Sex Behind Bars:

Men Behind Bars Wayne S. Wooden, 2012-12-06 Barry is a seventeen year old single white male He has blond hair and blue eyes weighs 150 pounds and is five feet eleven inches tall He was arrested in California at age sixteen for assault and robbery Because he was underage he was initially segregated in a one man cell while in county jail Then upon admission to a state prison reception and classification facility he was housed in a special dormitory for young inexperienced inmates who would be at risk within the general population Upon completion of his screening Barry's counselor recommended that he be sent to a penal institution reserved for the younger more violence prone and hard core inmates Barry said that he felt he would have problems at the recommended facility but his counselor replied You won't have any problems Once he arrived Barry was double celled with a nineteen year old inmate who beat and anally raped him during his first night in the admission unit Barry's cellmate continued to assault him sexually during the two weeks they were housed together

Macho Love Jacobo Schifter, 1999 Macho Love Sex Behind Bars in Central America is the first in depth study of sexual culture and AIDS in Latin prisons Psychologists social workers criminologists and AIDS specialists will discover how the interplay of sexual ideals prostitution manipulation resistance and power relationships among prisoners and some staff are based on money sex drugs and violence Macho Love gives you a stirring and emotional look at the various risks and dangers lurking in the Latin American prison culture and discusses how Costa Rican and Central American prisons are improving the situation with new intervention programs Fascinating and informative Macho Love explores the dangerous Latin prison culture as it discusses new HIV AIDS prevention programs implemented in some Costa Rican and Central American prisons the frequency and types of prostitution and rape in prison drug and alcohol addiction and their effects on the spread of HIV AIDS an understanding of why rehabilitation programs fail or succeed the lack of opportunities to work or to study that leaves the inmates vulnerable to the only freedom they have left sex why a cachero or a man who penetrates another man is not considered a homosexual and often refuses to wear a condom which tremendously increases the risk of HIV AIDS Macho Love explores the life threatening sexual culture in prisons to bring you the realities of the Latin prison culture This revealing book examines the different types of relationships which occur in prisons and the factors that place inmates at risk for contracting the HIV virus such as not wearing a condom because of intoxication due to drugs and alcohol Macho Love also shows you how the new HIV AIDS intervention programs in Costa Rica are combatting these serious problems to lower HIV infection rates and avoid the spread of this deadly and dangerous disease Sex Work and Language Benedict J.L.

Rowlett, Rodrigo Borba, 2025-02-27 This collection brings together established and exciting new voices to shed light on the language of and about sex work offering an empirically nuanced understanding of commercial sex through language While there is burgeoning literature on sex work in the social sciences there has been little work to date centering it from a linguistic perspective Chapters make the case for language as central to sex work practices and the transactions of intimacy in the negotiation of services promotional strategies and the performance of desire Featuring insights from diverse geographic contexts the chapters critically reflect on different dimensions of language and sex work including sex work gender and desire online sex work sex work and race sex worker advocacy and the language of victimization and exploitation The volume illuminates the ways in which commercial sex work is negotiated in embodied linguistic interaction and attendant issues of power identity gender race and desire This book systematizes the body of growing knowledge around language and sex work from an interdisciplinary lens It is key reading for scholars policymakers and activists in sociolinguistics and discourse analysis as well as fields such as anthropology sociology criminology and health and social care Sex

