The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction Areti Dragas, 2014-08-31 Focusing on the figure of the storyteller this study breaks new ground in the approach to reading contemporary literature by identifying a growing interest in storytelling For the last thirty years contemporary fiction has been influenced by theoretical discourses textuality and writing Only since the rise of postcolonialism have academic critics been more overtly interested in stories where high theory frameworks are less applicable However as we move through various contemporary contexts engaging with postcolonial identities and hybridity to narratives of disability and evolutionary accounts of group and individual survival a common feature of all is the centrality of story which posits both the idea of survival and the passing on of traditions The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction closely examines this preoccupation with story and storytelling through a close reading of six contemporary international novelists that are either about actual storytellers or engage with the figure of the storyteller revealing how death of the author has given birth to the storyteller Shared Waters Stella Borg Barthet, 2009 The present volume contains general essays on unequal African Western academic exchange the state and structure of postcolonial studies representing male violence in Zimbabwe s wars parihaka in the poetic imagination of Aotearoa New Zealand Middle Eastern Nigerian Moroccan and diasporic Indian women s writing community in post Independence Maltese poetry in English key novels of the Portuguese colonies the TV series The Kumars at No 42 fictional representations of India the North in western Canadian writing and a pedagogy of African Canadian literature As well as these there is a selection of poems from Malta by Daniel Massa Adrian Grima Norbert Bugeja Immanuel Mifsud and Maria Grech Ganado and essays providing close readings of works by the following authors and filmmakers Thea Astley George Elliott Clarke Alan Duff Francis Ebejer Lorena Gale Romesh Gunsekera Sahar Khal fah Anthony Minghella Michael Ondaatje Caryl Phillips Edgar Allan Poe Salman Rushdie Gh dah al Samm n Meera Syal Lee Tamahori Contributors Leila Abouzeid Hoda Barakat Amrit Biswas Thomas Bonnici Stella Borg Barthet Ivan Callus Devon Campbell Hall Saviour Catania George Elliott Clarke Brian Crow Pilar Cuder Dom nguez B rbel Czennia Hilary P Dannenberg Pauline Dodgson Katiyo Bernadette Falzon Daphne Grace Adrian Grima Kifah Hanna Janne Korkka T Vijay Kumar Chantal Kwast Greff Maureen Lynch P rcopo Kevin Stephen Magri Isabel Moutinho Melanie A Murray Taiwo Oloruntoba Oju Gerhard Stilz Jes s Varela Zapata Christine Vogt William Beyond Return Lucas Hollister, 2019 In Beyond Return Lucas Hollister examines the political orientations of fictions which return to forms that have often been considered sub literary regressive outdated or decadent and suggests new ways of reading contemporary adventure novels radical noir novels postmodernist mysteries war novels and dystopian fictions A Theory of Uncertainty Andreas Klinke, 2024-08-02 Using sources from classical to modern that broach the phenomenon of uncertainty and its relation to risk this book creates a novel approach to the recognized but theoretically often unattended issue of uncertainty Andreas Klinke develops a new general theory of uncertainty that provides a taxonomy of categories which are deduced from a critical inventory in philosophy social and natural sciences and risk research Comprising six parts the philosophical grounding of uncertainty sets the stage for the following philosophical and social scientific accounts and explanation of four distinctive guises of uncertainty that form a taxonomic notion and rationale ontological epistemological linguistic communicative and teleological uncertainty The theoretical conceptual rumination provides a complex differentiated view of the anatomy of uncertainty and an understanding that can be used in further theoretical and empirical research as well as socio political practice The latter is delineated in the final part addressing the societal domestication of uncertainty This book will be of great interest to scholars and students in philosophy social and natural sciences risk research as well as inter and transdisciplinary science fields The Return of the Soldier Rebecca West, 2010-09-21 The Return of the Soldier tells the story of a shell shocked soldier who returns home from the First World War believing that he is in love with a working class woman from his past rather than married to his aristocratic wife His family and doctor must decide whether to allow him to remain safely in his delusion or to bring him back to reality and return him to the front A brief novel with a seemingly simple plot it is a classic of modernist literature and provides a point of entry into discussions of some of the twentieth century s most enduring themes Appendices include textual variants patriotic and antiwar verse from World War I war journalism by West contemporary paintings and propaganda posters and material on shell shock The Psalms of the Return (Book V, Psalms 107-150) Michael D. Goulder, 1998-04-01 Book V of the Psalter Psalms 107 150 divides into three with the Songs of the Ascents 120 134 as the central section and the first and third units following parallel structures historical Davidic alphabetical Hallel psalms The units are all compositions of the Return period 107 119 for the reconstruction of the Temple 120 134 for Nehemiah s wall building 135 150 for Ezra s mission Psalms 120 134 follow the episodes of Nehemiah s memoir in order All three groups show evidence of evening morning alternation and were intended for festal use 107 118 at the Passover of Ezra 6 120 134 at the Tabernacles of Nehemiah 12 135 150 at Ezra s Tabernacles Neh 8 The Return of the Native (SparkNotes Literature Guide) SparkNotes, 2014-08-12 The Return of the Native SparkNotes Literature Guide by Thomas Hardy Making the reading experience fun Created by Harvard students for students everywhere SparkNotes is a new breed of study guide smarter better faster Geared to what today s students need to know SparkNotes provides Chapter by chapter analysis Explanations of key themes motifs and symbols A review quiz and essay topics Lively and accessible these guides are perfect for late night studying and writing papers The Infernal Return Rodney Farnsworth, 2001-10-30 George Lukas and other leading filmmakers acknowledge their indebtedness to mythographic scholarship on archetypes In his new study author Rodney Farnsworth identifies a pattern of filmmakers obsessions with archetypal rituals centered on sacrifice and the family in films made between 1977 and 1983 a period of political upheaval on both sides of the Atlantic Combining a strong historical reading of the films in a sociopolitical context and utilizing Queer Theory as a framework for his arguments Farnsworth offers a close examination of key films of the period including works by Stanley Kubrick Robert Altman and Francis Ford Coppola and provides a fascinating and timely glimpse of an important political and cinematic time Marking the end of a more liberal era the late seventies and early eighties witnessed the growth of reactionary conservative movements such as the New Religious Political Right These were the years that gave birth to movies from esoteric art house pictures to blockbusters such as Star Wars that seemed in many cases to be adaptations of primordial mythology subverting liberal to moderate views into reactionary depictions of family life Although filmmakers had turned to these myths to shape their works Farnsworth observes the unstable volatile nature of the archetypes deconstructed their best social intentions into something rich strange and deadly This thought provoking work will be of interest to students of social history as well as film studies A Return to the Common Reader Adelene

