Royal Marines 1939-1993:

Commandos in Exile Nicholas van der Bijl, 2008-10-30 Formed from members of Free Forces who had escaped from German occupation 10 Inter Allied Commando was one of the most unusual units in WW2 All members had to pass the Green Beret commando course at Achnacarry in Scotland and the book begins by describing this training With no less than six national troops plus X Troop drawn from exiled Jews 10 Commando never fought as an entity but loaned troops for specific operations such as One Troop French taking part in the Dieppe Raid 2 Troop Dutch fighting at Arnhem 5 Troop Norwegian raiding the Lofoten Islands etc At other times groups played a key intelligence role questioning POWs translating captured documents conducting reconnaissance patrols and intelligence gathering on the D Day beaches The history of X Commando made up of escaped Jewish individuals is especially interesting The book also reviews the growth of post war national Commando forces

5th Infantry Brigade in the Falklands David Aldea, Nicholas van der Bijl, 2003-09-19 For many people it was 3 Commando Brigade commanded by Major General Julian Thompson and made up of Royal Marines and Paras that recaptured the Falklands Yet 5th Infantry Brigade played a key and until now little acknowledged role in this extraordinary saga Cobbled together in haste having been stripped of its assets to bring 3 Commando Brigade up to strength it comprised principally of two Guards battalions 2nd Scots and 1st Welsh and the Gurkhas Many felt it was inadequately trained when it sailed from Southampton on the QE 2 and this view was given substance by early disasters such as the tragedy at Bluff Cove Yet by the end its contribution of which Tumbledown is the best known could not be denied Why then was its commander Brigadier Tony Wilson so conspicuously ignored when the medals and decorations were handed out

British Military Operations in Aden and Radfan Nicholas van der Bijl, 2014-10-30 The book examines the military history of Aden Colony from 1839 including the fractious turn of the century Border Commissions with Turkey and the defeat of British forces near Aden by the Turks in 1915 Great Britain successfully defended the base for the rest of The Great War and throughout the Second World War The period after 1945 was one of rising tension as Great Britain drew down its Imperial commitments from the Near and Middle East Britain's intention to retain a military base in Aden was rejected by Egypt who having embarrassed Great Britain during the 1956 Suez Crisis set about supporting Yemeni aspirations with subversion in concert with the Soviet Union and China This led to Aden coming under increasing pressure from Yemeni nationalism during the late 1950 and early 1960s When an attempt was made to murder the British High Commissioner a State Emergency was declared Initially while operations were confined to the mountainous Radfan region near the border the internal security of Aden became increasingly fragile as nationalists escalated attacks on the Security Forces and Service dependants with grenade shootings and bomb attacks in the narrow streets When the British declared that they would leave in 1967 the British forces were caught up in interfactional fighting with 20 June 1967 proving a black day with twenty British soldiers murdered This led to the famous occupation of Crater district by Lt Col Mad Mitch Mitchell and his Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders By November that year after conducting a masterly withdrawal in contact the British left Aden for good

Sharing the Secret Nicholas van der Bijl, 2013-12-16 While written under the auspices of the Trustees of the Military Intelligence Museum Sharing the Secret is not an academic regimental history Rather it gives a privileged glimpse into a necessarily publicity shy organization that has been deeply involved in military intelligence operations since its inception in 1940 through to 2010 Understandably little has been written about the Corps work for Official Secret reasons The development of Field Security and Protective Security and measures taken to protect the Army for espionage sabotage subversion and terrorism in peace and war are examined These tasks were particularly important during the de Nazification of Germany during the aftermath of the Second World War Field Security led to the successful arrest of leading Nazis including Himmler and Doenitz The author who served in the Corps for over 20 years and saw active service in Northern Ireland and the Falklands gives fascinating examples of differing Intelligence techniques in action These include the exploitation of Imagery Interpretation Human Intelligence including the interrogation of prisoners of war the examination of enemy documents and the deployment of Signals Intelligence so that commanders have enough information to fight the battles The support the Intelligence Corps gave to the Special Operations Executive during the Second World War is well covered as are examples of Special Duties since 1945 The reader will appreciate that as with any work relating to national intelligence and security Sharing the Secret has been written under the restrictions of the era That said it provides a long overdue insight into the contribution of members of the Intelligence Corps over seventy years of war and peace As featured in Burnham Highbridge News

The Brunei Revolt, 1962-1963 Nicholas van der Bijl, 2012-10-24 In December 1962 nationalists in Brunei the hugely wealthy small kingdom on the North Coast of Borneo formed the Army of North Kalimantan TNKU and demanding greater democracy engineered a rebellion against the Sultan and seized a large number of hostages Perceived to be an attempt by communists to destabilize the Sultanate and seize power within twelve hours of its outbreak British forces were dispatched by ship and aircraft from Singapore to restore order the first unit to arrive being 1 2nd Gurkhas who entered the capital Within the week the 1 Queens Own Highlanders had recaptured the strategically important oil fields and occupied Seria 42 Commando Royal Marines attacked Limbang and 1 Green Jackets landed in west Brunei The next six months were spent rounding up TNKU and since there were major concerns that Indonesia could be behind the Revolt the charismatic Major General Walter Walker then commanding 17th Gurkha Division was sent to Brunei to command operations By mid May 1963 the surviving TNKU had been captured While rapidly suppressed the Revolt was the catalyst for the three year Confrontation with Indonesia 1963-66

The Cyprus Emergency Nicholas van der Bijl, 2014-05-19 An in depth look at the conflicts in Cyprus during the mid twentieth century The UK has been involved in Cyprus for over 125 years Strategically placed in the Eastern Mediterranean it was initially ideal for protection of the Suez Canal and more recently as a listening post for the troubled Middle East and southern flank of NATO The British faced two serious problems the first the

Greek Cypriots desire for Enosis union with Greece and second the intense rivalry and antipathy between the Greek and Turkish communities In 1955 the former resulted in a bitter EOKA terrorist campaign led by Colonel George Grivas This resulted in the deaths of over one hundred British servicemen Nicosia s Murder Mile was the scene of many shootings The Governor Field Marshal Harding narrowly escaped assassination in his residence Even British families were targeted The next phase was the Turkish Government s military intervention in 1974 to prevent what they saw as the Greek takeover In a bloody invasion which saw widespread ethnic cleansing and displacement of communities the Island was divided into two sectors policed by the United Nations This exists today as do the British Sovereign Base areas at Dhekalia and Atrokiri Episkopi The Cyprus Emergency describes the most troubled years of this beautiful island which is so well known to British servicemen their families and holiday makers

Operation Banner Nicholas van der Bijl,2009-10-19 A comprehensive chronicle of the British Army s decades long campaign in Northern Ireland by a military historian and veteran of the conflict In the summer of 1969 annual Loyalist parades known as the marching season sparked violence in the city of Londonderry The unrest quickly spread across Northern Ireland and the British Government deployed troops in support of the Royal Ulster Constabulary So began Operation Banner which would continue on for decades before the Peace Process officially ended the campaign in 2007 In Operation Banner historian and British Army veteran Nicholas van der Bijl offers a compelling chronicle of that difficult time Beginning with a historical overview of The Troubles he recounts how British troops were initially welcomed by the Catholic community and how the events of Bloody Sunday January 30th 1972 galvanized the IRA Other notable events including the burning of the British Embassy in Dublin and the bombing of a British Parachute Brigade headquarters are also covered This detailed narrative demonstrates how thirty years of sectarian violence and a remorseless counter terrorism campaign deeply affected the lives of the Northern Irish people as well as several generations of the British Army
