Royal Siamese Maps Santanee Pasuk, Santanee Phasuk, 2004 In 1996 seventeen exquisite handdrawn and hand coloured cotton maps were discovered in the Grand Palace Bangkok These long lost treasures record cartographically Siamese warfare and trade during the first three reigns of the Bangkok Period 1782 1851 Large in size and works of art in themselves these maps overturn the conventional view of indigenous map making in Southeast Asia Focusing on Siam and on her immediate neighbours the collection also includes a remarkable four metre coastal map extending from peninsular Malaysia through China to Korea AUTHOR Dr Santanee Phasuk is the senior teacher at Chitrlada School and gained her doctorate in cartography from the School of Oriental and African Studies University of London Professor Emeritus Philip Stott was a professor of Geography at SOAS London 378 colour illustrations Siam in Trade and War Narisa Chakrabongse, 2006 Historical maps are much more than geographical records Often they provide insights into a country's politics trade and war In 1996 17 large hand drawn and handcoloured maps were discovered in the Princess Abhantri Paja Mansion in the Grand Palace Bangkok This magnificent collection is today in the care of HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn Now for the first time Her Royal Highness has graciously allowed five of these precious maps to go on show at the Jim Thompson House Center for Arts Together with 80 other related items the exhibition Siam in Trade and War Royal Maps of the Nineteenth Century gives a fascinating picture of Siamese history and geopolitics during the first three reigns of the Chakri dynasty 120 colour illustrations Dictionary Catalog of the Map Division New York Public Library. Map Division, 1971 Maps of Malaysia and Borneo Frédéric Durand, Richard Curtis (Dato'), 2013 Maps of Malaya and Borneo Discovery Statehood and Progress showcases the extensive map collections of His Royal Highness Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah Sultan of Selangor and Richard Curtis The combined collections contain more than 160 maps dating from the 1500s to after Malaysia's formation in 1963 The collections include early Portuguese Dutch French and English maps nautical charts maps of the interior maps from atlases and encyclopaedias maps showing economy culture and communications and urban maps Extensive captions highlight key features of the maps provide insights into their creators and explain the context in which the maps were produced and used The presentation of the collections is preceded by an authoritative text on the mapping of Malaya and Borneo over the last 1 800 years This text explains the quest for accurate maps illustrates how maps showcased the changing economic cultural and political dynamics within Malaya and Borneo and describes the evolution of mapping techniques as well as providing insights into the work of leading cartographers Imperial Borderlands Marie de Rugy, 2021-10-18 This book presents a connected history of South East Asian borderlands drawing on late nineteenth century British and French geographical policies and practice It focuses on the scramble in Asia when in 1885 the British Raj incorporated Upper Burma and the French created a Protectorate in Annam Tonkin the Northern part of present day Vietnam Fought over by the imperial states and neighbouring nations the frontier zones were fashioned and represented not only by the two European powers but also by the Chinese Empire the Kingdom of Siam and the local populations The counterpoint between the discourses produced and the cartographical practices on the ground in the longue dur e reveals the interacting processes of territory building in all their unpredictability This book is the updated version of the author s Aux confins des empires Cartes et constructions territoriales dans le nord de la p ninsule indochinoise 1885 1914 Paris ditions de la Sorbonne 2018 It is translated by Saskia Brown an experienced academic translator from French in the humanities and social sciences With a foreword by Matthew Edney Siam Mapped Thongchai Winichakul, 2021-05-25 This unusual and intriguing study of nationhood explores the 19th century confrontation of ideas that transformed the kingdom of Siam into the modern conception of a nation Siam Mapped challenges much that has been written on Thai history because it demonstrates convincingly that the physical and political definition of Thailand on which other works are based is anachronistic Owners of the Map Claudio Sopranzetti, 2018 On May 19 2010 the Royal Thai Army deployed tanks snipers and war weapons to disperse the thousands of Red Shirts protesters who had taken over the commercial center of Bangkok to demand democratic elections and an end to inequality Key to this mobilization were motorcycle taxi drivers who slowed down filtered and severed mobility in the area claiming a prominent role in national politics and ownership over the city and challenging state hegemony Four years later on May 20 2014 the same army general who directed the dispersal staged a military coup unopposed by protesters How could state power have been so fragile and open to challenge in 2010 and yet so seemingly sturdy only four years later How could protesters who had once fearlessly resisted military attacks now remain silent Owners of the Map provides answers to these questions central to contemporary political mobilizations around the globe through an ethnographic study of motorcycle taxi drivers in Bangkok Claudio Sopranzetti explores the unresolved tensions in the drivers everyday lives their migration trajectories consumer desires and political demands amidst the restructuring of Thai capitalism after the 1997 economic crisis Reconstructing the entanglements between their everyday mobility and political mobilization Sopranzetti reveals mobility not just as a strength of contemporary capitalism but also as one of its fragile spots always prone to disruption by the people who sustain its channels but remain excluded from their benefits In so doing Owners of the Map advances an analysis of power that focuses not on the sturdiness of hegemony or the ubiquity of everyday resistance but on its potential fragility as well as the work needed for its maintenance Mapping an Empire Matthew H. Edney, 2024-05-31 In this fascinating history of the British surveys of India Matthew H Edney relates how imperial Britain used modern survey techniques to not only create and define the spatial image of its Empire but also to legitimate its colonialist activities There is much to be praised in this book It is an excellent history of how India came to be painted red in the nineteenth century But more importantly Mapping an Empire sets a new standard for books that examine a fundamental problem in the history of European imperialism D Graham Burnett Times Literary Supplement Mapping an Empire is undoubtedly a major contribution to the rapidly growing literature on science and empire and a work which deserves to

,1965 Lords of Things Maurizio Peleggi, 2002-07-31 Lords of Things offers a fascinating interpretation of modernity in late nineteenth and early twentieth century Siam by focusing on the novel material possessions and social practices adopted by the royal elite to refashion its self and public image in the early stages of globalization It examines the westernized modes of consumption and self presentation the residential and representational architecture and the public spectacles appropriated by the Bangkok court not as byproducts of institutional reformation initiated by modernizing sovereigns but as practices and objects constitutive of the very identity of the royalty as a civilized and civilizing class Bringing a wealth of new source material into a theoretically informed discussion Lords of Things will be required reading for historians of Thailand and Southeast Asia scholars generally It represents a welcome change from previous studies of Siamese modernization that are almost exclusively concerned with the institutional and economic dimensions of the process or with foreign relations and will appeal greatly to those interested in transnational cultural flows the culture of colonialism the invention of tradition and the relationship between consumption and identity formation in the modern era
