Screenplays Of The African American Experience:

Screenplays of the African American Experience Phyllis Rauch Klotman, 1991-06-22 Book on African American filmmaking includes six screenplays by Afro American screenwriters      The A to Z of African American Theater Anthony D. Hill, Douglas Q. Barnett, 2009-09-02 African American Theater is a vibrant and unique entity enriched by ancient Egyptian rituals West African folklore and European theatrical practices A continuum of African folk traditions it combines storytelling mythology rituals music song and dance with ancestor worship from ancient times to the present It afforded black artists a cultural gold mine to celebrate what it was like to be an African American in The New World The A to Z of African American Theater celebrates nearly 200 years of black theater in the United States identifying representative African American theater producing organizations and chronicling their contributions to the field from its birth in 1816 to the present This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries on actors directors playwrights plays theater producing organizations themes locations and theater movements and awards

African American Dramatists Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2004-10-30 Despite their significant contributions to the American theater African American dramatists have received less critical attention than novelists and poets This reference offers thorough critical assessments of the lives and works of African American playwrights from the 19th century to the present The book alphabetically arranges entries on more than 60 dramatists including James Baldwin Arna Bontemps Ossie Davis Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the playwright's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume closes with a selected general bibliography African American dramatists have made enormous contributions to the theater and their works are included in numerous editions and anthologies Some of the most popular plays of the 20th century have been written by African Americans and high school students and undergraduates study their works But for all their popularity and influence African American playwrights have received less critical attention than poets and novelists This reference offers thorough critical assessments of more than 60 African American dramatists from the 19th century to the present      Reel Black Talk Linda Allen, Spencer Moon, 1997-09-23 As evidenced in interviews included in this volume many African American filmmakers consider themselves artists first their ethnicity being only part of what influences their work This is the first book by an African American on contemporary African American filmmakers Here directors and producers speak for themselves posing challenges to current thinking in the field Special emphasis is given to the filmmakers productions and their experiences Essays on historic figures reveal the rich history of the African American contribution to cinema From Oscar Micheaux and Spencer Williams to Neema Barnett and the team of George Jackson and Doug McHenry this revealing reference work will enlighten scholars students and film buffs As early as 1899 African Americans were involved in the filmmaking industry Oscar Micheaux took directing writing and producing to a higher level with the release of his first film in 1918 by 1948 he had made more than forty films Currently by international world cinema standards the African American tradition rivals cinema from anywhere in the world but these filmmakers face a quandary whether to make films through the Hollywood system or follow an independent vision This book presents a cross section of filmmakers from each camp and also focuses on those who work in both arenas African American Cinema Through Black Lives Consciousness Mark A. Reid, 2019-01-12 The interdisciplinary quality of the anthology makes it approachable to students and scholars of fields ranging from film to culture to African American studies alike

Historical Dictionary of African American Theater Anthony D. Hill, Douglas Q. Barnett, 2008-12-04 African American Theater is a vibrant and unique entity enriched by ancient Egyptian rituals West African folklore and European theatrical practices A continuum of African folk traditions it combines storytelling mythology rituals music song and dance with ancestor worship from ancient times to the present It afforded black artists a cultural gold mine to celebrate what it was like to be an African American in The New World The Historical Dictionary of African American Theater celebrates nearly 200 years of black theater in the United States identifying representative African American theater producing organizations and chronicling their contributions to the field from its birth in 1816 to the present This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries on actors directors playwrights plays theater producing organizations themes locations and theater movements and awards

American Fatherhood Jürgen Martschukat, 2019-12-31 Explores the surprising diversity of fathers and fatherhood throughout American history and society The nuclear family has been endlessly praised as the bedrock of American society even though there has rarely been a time in history when a majority of Americans lived in such families This book deconstructs the myth of the nuclear family by presenting the rich diversity of family lives in American history from the American Revolution to the twenty first century To tell this story Jürgen Martschukat focuses on fathers and their relations to families and American society Using biographical close ups of twelve different characters each embedded in historical context American Fatherhood provides a much more realistic picture of how fatherhood has been performed within different kinds of families Each protagonist covers a crucial period or event in American history presents a different family constellation and makes a different argument with regard to how American society is governed through the family