Trafficking in Postcolonial Literature Laura Barberán Reinales, 2014-08-27 At present the bulk of the existing research on sex trafficking originates in the social sciences Sex Trafficking in Postcolonial Literature adds an original perspective on this issue by examining representations of sex trafficking in postcolonial literature This book is a sustained interdisciplinary study bridging postcolonial literature in English and Spanish and sex trafficking as analyzed through literary theory anthropology sociology history trauma theory journalism and globalization studies It encompasses postcolonial theory and literature s aesthetic analysis of sex trafficking together with research from social sciences psychology anthropology and economics with the intention of offering a comprehensive analysis of the topic beyond the type of Orientalist discourse so prevalent in the media This is an important and innovative resource for scholars in literature postcolonial studies gender studies human rights and global justice Criminal Intimacy Regina Kunzel, 2022-03-22 Sex is usually assumed to be a closely guarded secret of prison life But it has long been the subject of intense scrutiny by both prison administrators and reformers as well as a source of fascination and anxiety for the American public Historically sex behind bars has evoked radically different responses from professionals and the public alike In Criminal Intimacy Regina Kunzel tracks these varying interpretations and reveals their foundational influence on modern thinking about sexuality and identity Historians have held the fusion of sexual desire and identity to be the defining marker of sexual modernity but sex behind bars often involving otherwise heterosexual prisoners calls those assumptions into question By exploring the sexual lives of prisoners and the sexual culture of prisons over the past two centuries along with the impact of a range of issues including race class and gender sexual violence prisoners rights activism and the HIV epidemic Kunzel discovers a world whose surprising plurality and mutability reveals the fissures and fault lines beneath modern sexuality itself Drawing on a wide range of sources including physicians psychiatrists sociologists correctional administrators journalists and prisoners themselves as well as depictions of prison life in popular culture Kunzel argues for the importance of the prison to the history of sexuality and for the centrality of ideas about sex and sexuality to the modern prison In the process she deepens and complicates our understanding of sexuality in America The Tragedy of True Crime John J. Lennon, 2025-09-23 In 2001 John J Lennon killed a man on a Brooklyn Street Now he s a journalist working from behind bars trying to make sense of it all The Tragedy of True

Crime is a first person journalistic account of the lives of four men who have killed written by a man who has killed Lennon entered the New York prison system with a sentence of 28 years to life but after he stepped into a writing workshop at Attica Correctional Facility his whole life changed Reporting from the cell block and the prison yard Lennon challenges our obsession with true crime by telling the full life stories of men now serving time for the lives they took These men have completely different backgrounds Robert Chambers a preppy Manhattanite turned true crime celebrity Milton E Jones a seventeen year old coaxed from burglary into something far darker and Michael Shane Hale a gay man caught in a crime of passion and all are searching to find meaning and redemption behind bars Lennon s reporting is intertwined with his own story from a young man seduced by the infamous gangster culture of New York City to a celebrated prison journalist The same desire echoes throughout the lives of these four men to become more than murderers A first of its kind book of immersive prison journalism The Tragedy of True Crime poses fundamental questions about the stories we tell and who gets to tell them What essential truth do we lose when we don t consider all that comes before an act of unthinkable violence And what happens to the convicted after the cell gate locks

The Sex Offenses and their Treatments Victor T. Cheney,2004-10-01 This book is the only one that lists 115 crimes offenses deviances and 62 infamous criminals that can all be blamed on the sex urge and its underlying chemistry The book also enumerates and briefly explains more than a hundred different treatments that have been used to treat these problems

The efficacy of these treatments has been found to vary greatly Some of them have even proven to be counterproductive and the best is seldom used This book is one of the very few available that dwell extensively with the powerful sex urge in its evil results crime disease aggression jealousy lost spirituality etc in as much detail Most that is written about sex deals with its good aspects love ecstasy children family etc but we need the information in this book to come to the reality of the power of these urges for evil

Sex and Sexuality in Latin America Daniel Balderston, Donna Guy, 1997-02 Organized around three central themes control and repression the politics and culture of resistance and sexual transgression as affirmation of marginalized identity this intriguing collection will challenge and inform conceptions of Latin American sexuality

