and discusses different types of engagement with politics and policy in a variety of settings and sectors including numerous European and Pacific Rim policy contexts This important collection underlines the need to approach globalisation education policy and politics from numerous perspectives and offers analytical empirical and theoretical resources for the reframing of contemporary education politics Students of educational policy and politics will find this Reader an invaluable resource for understanding theorising and researching in these academic fields

Globalizing Education Policy Fazal Rizvi, Bob Lingard, 2009-12-04 Rizvi and Lingard's account of the global politics of education is thoughtful complex and compelling It is the first really comprehensive discussion and analysis of global trends in education policy their effects structural and individual and resistance to them In the enormous body of writing on globalisation this book stands out and will become a basic text in education policy courses around the world Stephen J Ball Karl Mannheim Professor of Sociology of Education Institute of Education University of London UK In what ways have the processes of globalization reshaped the educational policy terrain How might we analyse education policies located within this new terrain which is at once local national regional and global In Globalizing Education Policy the authors explore the key global drivers of policy change in education and suggest that these do not operate in the same way in all nation states They examine the transformative effects of globalization on the discursive terrain within which educational policies are developed and enacted arguing that this terrain is increasingly informed by a range of neo liberal precepts which have fundamentally changed the ways in which we think about educational governance They also suggest that whilst in some countries these precepts are resisted to some extent they have nonetheless become hegemonic and provide an overview of some critical issues in educational policy to which this hegemonic view of globalization has given rise including devolution and decentralization new forms of governance the balance between public and private funding of education access and equity and the education of girls curriculum particularly with respect to the teaching of English language and technology pedagogies and high stakes testing and the global trade in education These issues are explored within the context of major shifts in global processes and ideological discourses currently being experienced and negotiated by all countries The book also provides an approach to education policy analysis in an age of globalization and will be of interest to those studying globalization and education policy across the social sciences

Breastfeeding Privatization in Public Education Meral Apak, 2022-03-24 This book unveils women's empowerment as mothers as a notion in the school system that reinforces patriarchy rather than weakening it It discusses how empowerment is a contested notion even though it is mostly praised in terms of women's emancipation This book explores the concept that although women are breastfeeding education as mothers in the neoliberal education system they are not necessarily doing so as a self sacrifice as one may generalize in the context of neoliberal economy Instead this book argues that women are doing this as a means of investment for gaining a sense of individual power which ironically reinforces patriarchal values It presents demonstrative and descriptive practical incidences in the field

Equity and Inclusion in Physical Education and Sport Gary Stidder, Sid Hayes, 2012-09-10 An essential component of good practice in physical education is ensuring inclusivity for all pupils regardless of need ability or background Now in a fully revised and updated new edition Equity and Inclusion in Physical Education fully explores the theoretical and practical issues faced by physical education teachers today The book amalgamates areas of critical debate within the world of physical education and is structured around the key topics of ability special educational needs gender sexuality social class race and ethnicity These issues are discussed in relation to principles of equity equality of opportunity pedagogy differentiation curriculum planning and cultural awareness Other chapters explore contemporary themes such as healthism and obesity and values in physical education and policy whilst a chapter new to this edition demonstrates the importance of reflexivity and critical self reflection in good inclusive practice As well as being a perfect introductory text for any course on inclusion or inclusive practice in physical education the book offers invaluable practical advice for established professionals newly qualified teachers and trainees about how to meet equity and inclusion requirements Examples of good practice are included throughout as well as guidance on how to implement an inclusive PE curriculum within the school

Building Knowledge in Higher Education Christine Winberg, Sioux McKenna, Kirstin Wilmot, 2020-05-27 From pressures to become economically efficient to calls to act as an agent of progressive social change higher education is facing a series of challenges There is an urgent need for a rigorous and sophisticated research base to support the informed development of practices Yet studies of educational practices in higher education remain theoretically underdeveloped and segmented by discipline and country Building Knowledge in Higher Education illustrates how Legitimation Code Theory is bringing research together from across the disciplinary map and enabling practical change in a rigorously theorized way The volume addresses both students and educators Part I explores ways of supporting student achievement from STEM to the arts from introductory courses to doctoral training and from using new digital media to reflective writing Part II focuses on academic staff development in higher education reaching from curriculum design to pedagogic practices All chapters focus on issues of contemporary relevance to higher education showing how Legitimation Code Theory enables these issues to be understood and practices improved Building Knowledge in Higher Education brings together internationally renowned scholars in higher education studies academic development academic literacies and sociology with some of the brightest new researchers The volume significantly extends understandings of teaching and learning in changing higher education contexts and so contributes to educational research and practice It will be essential reading not only to scholars and students in these fields but also to scholars and educators in higher education more generally

