Osullivans Odyssey:

O'Sullivan's Odyssey Rick Spier, 2004 A novel of historical fiction O Sullivan s Odyssey examines the dynamics and consequences of family dysfunction against the backdrop of the Irish Potato Famine and the American Civil War It tells the story of D nal OOSullivan BZara a young Irishman who seems to be marked for greatness but who cannot overcome his tragic flaw depression and borderline personality disorder to attain it An Odyssey to Freedom K. Gunnar Bergström, 1983

North American Odyssey Craig E. Colten, Geoffrey L. Buckley, 2014-03-27 This groundbreaking volume offers a fresh approach to conceptualizing the historical geography of North America by taking a thematic rather than a traditional regional perspective Leading geographers building on current scholarship in the field explore five central themes Part I explores the settling and resettling of the continent through the experiences of Native Americans early European arrivals and Africans Part II examines nineteenth century European immigrants the reconfiguration of Native society and the internal migration of African Americans Part III considers human transformations of the natural landscape in carving out a transportation network replumbing waterways extracting timber and minerals preserving wilderness and protecting wildlife Part IV focuses on human landscapes blending discussions of the visible imprint of society and distinctive approaches to interpreting these features The authors discuss survey systems regional landscapes and tourist and mythic landscapes as well as the role of race gender and photographic representation in shaping our understanding of past landscapes Part V follows the urban impulse in an analysis of the development of the mercantile city nineteenth and twentieth century planning and environmental justice With its focus on human environment interactions the mobility of people and growing urbanization this thoughtful text will give students a uniquely geographical way to understand North American history Contributions by Derek H Alderman Timothy G Anderson Kevin Blake Christopher G Boone Geoffrey L Buckley Craig E Colten Michael P Conzen Lary M Dilsaver Mona Domosh William E Doolittle Joshua Inwood Ines M Miyares E Arnold Modlin Jr Edward K Muller Michael D Myers Karl Raitz Jasper Rubin Joan M Schwartz Steven Silvern Andrew Sluyter Jeffrey S Smith Robert Wilson William Wyckoff and Yolonda Youngs "An" Odyssey to Freedom Gunnar K. Bergstroem, 1963 The Phantom Image Patrick R. Crowley, 2019-12-10 Drawing from a rich corpus of art works including sarcophagi tomb paintings and floor mosaics Patrick R Crowley investigates how something as insubstantial as a ghost could be made visible through the material grit of stone and paint In this fresh and wide ranging study he uses the figure of the ghost to offer a new understanding of the status of the image in Roman art and visual culture Tracing the shifting practices and debates in antiquity about the nature of vision and representation Crowley shows how images of ghosts make visible structures of beholding and strategies of depiction Yet the figure of the ghost simultaneously contributes to a broader conceptual history that accounts for how modalities of belief emerged and developed in antiquity Neither illustrations of ancient beliefs in ghosts nor depictions of afterlife these images show us something about the visual event of seeing itself The Phantom Image offers essential insight into ancient art visual culture and the history of the image Spaceflight Revolution James R. Hansen, 1995 Journeys of Charter School Creators Maria M. Leahy, Rebecca A. Shore, 2018-12-28 Journeys of Charter School Creators tells of the journeys of ten thriving charter schools throughout the United States and their leaders over the past 20 years The first seven cases are follow up stories from the original book published in 2004 Adventures of Charter School Creators Leading from the Ground Up The final three cases feature three North Carolina charter schools and their leaders Each leaders narrative reveals amazing journeys with different paths taken different choices made however these leaders were all entrepreneurs with a passion to guide their schools for the long haul toward success with a specific mission and vision to improve educational opportunities and a better future for a specific group of children Readers will learn through the firsthand experiences of these charter school leaders lessons on leading in the challenging charter school world a rewarding yet somewhat tumultuous journey of growth and innovation The Author's Guide to Planning Book Events Carol Hoenig, 2007-07-13 Carol is the perfect mix of what you look for in an event planner she is knowledgeable accessible and attentive She knows her audience as well as the resources at her command shake not stir liberally with some outside the box thinking and you have the makings for a near perfect event Kim and Danny Adlerman authors of Africa Calling and How Much Wood Could a Woodchuck Chuck Writing a book requires technique and skill but reaching and captivating an audience is another skill altogether one that does not come naturally to most authors In The Author's Guide to Planning Book Events award winning author and accomplished book event coordinator Carol Hoenig provides the know how to show authors how to Find and choose the perfect venue Plan an event for optimum results Build on each success to reach more readers Hoenig has worked with hundreds of successful authors and book publicists and shares the best of her stories and theirs She explains why nontraditional venue functions can be much more lucrative than traditional events at a local bookstore And she provides step by step instructions for planning organizing and enjoying publication and book signing events The result is a must have resource for every author's bookshelf Adventures of Charter School Creators Terrence E. Deal, Guilbert C. Hentschke, Kendra Kecker, 2004 Adventures of Charter School Creators takes the reader inside the world of individual educational entrepreneurs who have created charter schools from scratch and lived to tell about it Drawn from examples across the country individuals and a few teams tell their stories of the victories they enjoyed and the defeats they overcame to create their schools They include an Episcopal priest working in the Pico Union community of Los Angeles a corporate attorney in Miami a manpower training specialist in East Saint Louis the chief financial officer of a major African American church in New York City a retired military officer in North Carolina as well as experienced school teachers and administrators From these stories Deal and Hentschke extract and examine the issues of school leadership that are peculiar to those school leaders who have chosen to create schools from scratch This book Examines entrepreneurial leadership as a concrete manifestation of school leadership Sheds light on the concrete differences between leadership in relatively autonomous start up charters and the relatively dependent traditional schools Anchors charter school leadership within the context of general non education leadership and distinguishes it from what is typically associated with school leadership today It describes The general forces in society which are pushing public K 12 education into market based initiatives The general leadership issues of any break away or start up enterprise Will be of interest to all educators A Handbook to the Reception of Classical Mythology Vanda Zajko, Helena Hoyle, 2017-03-16 A Handbook to the Reception of Classical Mythology presents a collection of essays that explore a wide variety of aspects of Greek and Roman myths and their critical reception from antiquity to the present day Reveals the importance of mythography to the survival dissemination and popularization of classical myth from the ancient world to the present day Features chronologically organized essays that address different sets of myths that were important in each historical era along with their thematic relevance Features chronologically organized essays that address different sets of myths that were important in each historical era along with their thematic relevance Offers a series of carefully selected in depth readings including both popular and less well known examples