The Sex Slave Murders 2 R. Barri Flowers, 2013-09-08 From R Barri Flowers award winning criminologist and internationally bestselling author of The Sex Slave Murders comes a riveting new true crime short The Sex Slave Murders 2 The Chilling Story of Serial Killers Fred Rosemary West The gripping tale chronicles the lives of Britain's most infamous serial killer couple Over the course of two decades Fred and Rosemary West murdered more than a dozen young females Most of the murders were sexually motivated and took place at the couple's home on 25 Cromwell Street in Gloucester in South West England Only when the killers were brought to justice did their murderous reign of rape torture bondage and terror come to an end As a bonus included is a complete true crime story on American serial killer couple Alton Coleman and Debra Brown who during one hot summer claimed the lives of eight people during a shocking and murderous crime spree across multiple states in the Midwest Also included are excerpts from The Sex Slave Murders which recounts the frightening tale of married serial killers Gerald and Charlene Gallego and the sex slave fantasies that fueled their kidnapping and murder of young women

Sexual Assault in Canadian Sport Curtis Fogel, Andrea Quinlan, 2023-11-15 Sexual assault by and against athletes is a pervasive and long standing problem in Canada but reports are commonly minimized doubted and dismissed by sport administrators police and judges Through a detailed examination of over 300 cases appearing in news media and legal files across Canada from 1990 to 2020 Sexual Assault in Canadian Sport uncovers an enduring institutional tolerance of sexual assault in Canadian sport and the betrayal that many victims experience by those same institutions Curtis Fogel and Andrea Quinlan argue further that both the Canadian sport system and the criminal legal system have failed to ensure victims safety and often undermine sexual assault prevention and trauma informed care Sexual Assault in Canadian Sport opens new avenues for critical dialogue about sport law masculinities and gender based violence Crucially it also offers constructive strategies to increase safety in sport

Sex, Love, and Families Jason King, Julie Hanlon Rubio, 2020-04-15 2021 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in theology 2021 Catholic Media Association Award first place award in marriage and family living Six years into the papacy of Pope Francis Catholics are still figuring out how to respond to his image of the church as a field hospital a church that goes into the streets rather than remaining locked up behind closed doors Marriage and family are primary sites of the field hospital called to meet people's need for healing and accompaniment with compassion and love The authors of this collection all lay a mix of single and married traditional and progressive Catholics take up this work They offer practical wisdom from and critical engagement with the Catholic tradition but avoid rehashing decades old theological debates Instead their essays engage with and respond to realities shaping contemporary family life like religious pluralism technology migration racism sex and gender incarceration consumerism and the call to holiness The result is a collection that envisions ways that families can be places of healing and love in and for the world

Harm Reduction Patricia G. Erickson, Diane M. Riley, Yuet W. Cheung, Pat A. O'Hare, 1997-12-15 Since the First International Conference on the Reduction of Drug Related Harm held in 1990 the term harm reduction has gained wide currency in the areas of public health and drug policy Previously the field was characterized by heated struggle between prohibition and legalization of addictive substances and this debate tended to obscure practical collective approaches Harm reduction an approach which encompasses various policy directives and program initiatives was inspired by the positive outcomes of such public measures as needle exchange programs for reduction of HIV risk methadone maintenance programs education on the risks of tobacco use and programs designed to limit alcohol consumption The essays in this book illustrate the scope and vigour of the emerging harm reduction model The essays drawn from seven international conferences on harm reduction cover a wide variety of topics including public policy women and reproductive issues the experiences of special populations human rights defining and measuring harm and intervention Researchers and practitioners will benefit from the varied papers in the volume which combine insights into policy making and front line outreach efforts with comprehensive conceptual and empirical approaches Harm Reduction represents an important initiative in making academic work accessible and useful to a larger community and provides guidance for the development of effective policies and programs

