Rowing Across The Dark Poems:

Rowing Across the Dark Franz Douskey, 1981      Dark Would Liz Waldner, 2002 The author explores the idea of self in the twenty first century venturing into Dante's dark wood in search of the truth about rootlessness and identity Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Original      Contemporary American Poetry Lloyd M. Davis, 1985 Lists over 5 200 titles of books published by American poets between 1973 and 1983      The Gaza of Winter Donald Revell, 1988 In Donald Revell's poems the present is often little more than an instant caught between the sadness of memory and the need to face the future's blank expanse Even the best dreams recall happiness that cannot be retrieved while the worst memories bend past love into a crazy line through darkness Anything can turn furious The crazy line through wreckage that wears my face and all the faces seems not to end And on the way even the most damaged things have one surface glazed a sudden distorting mirror that I can't help finding There I look as I did stalled in hours or places it is shame to remember The Eumenides are slow vengeance meted out by anywhere love fails in the collapse and angry dealing of self love The light presses The air presses hard and no story of mine if good enough to hold out When there is escape calm in these poems it is often in thoughts of distant lands and pasts in the works of other writers and artists the bands of light and changing shadows of Cezanne's canvases the suburban desire and deep green lawns of Cheever's fiction It is art stories the urge to tell that brings hope in these lines      The Downstream Extremity of the Isle of Swans Mary Jo Bang, 2001 This compelling book takes its title from Samuel Beckett's Ohio Impromptu In Beckett's play a grieving beloved seeks relief from the haunting presence of a departed lover in a place where From its single window he could see the downstream extremity of the Isle of Swans With a bow to Beckett's style and linguistic playfulness Mary Jo Bang's collection of poems deals compassionately and gracefully with the tangible world Bang's savvy alliterative insistence sweeps the reader along as her poems collectively offer a world delicately structured from memorable fragments of experience emotion things and places inside and outside the human psyche      The Day We Still Stand Here Gary Margolis, 2008-04-01 Gary Margolis's first book of poems is accomplished in its craftsmanship For many years he has been publishing in magazines and in this initial gathering of his work he presents a sustained mature poetic voice This is a collection of his best poems and a carefully considered whole a book that is consistently lyrical and moving      The Violence of the Morning Calvin Bedient, 2002 Groundbreaking new poetry evokes a wide range of influences from Kant to the Upanishads while making deep exploratory journeys into the complexities of sexual relationships disease heartbreak and death Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Original      A Drowning Man is Never Tall Enough Patrick Lawler, 1990-01-01 This is a poetry of excursions into maps of lost territories into the thoughts of a man with no legs into the life of a town marked by disasters Patrick Lawler moves into the slender lines of shattered glass the spaces between lyric and narrative between metamorphosis and mutation From the artful surface of a Russian novel rich with symbolism and white bears to a survivor's unwillingness to immerse himself in life or leave it the poems in A Drowning Man Is Never Tall Enough hunger for a language beyond the solid for the fragmentation that makes a scene complete

All Aberration Terese Svoboda, 2009-09-01 These are poems of family of romantic hope and disappointment of parenthood and of grief that move from a childhood in Nebraska in which a father strides into a ripe wheat field to the parks and parking lots of New York City the interchangeable landscapes of suburban America and the more sensual environment of secluded water to little traveled parts of Africa and the Pacific where our customs and passions are refracted into shapes that are sometimes beautiful sometimes grotesque Terese Svoboda writes of a world in which the reassuring simplicity remembered from childhood is difficult to recover Outside of this vision of the past all present life seems an aberration an existence where violence can supplant love families break apart a child dies All Aberration received a starred review in Publishers Weekly a lead in Contemporary Poetry 1986 and a Notable Book nomination by the American Library Association It was written during stays at Yaddo MacDowell and Ossabaw and received the benefit of a Creative Artists Public Service grant in 1982 Its poems first appeared in such magazines as Harper's The Nation Paris Review and Ploughshares

The Book of Motion Tung-Hui Hu, 2003 This debut collection explores memory cities motion Tung Hui Hu's tone has some of the swampy wit that recalls Calvino or Michaux A man swaps bodies with his lover a mapmaker holds captive a city which needs his crystal telescope to navigate through streets unreadable as palm lines a car pushed off a cliff in a fit of anger becomes home for a school of fish Anchored by the sequence Elegies for self Hu's poetry brings a quiet sophistication to syntax diction and form

