Roy De Maistre The Australian Years 1894-1930:

Roy de Maistre Heather Johnson, Heather Melrose Johnson, 1995 This text explores de Maistre's work in the context of the art produced in England from 1930-1968. It discusses the light shed on current concerns in art and theory and reproduces many of de Maistre's work. It is a sequel to the book Roy de Maistre The Australian Years 1894-1930 Australian Art

Andrew Sayers, 2001 This comprehensive survey uniquely covers both Aboriginal art and that of European Australians providing a revealing examination of the interaction between the two. Painting, bark art, photography, rock art, sculpture and the decorative arts are all fully explored to present the rich texture of Australian art traditions. Well-known artists such as Margaret Preston, Rover Thomas and Sidney Nolan are all discussed as are the natural history illustrators, Aboriginal draughtsmen and pastellists whose work is only now being brought to light by new research. Taking the European colonization of the continent in 1788 as his starting point, Sayers highlights important issues concerning colonial art and women artists in this fascinating new story of Australian art. The Life, Art and Religious Iconography of David Wright

Peter French, 2016-01-14 This book showcases the contribution Australian contemporary glass artist David Wright has made to Australian art and international glassmaking. From 1970 until 2014, David Wright produced hundreds of high-quality art glass windows for Australian public, private and sacred spaces including significant national churches, chapels and synagogues. Yet little scholarly research on the artist and his place in Australian art history exists. Including the first catalogue raisonné ever produced on the artist combined with a close examination of his opus, his influences, manufacturing methods and personal history, this book demonstrates for the first time the extraordinary contribution David Wright made to Australian art and contemporary glassmaking. Grace Crowley's Contribution to Australian Modernism and Geometric Abstraction

Dianne Ottley, 2010-02-19 Grace Crowley has been recognized as a product of European modernism and was one of the leading innovators of geometric abstraction in Australia. Having studied in Paris in the 1920s with one of the leading art teachers, writers and theorists, André Lhote, she returned to Australia having mastered the complex mathematics and geometry of the golden section and dynamic symmetry that had become a framework for modernism. Through her teaching of these compositional techniques at the most progressive modern art school in Sydney in the 1930s, she became a crucial influence on the group of artists now recognized as the historical forerunners to American colour field painting introduced to Australia in the 1960s and Australian abstraction. Through her close friendship with Anne Dangar, who played a critical role in the success of Albert Gleizes' utopian art colony in rural France, Crowley maintained contact with mainstream European modernism and links to the Abstraction-Creation Group in Paris. During the 1940s and 1950s, Crowley worked with fellow artist Ralph Balson and together they developed their own style of geometric abstract art which reflected the spiritual dimensions of Kandinsky and Mondrian. Although undervalued in her own time, the sincerity and uncompromising quality of her work that transcends national boundaries makes her one of the most important Australian women artists of her