Avenging Child Sex Abuse Joshua Long, Jason Vukovich, 2023-07-21 This book explores the subjects of child sex abuse flaws in the justice system cultural support for vigilantism prison violence and the socio legal philosophy of punishment Child sex abuse leaves a scar that lasts a lifetime Can any legal punishment balance the scales of justice Can sex offenders ever repay their debt to society or more importantly to the victim For some victims of this traumatic abuse the debt remains unpaid and it accrues interest Vigilantes seek to avenge child victims by hunting down sex offenders in the community Sometimes prisoners in correctional facilities conspire with rogue correctional officers to mete out their own form of convict justice on people who hurt children While their motives and methods differ these outraged citizens seek retribution through violence because they are disgusted with a justice system they believe shows extraordinary leniency toward child sex abusers Whether this violence occurs in the community or in jail cells across the country the message these vigilantes broadcast is the same if the government won't seek retribution they will The story is told through a series of case studies based on interviews with real life vigilantes most of whom are serving life sentences for their crimes For the first time vigilantes have been given a chance to tell their own stories Patrick Drum Steven Sandison Joseph Druce Jeremy Moody Jon Watson James Fairbanks and others have shared their personal insights to help us get inside the vigilante mind For some readers these accounts will humanize people considered to be simply murderers For others it will demystify the popular portrayals of vigilantes in our society Life on the Installment

Plan Karen Maertens, Marty Maertens, 2012-09-28 My name is Marvin Marty Maertens and this book is based on my life story a life of crime jails prison a mental hospital and ten marriages My life of crime actually began at age 13 state prisons started at age 21 with an Army stockade to my credit before that Prison life ended in December 1976 at age 45 Life itself started again with my 10th marriage on December 5 1981 I knew in 1976 that my life in prison was over I had all I could handle with six prison sentences However at the time I wasn't necessarily sure I was done with crime So here is my story and I hope you enjoy it and learn from it Innovations and Advancements in Sex Offender Research Wesley Jennings, 2016-04-14 This book provides a comprehensive dissemination of theoretically grounded and empirically sound research on sex offenders and sex offending It uses diverse methodological approaches with implications for the research of criminal justice policy and practice The chapters derive from and focus on different geographical contexts and generate empirical evidence concerning sex offenders and sex offending including low sex recidivism rates a lack of sex offender specialization little to no evidence of sex offending continuity from adolescence to adulthood and a host of collateral consequences of sex offender registration and notification policies with limited deterrent effect or public safety benefit This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Crime Justice Same-Sex Cultures and Sexualities Jennifer Robertson, 2008-04-15 This book demonstrates the centrality of sex gender and sexuality to theories of human behaviors and practices Moves beyond other lesbian and gay studies readers by presenting a broader view of the significance of studying same sex cultures and sexualities across cultures Offers readings from all four subfields of anthropology cultural biological linguistic and archaeological along with historical and applied anthropology Includes discussion of biotechnology and bioethics health and illness language ethnicity identity politics post colonialism kinship development and policymaking The War on Sex

David M. Halperin, Trevor Hoppe, 2017-03-09 The past fifty years are conventionally understood to have witnessed an uninterrupted expansion of sexual rights and liberties in the United States This state of the art collection tells a different story while progress has been made in marriage equality reproductive rights access to birth control and other areas government and civil society are waging a war on stigmatized sex by means of law surveillance and social control The contributors document the history and operation of sex offender registries and the criminalization of HIV as well as highly punitive measures against sex work that do more to harm women than to combat human trafficking They reveal that sex crimes are punished more harshly than other crimes while new legal and administrative regulations drastically restrict who is permitted to have sex By examining how the ever intensifying war on sex affects both privileged and marginalized communities the essays collected here show why sexual liberation is indispensable to social justice and human rights Contributors Alexis Agathocleous Elizabeth Bernstein J Wallace Borchert Mary Anne Case Owen Daniel McCarter Scott De Orio David M Halperin Amber Hollibaugh Trevor Hoppe Hans Tao Ming Huang Regina Kunzel Roger N Lancaster Judith Levine Laura Mansnerus Erica R Meiners R Noll Melissa Petro Carol Queen Penelope Saunders Sean Strub Maurice Tomlinson Gregory Tomso The Domestic Epidemic is Worse Than We Thought United States.