Xenophon's Ephesiaca Aldo Tagliabue, 2017-09-25 After many decades of neglect the last forty years have seen a renewed scholarly appreciation of the literary value of the Greek novel Within this renaissance of interest four monographs have been published to date which focus on individual novels I refer to the specialist studies of Achilles Tatius by Morales and Laplace and those of Chariton of Aphrodisias by Smith and Tilg This book adds to this short list and takes as its singular focus Xenophon's Ephesiaca Among the five fully extant Greek novels the Ephesiaca occupies the position of being an anomaly since scholars have conventionally considered it to be either a poorly written text or an epitome of a more sophisticated lost original This monograph challenges this view by arguing that the author of the Ephesiaca is a competent writer in artistic control of his text insofar as his work has a coherent and emplotted focus on the protagonists progression in love and also includes references to earlier texts of the classical canon not least Homer's Odyssey and the Platonic dialogues on Love At the same time the Ephesiaca exhibits stylistically an overall simplicity contains many repetitions and engages with other texts via a thematic rather than a pointed type of intertextuality these and other features make this text different from the other extant Greek novels This book explains this difference with the help of Cougnas view of paraliterature a term that refers not to its status as non literature but rather to literature of a different kind that is simple action oriented and entertaining By offering a definition of the Ephesiaca as a paraliterary narrative this monograph sheds new light on this novel and its position within the Greek novelistic corpus whilst also offering a more nuanced understanding of intertextuality and paraliterature Riding the Waves Jane McDonald, 2019-10-31 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER Everything is much easier in life when difficult situations are faced with humour and a smile But don't get me wrong that took years to realise What a journey Whether performing in an arena presenting a number one TV show or recording a top ten album Jane McDonald will never forget her Northern roots Her down to earth Yorkshire charm is as much a part of her as her talent for singing and here she is telling her remarkable story with characteristic wit and warmth in her own words A miner's daughter from Wakefield Jane was a shy child who struggled with anxiety but she found the courage to overcome her fears and follow her passion for performing Jane famously hit the big time overnight on TV show The Cruise twenty years ago but here she talks for the first time about how she survived the dark legacy of that early success and climbed right back up for a second bite of the cherry It hasn't all been plain sailing but in Jane's world tough times make the good times better and her spirit heart and humour sparkle from every page The South Carolina Historical Magazine ,1975 Experiencing Hektor Lynn Kozak,2016-12-01 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched At the Iliad's climax the great Trojan hero Hektor falls at the hands of Achilles But who is Hektor He has resonated with audiences as a tragic hero great warrior loyal husband and father protector of a doomed city Yet never has a major work sought to discover how these different aspects of Hektor's character accumulate over the course of the narrative to create the devastating effect of his death This book documents the experience of Hektor through the Iliad's serial narrative Drawing on diverse tools from narratology to cognitive science but with a special focus on film character television poetics and performance practice it examines how the mechanics of serial narrative construct the character of Hektor How do we experience Hektor as the performer makes his way through the epic How does the juxtaposition of scenes in multiple storylines contribute to character How does the narrative work to manipulate our emotional response How does our relationship to Hektor change over the course of the performance Lynn Kozak demonstrates this novel approach through a careful scene by scene breakdown and analysis of the Iliad focusing especially on Hektor In doing so she challenges and destabilises popular and scholarly assumptions about both ancient epic and the Iliad's other hero The Publishers Weekly ,1889 Washington Appellate Reports Washington (State). Court of Appeals,2006 Greece & Rome ,1969

Ancient Fiction and Early Christian Narrative Ronald F. Hock,J. Bradley Chance,Judith Perkins,1998 Classicists as well as Biblical scholars contribute to the annual conference sessions held since 1992 from which the 15 essays here have been selected and revised for publication They focus mostly on Greek novels but also other works of ancient fiction as they relate to the New Testament and to extra canonical Christian narrative Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
