Dunbar,2013-03-14 Gary S Dunbar Pro fesh yon al i zay shun pro fesh yon al i ZAY shun! I do not think I like that word I am quite certain I do not like that word! said A F Martin of Oxford University in 1980 when I mentioned to him that I was making a study of the professionalization of geography in Europe and North America from about 1870 to 1930 I should not have been surprised by his reply because Mr Martin a highly regarded lecturer tutor and university man was in some ways a typical example of his generation of British geographers in that he did not have an advanced degree and his publication record was meager Except for a single remarkable essay Martin 1951 he was not well known in the field of geography at least not outside the United Kingdom Was he then a professional geographer Yes indeed because he was a full time scholar in a distinguished university even though he lacked the sort of credentials that have been demanded of subsequent generations of scholars at Oxford and elsewhere I certainly do not mean to denigrate Martin or his ilk I am simply using this anecdote to launch a book on the emergence of modern geography Studies in Higher Education in England and Scotland Alexander Caswell Ellis,Carrie Alberta Lyford,Chester Deacon Jarvis,George Edwin MacLean,Stephen Beauregard Weeks,United States.