Black Women Film and Video Artists Jacqueline Bobo, 2013-09-13 Black women film and video makers have been producing shorts documentaries and films since the early part of this century Unfortunately not only has their work been overlooked by distributors but critical reviews have been few and far between Conceived to redress that omission Black Women Film and Video Artists is the first comprehensive history and analysis of this genre Gathered here are noted scholars and critics as well as the film video makers themselves who offer insight into the work of underexplored artists The discussions range from pioneering to contemporary film makers and include artists such as Madeline Anderson Monica Freeman Jacqueline Shearer Kathleen Collins Julie Dash Camille Billops Zeinabu irene Davis and Michelle Parkerson among others Contributors include Jacqueline Bobo Carmen Coustaut Gloria J Gibson C A Griffith Monique Guillory Carol Munday Lawrence O Funmilayo Makarah Ntongela Maselila Jacqueline Shearer P Jane Splawn      Feminist Auteurs Geetha Ramanathan, 2006 Feminist Auteurs examines a rich and diverse body of work that has received insufficient attention both in film studies and in feminist theory on film Looking at individual films within the context of feminist film as a genre Ramanathan examines film from diverse cultural traditions while paying close attention to what might be regarded as feminist in different cultural contexts The films chosen expand our ideas of feminism covering as they do film from Africa Latin America Europe Asia and the US Full length interpretations of twenty four films both older and contemporary including Vagabond India Song Bhaji on the Beach Chocolat and Daughters of the Dust lay out a complete and powerful framework for reading women's film      Cuba's Racial Crucible Karen Y. Morrison, 2015-05-26 This prize winning study examines the historical interplay of racial identity nationality and family formation in Cuba from the 18th century to today Since the 19th century there have been two opposing perspectives on Cuban racial identity one that frames Cubans as white and one that sees them as racially mixed based on acceptance of African descent For the past two centuries these competing views of have remained in continuous tension while Cuban women and men make their own racially oriented decisions about choosing partners and family formation Cuba's Racial Crucible explores the historical dynamics of Cuban race relations by highlighting the role race has played in reproductive practices and genealogical memories associated with family formation Karen Y Morrison reads archival oral history and literary sources to demonstrate the ideological centrality and inseparability of race nation and family in definitions of Cuban identity Morrison also analyzes the conditions that supported the social advance and decline of notions of white racial superiority nationalist projections of racial hybridity and pride in African descent Winner NECLAS Marissa Navarro Best Book Prize      Freedom from Liberation Gerard Aching, 2015-08-07 Delves into the life and work of Juan Francisco Manzano the enslaved Cuban poet and author of Spanish America's only known slave narrative Valuable Choice By exploring the complexities of enslavement in the autobiography of Cuban slave poet Juan Francisco Manzano 1797-1854 Gerard Aching complicates the universally recognized assumption that a slave's foremost desire is to be freed from bondage As the only slave narrative in Spanish that has surfaced to date Manzano's autobiography details the daily grind of the vast majority of slaves who sought relief from the burden of living under slavery Aching combines historical narrative and literary criticism to take the reader beyond Manzano's text to examine the motivations behind anticolonial and antislavery activism in pre-revolution Cuba when Cuba's Creole bourgeoisie sought their own form of freedom from the colonial arm of Spain      Screen Writings Scott MacDonald, 2023-11-15 Ask audience to cut the part of the image on the screen that they don't like Supply scissors Yoko Ono Tokyo June 1964 A dazzling range of unconventional film scripts and texts many published for the first time make up Scott MacDonald's newest collection Illustrated with nearly 100 film stills this fascinating book is at once a reference work of film history and an unparalleled sampling of experimental language art It contributes to the very dissipation of boundaries between cinematic literary and artistic expression thematized in the films themselves Each text and script is introduced and contextualized by MacDonald a filmography and a bibliography round out the volume This is a readable often quite funny literature that investigates differences between seeing and reading Represented are avant garde classics such as Hollis Frampton's Poetic Justice and Zorns Lemma and Morgan Fisher's Standard Gauge and William Greaves's recently rediscovered Sympsiopsychotaxiplasm Take One Michael Snow turns film loose on language in So Is This Peter Rose turns language loose on theory in Pressures of the Text Some of the most influential feminist filmscripts of recent decades Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen's Riddles of the Sphinx Su Friedrich's Gently Down the Stream Trinh T Minh-ha's Reassemblage Yvonne Rainer's Privilege confirm this book's importance for readers in gender and cultural studies as well as for filmmakers and admirers of experimental writing independent cinema and the visual arts in general Ask audience to cut the part of the image on the screen that they don't like Supply scissors Yoko Ono Tokyo June 1964 A dazzling range of unconventional film scripts and texts many published for the first time make up Scott MacDonald's
