through New York in the annals of the Nation It was one of the first places in the Colonies to give formal utterance to the doctrine that taxation without representation is unjust and should not be borne by men claiming to be free the doctrine that gradually went deep into the hearts and consciences of men and led to discussion opposition and war to the declaration of independence the achievement of liberty and the founding of a new nation It took an active part in all that glorious movement the most significant movement in modern history and though handicapped by the merciless occupation of the British troops after the disaster of August 1776 it continued to do what it could to help along the cause to which so many of its citizens had devoted their fortunes their lives This is volume two out of three covering the history of Kings County Brooklyn and Queens
