and other communities are likely to disappear altogether either because of the attraction that Israel provides or because of overt anti Semitic animosity For many there is a precarious balance between survival and persecution Persecution of Jews by a variety of host societies permeates history and continents In Europe anti Jewish prejudice existed in Greek and Roman times and later the Christian church waged ideological warfare for centuries against the synagogue Wide scale and violent destruction of Jewish lives and property erupted periodically especially in troubled times when people looked for scapegoats Waves of European Christian anti Semitism spread to many countries chiefly to areas of the Islamic world where traditional social and religious attitudes towards Jews provided fertile soil for discrimination Under Islam the State was required to protect Jews but they were nearly always reduced to second class citizens Alarming anti Semitic hostility has recently spread to countries where Jews have never lived and are virtually unknown such as in Japan By contrast there are a few countries in which small and less historic Jewish communities continue without discrimination The Jews of Africa and Asia the new Minority Rights Group Report provides an historical analysis of European and Islamic experiences of anti Jewish prejudice and persecution and the rise of contemporary anti Zionism The Report gives a graphic detailed picture of the current situations of Jewish communities remaining in Africa and Asia in a country by country survey It is essential reading for all those concerned with racism and history Living Transnationally between Japan and Brazil Sarah A. LeBaron von Baeyer, 2019-11-29 Based on over two years of participant observation in labor brokerage firms factories schools churches and people's homes in Japan and Brazil Sarah LeBaron von Baeyer presents an ethnographic portrait of what it means in practice to live transnationally that is to contend with the social institutional and aspirational landscapes bridging different national settings Rather than view Japanese Brazilian labor migrants and their families as somehow lost or caught between cultures she demonstrates how they in fact find creative and flexible ways of belonging to multiple places at once At the same time the author pays close attention to the various constraints and possibilities that people face as they navigate other dimensions of their lives besides ethnic or national identity namely family gender class age work education and religion

The Concubine's Children Denise Chong, 2014-08-19 The Concubine's Children is the story of a family cleaved in two for the sake of a father's dream There's Chan Sam who left an at home wife in China to earn a living in Gold Mountain North America There's May ying the wilful seventeen year old concubine he bought sight unseen who labored in tea houses of west coast Chinatowns to support the family he would have in Canada and the one he had in China It was the concubine's third daughter the author's mother who unlocked the past for her daughter whose curiosity about some old photographs ultimately reunited a family divided for most of the last century

Inside the World's Major East Asian Collections Patrick Lo, Dickson KW Chiu, Allan Cho, 2017-05-03 Inside the World's Major East Asian Collections examines the rise of the LAM an acronym that stands for libraries archives and museums In doing so this book profiles leading experts librarians archivists and museum curators who specialise in East Asian collections from across the world In examining the dynamically shifting role of the cultural institution in the context of managing information and collections this book provides important themes offered by these cultural experts in understanding the necessary professional skills knowledge and personalities that are required for working in such environments of varying size scope and composition in LAMs As galleries LAMs manage preservation and access of history and culture and their missions and goals as cultural institutions continue to converge As collecting institutions LAMs share the common mandate to preserve and make accessible primary resources valuable for researchers and professionals as well as the public LAMs are mostly publicly funded publicly accountable institutions collecting cultural heritage materials Another aim of this book is to enhance the visibility and recognise the efforts of the LAM professionals as cultural institution leaders since much of their great contributions in the respective fields to preserving our cultural and documentary heritages have gone unnoticed outside their parent institutions Examines the roles and goals of cultural institutions Brings collections to life through interviews with LAM experts Presents LAMs with a focus on East Asia Serves as a platform for LAM professionals to share and exchange experiences and insights

Britain's Anti-submarine Capability 1919-1939 George Franklin, 2004-08-02 Britain's Anti Submarine Capability 1919 1939 is the first unified study of the development of Britain's anti submarine capability between the armistice in 1919 and the onset of the second world German submarine attack on Britain's maritime trade in 1939 Well researched and yet accessibly written this book challenges the widespread belief that the Royal Navy failed to anticipate the threat of the U boat in the Second World War

Agents of Subversion John P. Delury, 2022-10-15 Agents of Subversion reconstructs the remarkable story of a botched mission into Manchuria showing how it fit into a wider CIA campaign against Communist China and highlighting the intensity and futility of clandestine operations to overthrow Mao In the winter of 1952 at the height of the Korean War the CIA flew a covert mission into China to pick up an agent Trained on a remote Pacific island the agent belonged to an obscure anti communist group known as the Third Force based out of Hong Kong The exfiltration would fail disastrously and one of the Americans on the mission a recent Yale graduate named John T Downey ended up a prisoner of Mao Zedong's government for the next twenty years Unraveling the truth behind decades of Cold War intrigue John Delury documents the damage that this hidden foreign policy did to American political life The US government kept the public in the dark about decades of covert activity directed against China while Downey languished in a Beijing prison and his mother lobbied desperately for his release Mining little known Chinese sources Delury sheds new light on Mao's campaigns to eliminate counterrevolutionaries and how the chairman of the Chinese Communist Party used captive spies in diplomacy with the West Agents of Subversion is an innovative work of transnational history and it demonstrates both how the Chinese Communist regime used the fear of special agents to tighten its grip on society and why intellectuals in Cold War America presciently worried that subversion abroad could lead to repression at home

Airspace Closure and Civil Aviation Steven D. Jaffe, 2016-03-03 The impact to airlines from airspace closure can be as benign as a two minute extension on an arrival pattern or as catastrophic as a shoot down from a surface to air missile as the tragic loss of Malaysia Airlines Flight 17 over the Ukraine in July 2014 demonstrates Airspace constraints come in a variety of forms both man made and physical but all result in operational inefficiencies that erode the economic vitality of an airline Understanding the root causes of these airspace restrictions developing strategies for mitigating their impact and anticipating future airspace closures are critical for the efficient and safe operation of any airline This book uniquely examines the technological geographic regulatory and political aspects of airspace closure with a focus on how airlines continue to adapt to overcome these challenges providing readers with a framework for identifying issues and solutions in a systematic manner Filled with historical references and contemporary anecdotes this book serves both as a practical guide and strategic resource for airline managers navigating their 21st century organizations around some of the lingering 20th century obstacles
