Portraits of Wollstonecraft Eileen M. Hunt, 2023-10-19 One of The Tablet's Books of the Year 2021 Portraits of Wollstonecraft collects and introduces 102 texts and artifacts that document Mary Wollstonecraft's public reception in art literature philosophy and feminist politics Each portrait is a milestone in her depiction in culture From William Blake's 1803 poem Mary to Maggi Hambling's contentious sculpture in 2020 these sources validate the monumental place Wollstonecraft holds in not just one but many canons The color images in Part I Public Sightings trace her earliest reception in portraiture from 1785 to 1804 with detailed analysis paired with each of the

illustrations Arranged chronologically these landmark images are followed by the reviews of Wollstonecraft's books that appeared during her lifetime in Jamaica Madrid Amsterdam and London Part II Global Afterlives examines her multifarious posthumous reception and features diary entries excerpts from English language biographies letters articles and introductions to her books From Olive Schreiner's introduction to the Rights of Women composed in Cape Town in 1889 to the translator's preface to the first Czech edition of A Vindication of the Rights of Woman in 1904 they showcase an impressive sweep of cross cultural perspectives on her life and writings The sources in Part III Making an International Icon chart the depth and breadth of her legacies on a global scale Feminists philosophers and social scientists from Ruth Benedict to Virginia Sapiro to Amartya Sen have written and spoken with conviction about the emotional power of looking into the eyes of the author of the Rights of Woman This section includes major thinkers from across the 19th and 20th centuries who responded to Wollstonecraft's theories on virtue love gender education and rights Mary Shelley Emma Goldman Virginia Woolf Simone de Beauvoir Betty Friedan Susan Moller Okin Barbara Johnson and Martha Nussbaum We see how Wollstonecraft gained traction in feminist politics both as a philosopher and as a transcultural icon of the cause beginning with English suffragist Millicent Fawcett's centennial edition of the Rights of Woman in 1891 and extending through feminist art in The Paris Review during the age of MeToo Assembling responses from Ireland Continental Europe North and South America and across the former colonies of the British Empire this one of a kind collection tells a compelling story of Wollstonecraft's watershed contributions to human rights debates throughout the modern and contemporary world The Portrait in Byzantine Illuminated Manuscripts Iohannis Spatharakis, 2024-09-02 Final Portrait Kellie Sisson Snider, 2000-01-20 Everyone has a different story to live even when they walk under the same wet sky every day of their lives Even when the same wickedness approaches them in the same dark mask no two stories are ever the same Everyone makes her story her own Everyone interprets the plot in her own style and decides whether to give the antagonist her heart or her fist her peace or her fury And how she interprets the story has everything to do with how her story will end from the prologue This is the way it was for Cassandra Dee Orgeron and Helen Boudreaux in the deep south of Louisiana in the early 1970's Each had learned about horror at the hand of their father but only one would rise above it Their friend the artist Kat Breaux would document their changes in a chilling series of portraits that would earn her fame and fortune but ultimately break her heart This is the story of two incest victims who take very different paths as they try to overcome their family legacy One path leads to destruction the other is the road of hope Lely & the Stuart Portrait Painters Charles Henry Collins Baker, 1912 History of Universities Mordechai Feingold, 2003-01-23 This annual publication contains a mixture of learned articles book reviews conference reports and bibliographical information making it an indispensable reference for the historian of higher education The Portrait in Byzantine Illuminated Manuscripts , Waverley Novels. [With Plates, Including a Portrait.] Walter Scott, 1830 Roman Imperial Portrait Practice in the Second Century AD Christian Niederhuber,2022 Through systematic case studies of Faustina the Younger s and Marcus Aurelius portraits on coins and in sculpture this book provides new insights into the functioning of the imperial image in Rome in the second century AD moving a difficult much discussed subject forward decisively The Photo-beacon ,1898 Late Antique Portraits and Early Christian Icons Andrew Paterson,2022-06-30 This book focuses on the earliest surviving Christian icons dated to the sixth and seventh centuries which bear many resemblances to three other well established genres of sacred portrait also produced during late antiquity namely Roman imperial portraiture Graeco Egyptian funerary portraiture and panel paintings depicting non Christian deities Andrew Paterson addresses two fundamental questions about devotional portraiture both Christian and non Christian in the late antique period Firstly how did artists visualise and construct these images of divine or sanctified figures And secondly how did their intended viewers look at respond to and even interact with these images Paterson argues that a key factor of many of these portrait images is the emphasis given to the depicted gaze which invites an intensified form of personal encounter with the portrait s subject The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history theology religion and classical studies Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States.
