Osmanlı Devleti'nde Müftülük (Taşra Teşkilatı) Cihan Kılıç, The Ottomans and the Balkans Fikret Adanır,Suraiya Faroqhi,2002-04-01 This discussion of historiography concerning the Ottoman Empire should be viewed in the context of our discipline s self examination which certainly has been encouraged by recent conflicts in southeastern Europe and the Middle East Our contributors analyse the fashion in which the historiographies established in various national states have viewed the Ottoman Empire and its legacy At the same time they discuss the links of twentieth century historiography with the rich historical tradition of the Ottoman Empire itself both in its metropolitan and its provincial forms The struggle against anachronisms born from the nationalist paradigm in history doubtless constitutes the most important common feature of these otherwise very diverse studies The Ottoman Military Organization in Hungary Klára Hegyi,2020-08-10 No detailed description available for The Ottoman Military Organization in permanent embassy of the Republic of Venice Mother of Uzun Hassan a well known diplomat Sara Khatun had a great role in regulation of diplomatic relations with Western countries Friendship policy of Uzun Hassan with European countries was continued by his son Sultan Yagub his grandson Shah Ismail I and other Safavi emperors In the period of the Safavi emperor Shah Abbas reign these relations had become much broadened In his book the historian Yagub Mahmudov has described the real history of this interesting diplomatic relations The scientist in his work separately explains economic political interests of the parties being in relation expressing his own subjective idea in this respect The author brings in such issue his right position to his readers notice This is an irrefutable fact that after historical Azerbaijani lands been divided between Russia and Iran under Gulistan 1813 and Turkmenchay 1828 agreements Azerbaijan history is presented to the world as Russian and Iranian history The history of the Akkoyunlu and the Safavi empires established by Azerbaijani Turkish dynasties even presented as a history of Iran From this view point the book Azerbaijan and Europe published by us is of great importance to develop right idea about Azerbaijani history in European readership We have no doubt The Sultan of Vezirs Theoharis Stavrides,2021-08-04 Mahmud Pasha Angelovic served as Grand Vezir under Sultan Mehmed II in the years following the Ottoman conquest of Constantinople which were marked by an extensive imperial project transforming the Ottoman principality into an empire This book attempts to piece together the available evidence on Mahmud Pasha s Byzantine descent and family network as well as his multi faceted contribution to the founding of the new empire through military leadership diplomatic practices and architectural and literary patronage considering also his execution and the creation of a posthumous legend presenting him as a martyr Using Ottoman Greek and Western sources as well as archival material this study focuses on the period of transition from Byzantine to Ottoman Empire and would be of interest to historians and other specialists studying that period Caliphate Redefined Hüseyin Yılmaz,2019-11-05 How the Ottomans refashioned and legitimated their rule through mystical imageries of authority The medieval theory of the caliphate epitomized by the Abbasids 750 1258 was the construct of jurists who conceived it as a contractual leadership of the Muslim community in succession to the Prophet Muhammed s political authority In this book H seyin Y lmaz traces how a new conception of the caliphate emerged under the Ottomans who redefined the caliph as at once a ruler a spiritual guide and a lawmaker corresponding to the prophet s three natures Challenging conventional narratives that portray the Ottoman caliphate as a fading relic of medieval Islamic law Y lmaz offers a novel interpretation of authority sovereignty and imperial ideology by examining how Ottoman political discourse led to the mystification of Muslim political ideals and redefined the caliphate He illuminates how Ottoman Sufis reimagined the caliphate as a manifestation and extension of cosmic divine governance The Ottoman Empire arose in Western Anatolia and the Balkans where charismatic Sufi leaders were perceived to be God s deputies on earth Y lmaz traces how Ottoman rulers in alliance with an increasingly powerful Sufi establishment continuously refashioned and legitimated their rule through mystical imageries of authority and how the caliphate itself reemerged as a moral paradigm that shaped early modern Muslim empires A masterful work of scholarship Caliphate Redefined is the first comprehensive study of premodern Ottoman political thought to offer an extensive analysis of a wealth of previously unstudied texts in Arabic Persian and Ottoman Turkish Osmanlı Müesseseleri ve Medeniyeti Tarihi Zekeriya Bülbül,

Frontiers of Islamic Art and Architecture Gülru Necipoğlu, Julia Bailey, 2008 Muqarnas is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts In Muqarnas articles are being published on all aspects of Islamic visual culture historical and contemporary as well as articles dealing with unpublished textual primary sources Architecture and Landscape in Medieval Anatolia, 1100-1500 Patricia Blessing, 2017-03-08 Anatolia was home to a large number of polities in the medieval period Given its location at the geographical and chronological juncture between Byzantines and the Ottomans its story tends to be read through the Seljuk experience This obscures the multiple experiences and spaces of Anatolia under the Byzantine empire Turko Muslim dynasties contemporary to the Seljuks the Mongol Ilkhanids and the various beyliks of eastern and western Anatolia This book looks beyond political structures and towards a reconsideration of the interactions between the rural and the urban an analysis of the relationships between architecture culture and power and an examination of the region s multiple geographies In order to expand historiographical perspectives it draws on a wide variety of sources architectural artistic documentary and literary