Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance Van Dyck Stijn Alsteens, Adam Eaker, Xavier F. number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field. As the first study of its kind, this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth-century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research. Its 19 chapters, divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians, address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently.

Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens (Flemish 1577-1640) in light of early modern traditions of eloquence, particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth-century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius (1547-1606). Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period (1600-08), this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise. As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters, the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing, a Senecan approach to eclecticism, a commitment to emulation, and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles. Two chapter-long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing. Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children (Los Angeles, Getty Museum) and Kneeling Man (Rotterdam, Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen), these close-looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker. Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist, such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age.

Exploding Aesthetics, 2021-11-08 Today many visual artists are giving the cold shoulder to the static, isolated concept of visual art and searching instead for novel, dynamic connections to different image strategies. Because of that, visual art and aesthetics are both forced to reconsider their current positions and their traditional apparatus of concepts. In that process, many questions surface. To mention a few: Could the characteristics of an artistic image and its specific manner of signification be determined in a world which is entirely aestheticized? What would be the consequences of a variety of image strategies for aesthetic experience? Would it be possible to develop a form of cultural criticism by means of artistic activities in a culture awash in images? In order to answer such questions, aesthetics as a philosophy of art needs to transform its field into a critical philosophy of topical visual culture. As an impetus to such a reinterpretation of the visual working area the L B Series organized three symposia evenings under the title Exploding Aesthetics in cooperation with De Appel Center for Contemporary Art Amsterdam Besides the presentations and discussions from these symposia this volume includes various arguments positions and statements in both articles and interviews by a variety of visual artists designers advertising professionals theorists and curators The participants are Mieke Bal Annette W Balkema Peg Brand Experimental Jetset Liam Gillick Jeanne van Heeswijk Martin Jay KesselsKramer Friedrich Kittler Maria Lind Wim Michels Nicholas Mirzoeff Planet Art Joke Robaard Annemieke Roobeek Remko Scha Rob Schr der Henk Slager Richard Shusterman Pauline Terreehorst Wolfgang Welsch and Marie Lou Witmer Lectures for the XX1st Century Bart Raymaekers,2008 Old Master Drawings ,1927 Rubens Joost vander Auwera,2007 Over the past four years the Royal Fine Arts Museums of Belgium have undertaken a huge research Flemish Drawings of the Seventeenth Century from the Collection of Frits Lugt, Institut Néerlandais, Paris Institut néerlandais (Paris, France),1972 A Selection of Drawings by Old Masters in the Museum Collections Victoria and Albert Museum.
