Scottish Country Life Alexander Fenton,1989      Country Life in Scotland Alexander Fenton,1987      An Introduction To Scottish Ethnology Alexander Fenton,Margaret A. Mackay,2013-08-06 The publication of An Introduction to Scottish Ethnology sees the completion of the fourteen volume Scottish Life and Society series originally conceived by the eminent ethnologist Professor Alexander Fenton The series explores the many elements in Scottish history language and culture which have shaped the identity of Scotland and Scots at local regional and national level placing these in an international context Each of the thirteen volumes already published focuses on a particular theme or institution within Scottish society This introduction provides an overview of the discipline of ethnology as it has developed in Scotland and more widely the sources and methods for its study and practical guidance on the means by which it can be examined within its constituent genres based on the experience of those currently working with ethnological materials Theory and practice are presented in an accessible fashion making it an ideal companion for the student the scholar and the interested amateur alike      The Making of the Scottish Countryside M. L. Parry,T. R. Slater,2021-10-12 Originally published in 1980 this book examines the evolution of the Scottish landscape from pre historic times to the mid nineteenth century It considers the way in which the structural base of agriculture and the changing farming system came to alter the Scottish rural landscape This book with its focus on the underlying landscape processes gives a developmental view of landscape change It therefore considers the crucial question of the rate and pace of landscape change and argues that the Scottish landscape was not the product of a few brief phases of quite rapid development but rather the result of a continual and gradual process of change It also looks at the regional variation of landscape change and establishes the importance of regional linkages in the diffusion of ideas especially in new technology      Heritage J.D. Fladmark,2014-02-04 This volume deals with policy methods and techniques for the stewardship of our land and our cultural assets The focus is on interpretation and presentation of heritage themes and the papers should be of interest to those concerned with school and university curricula those working in museums and galleries and those in charge of parks and tourist enterprises Individual contributions celebrate achievements and debate issues relating to the natural and built environment the future of green tourism planning and interpretation in museums parks and private estates The authors include Professor David Lowenthal on cultural landscapes Charles McKean on architecture David Macmillan on the arts John Purser on music Elisabeth Luard on cooking the Earl of Glasgow on the opening of a family estate to the public and Gordon Baxter on the heritage of one of Scotland's great enterprise stories in the food industry The main theme of the book is that we do not always take enough pride in our heritage which is often undervalued and neglected Positive action is required to raise awareness to foster respect for our inheritance and to generate a new kind of enterprise that will not endanger the heritage resources on which we depend for enjoyment and jobs      Willing's Press Guide ,1931 A guide to the press of the United Kingdom and to the principal publications of Europe

Australia the Far East Gulf States and the U S A      Scotland's Castles Janet Brennan-Inglis, 2014-07-07 Scotland's Castles is a beautifully illustrated celebration and account of the renaissance of Scottish castles that has taken place since 1950 Over 100 ruined and derelict buildings from tiny towers to rambling baronial mansions have been restored as homes hotels and holiday lets These restorations have mainly been carried out by new owners without any connections to the land or the family history of the buildings which they bought as ruins Their struggles and triumphs including interviews and first person accounts form the core of the book set in the context of the enormous social political and economic changes of the late twentieth century      The Living World Samantha Walton, 2020-12-10 Harnessing new enthusiasm for Nan Shepherd's writing The Living World asks how literature might help us reimagine humanity's place on earth in the midst of our ecological crisis The first book to examine Shepherd's writing through an ecocritical lens it reveals forgotten details about the scientific political and philosophical climate of early twentieth century Scotland and offers new insights into Shepherd's distinctive environmental thought More than this this book reveals how Shepherd's ways of relating to complex interconnected ecologies predate many of the core themes and concerns of the multi disciplinary environmental humanities and may inform their future development Broken down into chapters focusing on themes of place ecology environmentalism Deep Time vital matter and selfhood The Living World offers the first integrated study of Shepherd's writing and legacy making the work of this philosopher feminist amateur ecologist geologist and innovative modernist accessible and relevant to a new community of readers      Sunset Song - Voted 'The Best Scottish Book of All Time' Lewis Grassie Gibbon, 2013-06-15 Faced with the choice between her harsh farming life and the seductive but distant world of books and learning the spirited Chris Guthrie decides to remain in her rural community But as the devastation of the First World War leaves her life and community in tatters she must draw strength from what she loves and endure like the land she loves so intensely Brutal and beautiful passionate and powerful Sunset Song is a moving portrait of a declining way of life and an inspirational celebration of the human spirit And in Chris Guthrie Grassie Gibbon has given us one of literature's most unforgettable heroines

Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook, 1927      The Dynamics of Heritage Laurence Gouriévidis, 2016-03-23 There has been much academic interest in the role of museums as places where understanding of the past is shaped and legitimised for a wide and increasingly diverse public This book focuses on the museum representations of the Highland Clearances a much neglected aspect of one of the most disputed and politically charged issues in modern Scottish history Drawing together a range of inter disciplinary themes and notions it considers the cultural legacy of the period brings to light the socially and historically conditioned meanings and values encapsulated in museum narratives of the Clearances and shows the significance of collective memory in the negotiations inherent in heritage work Examining both national and local museums in Scotland and concluding with comparisons with Australian museums of migration Dynamics of Heritage contributes to our understanding of the processes of heritage construction and its relationship to issues of memory