including texts composed in several languages Arabic Armenian Byzantine Greek Persian and Turkish Original in its coverage of this period from the perspective of multiple polities religions and languages this volume is also the first to truly embrace the cultural complexity that was inherent in the reality of daily life in medieval Anatolia and surrounding regions The Seljuks of Anatolia A.C.S. Peacock, Sara Nur Yildiz, 2012-11-06 One of the most powerful dynasties to rule in the medieval Middle East the Seljuks played a critical role in the development of Anatolia s multi ethnic multi confessional identity Under Seljuk rule c 1081 1308 the formerly Christian Byzantine territories of Anatolia were transformed by the development of Muslim culture society and politics and it was then well before the arrival of the Ottomans that a Turkish population became firmly established in these lands But these developments are little understood and the Seljuk dynasty remains little studied Yet the Seljuks of Anatolia were one of the most influential dynasties of the thirteenth century Middle East controlling some of the major trade routes of the period playing a crucial role in linking East and West of the medieval world Here Andrew Peacock and Sara Nur Yildiz explore the history of Anatolia under Seljuk rule in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries examining developments in culture politics religion and society and shedding new light on the influence of the dynasty within Anatolia and throughout Western Asia The Seljuks of Anatolia examines the crucial aspect of the Seljuk dynastic identity and how this related to their royal households and to the material and literary arts they sought to influence and promote through patronage It also demonstrates how the Seljuks played a critical role in the development of Islamic culture in Anatolia with strong influences from Iran Syria and further afield By taking this critical role into account this book offers an analysis of the religious transformations that occurred during this period from the Byzantine and Christian identities that prevailed amongst the Seljuks to the Sufis that held key positions in the Seljuk court With its lively discussion of Seljuk identity politics and culture The Seljuks of Anatolia will be of great interest to researchers with interests in Byzantium as well as the material culture and society of the medieval Islamic world Statehood in the Altaic World Oliver Corff, 2018-06-15 Altaic Studies deal with a group of languages and respective cultures that show obvious similarities Turkic Mongol and Manchu Tungus Whether they are really related or whether they just influenced each other remains a matter of scholarly discussion The Permanent International Altaistic Conference PIAC was established in 1957 as a working group to further research on this issue Annual meetings have since been taking place in different countries and the respective proceedings offer a wealth of information on the Altaic languages and cultures The 2016 meeting took place at Ardahan Turkey a new and modern university close to the borders of Georgia and Armenia it covered a wide range of subjects of which a peer reviewed selection is published in the present volume The papers deal with an Old Turkic inscription the B bur n ma memoirs of B bur Crimean history Uighur calligraphy the modern role of the Kazakh language the ancestor cult in Turkic traditions administrative and state concepts in the 18th century Chinese imperial pentaglot dictionary which includes Turki an appreciation of Denis Sinor 1916 2011 celebrated Altaist and for many years secretary general of the PIAC the publishing projects of the outstanding Lamaist scholar and politician Lalitavajra Rol pa i rdo rje and several poetic travelogues in Mongolia The editors are members of the PIAC Barbara Kellner Heinkele is Prof emer of Turkic Studies Free University of Berlin and secretary general of the PIAC Oliver Corff is an independent scholar of Chinese Studies Hartmut Walravens is retired from his positions at the Berlin State Library and as Director of the worldwide ISBN system

Rebuilding Anatolia after the Mongol Conquest Patricia Blessing, 2016-12-05 This book is a study of Islamic architecture in Anatolia following the Mongol conquest in 1243 Complex shifts in rule movements of population and cultural transformations took place that affected architecture on multiple levels Beginning with the Mongol conquest of Anatolia and ending with the demise of the Ilkhanid Empire centered in Iran in the 1330s this book considers how the integration of Anatolia into the Mongol world system transformed architecture and patronage in the region Traditionally this period has been studied within the larger narrative of a progression from Seljuk to Ottoman rule and architecture in a historiography that privileges Turkish national identity Once Anatolia is studied within the framework of the Mongol Empire however the region no longer appears as an isolated case rather it is integrated into a broader context beyond the modern borders of Turkey Iran and the Caucasus republics The monuments built during this period served a number of purposes mosques were places of prayer and congregation madrasas were used to teach Islamic law and theology and caravanserais secured trade routes for merchants and travelers This study analyzes architecture on multiple overlapping levels based on a detailed observation of the monuments The layers of information extracted from the monuments themselves from written sources in Arabic Persian and Turkish and from historical photographs shape an image of Islamic architecture in medieval Anatolia that reflects the complexities of this frontier region New patrons emerged craftsmen migrated between neighboring regions and the use of locally available materials fostered the transformation of designs in ways that are closely tied to specific places Starting from these sources this book untangles the intertwined narratives of architecture history and religion to provide a broader understanding of frontier culture in the medieval Middle East with its complex interaction of local regional and trans regional identities