Civilian Histories Lee Upton, 2000 Upton's poems about dreams transform the often mundane quality of life in an overly materialistic America into something imaginative and spiritual Andy Brumer The New York Times Book Review

Depth Theology Peter O'Leary, 2006 Depth Theology taps the religious potential of poetry to access both the interior and the exterior worlds Inspired by depth psychology the field of psychology devoted to the unconscious Peter O'Leary's poems work to discover the religious knowledge of the unconscious mind While seeking a revelatory poetry O'Leary engages the inconclusive quality of the revealed observing that There's a liquidy trickiness to life an entropy of spillage The religious imagination that evolves in this series of thirty four poems is unclouded by dogma and richly colored by erudition while it tests the limits of human language and experience in an effort to understand our inwardness Overflowing with images of birds and other objects of day to day experience interwoven with the mythic allegorical and biblical Depth Theology charts a path to understanding our innermost worlds From Lux Contemplatio there is no place anymore for us to migrate The need yet remains Antarctica means now an interior domain Curiosity about our inner life increases A nomad's desert God is an inward generator Our outward movement yields our soul's circumincession its insitting in rotation with the divine abeyance

The Very Thought of You Andy Robbins, 2010-01-01 Andy Robbins concludes in Au bout de l'anglais that Art and life are not the same Never He challenges the nature of both with this volume of highly personal sensual searching poetry that treats life as a work in progress with love in all its aspects as its driving force

Creating poems as technically skilled as they are emotionally powerful Robbins uses a variety of formal and idiomatic dictions Though the individual works are as unique in subject as in structure the book is unified by a discomfort with emotional and intellectual stagnancy with ancient mythology religious doctrines and popular culture The book radiates the immediate energy of mind in action question and reflection challenging the very thought of writer and reader     Vertical Elegies 5

Sam Truitt,2003 A collection of sixty nine sonnets seeks to capture the dizzying speed and hallucinogenic landscape of modern of urban life Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series competition Poetry     They are Sleeping Joanna Klink,2000 In They Are Sleeping Joanna Klink tests the limits of solitude setting her poems in places where our grip on self is loosened and blurred caves coastlines rooms in cities As her poems lead us through these sometimes beautiful sometimes appalling internal landscapes characters like the Hanged Man and the Lady of Situations reappear often locked in misunderstanding but compelling us toward a more fragile and expansive sense of self     Dare Say Tod Marshall,2002 Three long poems illuminate broken and violated things using Bach Kandinsky and Botticelli as raw material for poetic musing Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Poetry     The Reservoir Donna Stonecipher,2002 The poet blends narrative and lyrical forms to explore the line between the artificial and real in our society using the reservoir as a metaphor for this mystery Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Poetry     Harming Others Casey Finch,2008-06-01 Arranged in three parts Harming Others moves from a mock heroic voice in The Empire Poems to a more intimate voice in The Damaged Poems one that speaks to friends on their birthdays wedding days ordinary days The book culminates in The Forbidden Poems a retelling of the stories of the Old and New Testaments a reshaping of religion and history in the present University of Georgia Press     Knot Stacy Doris,2006 What follows occurs in a moment a flash It would detail a single tangibility if that did not entail all sensation Stacy Doris charts the invisible investigates the unborn and describes everything not yet imagined The tightly constructed verses of Knot weave imagery of decay and birth science and culture the warp and weft of cloth digestion wave particles and a talking cat Linguistic play abounds and Doris presents us with a human double bind to cling to the stability of the tangle or to participate in the circuits of entanglement From Under Fire i VII Each moment fifteen pounds of air pin us by gravity Then anyone Needs sixteen pounds of lightness to ever budge Such compliance Demands levitation must generate excitement which passion enact Thus dreams have all they can handle From a stone anchored is how We rise where faith is placed only in potential miracle without Dimension s measure so opening unhinged at least where each they Is porous in penetrability dunked and enriched     Lord Brain Bruce Beasley,2005 Lord Brain is an extended meditation on the psyche in its double sense of mind and soul in its relationship to that three pound bundle in our skull Bruce Beasley s collection of thirty one poems is named for Sir Walter Russell Brain or Lord Brain 1895 1966 the eminent British neuroscientist and author of Brain s Diseases of the Nervous System Bringing into conversation the disparate fields of neuroscience theology linguistics particle physics and theology these poems investigate