Teachers and Schooling Making A Difference Pam Christie, Bob Lingard, 2020-08-04 Teachers Schooling Making a Difference takes seriously the question that teachers ask What do I do on Monday and does provide answers From the foreword by Professor Michael Apple University of Wisconsin Education debates are currently dominated by free market ideologists who push privatisation and competition as the answer to every problem regardless of damage to schools and pupils Teachers Schooling Making a Difference shows that we can think about education in a far more productive way Professor R W Connell University of Sydney This book is a lesson in making hope practical It makes a compelling argument for recognising supporting and enabling teachers as central to progressive school reform Professor Jenny Ozga University of Edinburgh What teachers do in the classroom really matters even though schools cannot compensate fully for difficulties children may face at home and in society Good teachers and good schools have been making a difference in children s lives for generations but what exactly is it that works Based on extensive research in 1000 primary and secondary classrooms this book examines the tough questions about teaching methods curriculum assessment and teachers professionalism The authors isolate the key elements that make the difference in the classroom and offer teachers practical approaches to working with all their students Teachers and Schools Making a Difference is essential reading for teachers and school administrators who want to improve their professional skills and offer a genuinely democratic education

Identity, Neoliberalism and Aspiration Garth Stahl, 2015-01-09 In recent years there has been growing concern over the pervasive disparities in academic achievement that are highly influenced by ethnicity class and gender Specifically within the neoliberal policy rhetoric there has been concern over underachievement of working class young males specifically white working class boys The historic persistence of this pattern and the ominous implication of these trends on the long term life chances of white working class boys has led to a growing chorus that something must be done to intervene This book provides an in depth sociological study exploring the subjectivities within the neoliberal ideology of the school environment in order to expand our understanding of white working class disengagement with education The chapters discuss how white working class boys in three educational sites enact social and learner identities focusing on the practices of meaning making and identity work that the boys experienced and the disjunctures and commonalities between them The book presents an analysis of the varying tensions influencing the identity of each boy and the consequences of these pressures on their engagement with education Drawing on Bourdieu s theoretical tools and a model of egalitarian habitus Identity Neoliberalism and Aspiration Educating white working class boys will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of sociology of education and those from related disciplines studying class and gender

Families, Education and Giftedness Jim Campbell, Laura Mazzoli Smith, 2013-02-12 What is it like to be YOUNG GIFTED AND WORKING CLASS in contemporary England How do working class family values support high educational achievement What do researchers and policy makers have to learn about giftedness from working class families These provocative questions are explored in this ground breaking book Most studies of giftedness focus on the characteristics of individuals and draw upon psychological frameworks to understand them Participants in most gifted education programmes are recruited disproportionately from the higher social classes Sceptical of the concept of giftedness Mazzoli Smith and Campbell question conventional methodologies using a narrative approach to understand how four families of working class origins each with a gifted child construct their values in relation to education and social class They explore the influence of their family histories cultural values and life styles upon educational engagement and achievement The authors show that gifted education policies are poorly matched to the values of these families and argue that much research into giftedness has been flawed by social and cultural discrimination They propose an agenda for change in research paradigms in the giftedness field which should be characterized by interdisciplinarity and more culturally relative conceptions of giftedness

Hard Labour? Academic Work and the Changing Landscape of Higher Education Tanya Fitzgerald, Julie White, Helen Gunter, 2012-01-05 Drawing on data from Australia England and New Zealand this book addresses how neo liberal policies of successive governments have decreased autonomy of academics and increased regimes of surveillance radically altering how academics think about and engage in their intellectual work