Buckland,2017-03-02 In 1957 Richard Altick's groundbreaking work The English Common Reader transformed the study of book history Putting readers at the centre of literary culture Altick anticipated and helped produce fifty years of scholarly inquiry into the ways and means by which the Victorians read Now A Return to the Common Reader asks what Altick's concept of the common reader actually means in the wake of a half century of research Digging deep into unusual and eclectic archives and hitherto overlooked sources its authors give new understanding to the masses of newly literate readers who picked up books in the Victorian period They find readers in prisons in the barracks and around the world and they remind us of the power of those forgotten readers to find forbidden texts shape new markets and drive the production of new reading material across a century Inspired and informed by Altick's seminal work A Return to the Common Reader is a cutting edge collection which dramatically reconfigures our understanding of the ordinary Victorian readers whose efforts and choices changed our literary culture forever Rewriting the Return to Africa Anne M. François,2011-08-16

Rewriting The Return to Africa Voices of Francophone Caribbean Women Writers examines the ways Guadeloupean women writers Maryse Condé Simone Schwarz Bart and Myriam Warner Vieyra demystify the theme of the return to Africa as opposed to the masculinist version by Négritude male writers from the 1930s to 1960s Négritude a cultural and literary movement drew much of its strength from the idea of a mythical or cultural reconnection with the African past allegorized as a mother figure In contrast these women writers of the post colonial era who are to large extent heirs of Négritude differ sharply from their male counterparts in their representation of Africa In their novels the continent is not represented as a propitious mother figure but a disappointing father figure This study argues that these women writers subversion of the metaphorical figure of Africa and its transformation is tied to their gender The women novelists are indeed critical of a female allegorization of the land that is reminiscent of a colonial or nationalist project and a simplistic representation of motherhood that does not reflect the complexities of the Diaspora's relation to origins and identity Unlike the primary male writers of the Négritude movement they carefully gendered the notion of return by choosing female protagonists who made their way back to the Motherland in search of identity I argue that writing is a more suitable space for the female subject seeking identity because it allows her to have a voice and become subject rather than object as that was the case with the Négritude writers The women writers shattering of the image of Mother Africa and subsequently that of Father Africa highlights the complex relationship between Africa and the Diaspora from a female point of view It shifts the identity quest of the characters towards the Caribbean which emerges as the real problematic mother a multi faceted fragmented figure that reflects the constitutive clash that occurred in the archipelago between Europe Africa and the Americas where the issues of race gender class culture ethnicity history and language are very complex

The Return Hakan Nesser,2010-09-03 The author of Borkmann s Point spins a story that leaves even the most veteran crime novel readers chilled A new case for Chief Inspector Van Veeteren the complicated history of a nearly perfect murder On a sunny August day a man is released from prison On a rainy April day children at play find his corpse The fact that the dead man is Leopold Verhaven only becomes clear after some time because the mutilated corpse is without its head legs and feet Who would be interested in killing this man a double murderer who spent 24 years in prison Determined to let no case go unsolved Chief Inspector Van Veeteren reopens the case What he discovers is that Verhaven was a star sprinter before he went to prison for allegedly killing two of his lovers However he never confessed to the murders and spent a lifetime proclaiming his innocence Was he killed because someone thought he had not been punished enough Or was someone afraid of Verhaven s revenge A terrible suspicion stalks Van Veeteren had Verhaven been telling the truth Was he really innocent
